Reflections On Multiliterate Lives:

Reflections on Multiliterate Lives Diane Dewhurst Belcher, Ulla Connor, 2001 Reflection on Multiliterate Lives is a collection of personal accounts in narrative and interview format of the formative literacy experiences of highly successful second language users all of who are professional academics Representing fourteen countries in origin the contributors well known specialists in language teaching as well as a variety of other fields in the social and physical sciences recount in their own words past and present struggles and successes as learners of language and of much else Autoethnographic

Perspectives on Multilingual Life Stories Hancı-Azizoglu, Eda Başak, Şahinkarakaş, Şehnaz, Tannacito, Dan J., 2022-05-13 Storytelling is an ideal avenue for language learners to share their experiences and journeys and find a sense of identity Everyone who has learned an additional language has a story to tell but there is a unique type of autoethnographic and linguistic story that can be read in scholarly platforms Autoethnographic Perspectives on Multilingual Life Stories presents the life stories of multilingual people and their experiences by using autoethnography as a research method It proposes narrative as an autobiographical research method that provides the technique and opportunity to express how transnationals construct their identities in foreign and new contexts through partial or full life stories Covering topics such as identity life stories and self discovery this reference work is ideal for academicians researchers scholars practitioners instructors and students New Directions in Second Language Pragmatics J. César Félix-Brasdefer, Rachel Shively, 2021-02-22

New Directions in Second Language Pragmatics brings together varying perspectives in second language L2 pragmatics to show both historical developments in the field while also looking towards the future including theoretical empirical and implementation perspectives This volume is divided in four sections teaching and learning speech acts assessing pragmatic competence analyzing discourses in digital contexts and current issues in L2 pragmatics The chapters focus on various aspects related to the learning teaching and assessing of L2 pragmatics and cover a range of learning environments The authors address current topics in L2 pragmatics such as speech acts from a discursive perspective pragmatics instruction in the foreign language classroom and during study abroad assessment of pragmatic competence research methods used to collect pragmatics data pragmatics in computer mediated contexts the role of implicit and explicit knowledge discourse markers as a resource for interaction and the framework of translingual practice Taken together the chapters in this volume foreground innovations and new directions in the field of L2 pragmatics while at the same time ground their work in the existing literature Consequently this volume both highlights where the field of L2 pragmatics has been and offers cutting edge insights into where it is going in the future Academic Writing in a Second or Foreign Language Ramona

Tang, 2012-01-12 It can be a challenge writing in a language that is not your native tongue Constructing academic essays dissertations and research articles in this second or foreign language is even more challenging yet across the globe thousands of academics and students do so some out of choice some out of necessity This book looks at a major issue within the field of English for Academic Purposes EAP It focuses on the issues confronting non native English speaking academics scholars and students who face increasing pressure to write and publish in English now widely acknowledged as the academic lingua franca Questions of identity access pedagogy and empowerment naturally arise This book looks at both student and professional academic writers using qualitative text analysis quantitative questionnaire data corpus investigations and ethnographic approaches to searchingly examine issues central to the EAP field Narrative Inquiry in Language Teaching and Learning Research Gary Barkhuizen, Phil Benson, Alice Chik, 2024-08-30 Narrative Inquiry in Language Teaching and Learning Research is the only entry level introduction to research methods using stories either as data or as a means of presenting findings and a practical guide for those interested in carrying out narrative studies This successful text is grounded in published empirical research within the field of language teaching and learning and clearly defines basic concepts in narrative inquiry explaining how and why narrative methods have been used in language teaching and learning research and outlining different choices and approaches It also examines the different ways of eliciting analyzing and presenting narrative inquiry data which offers exciting prospects for language teaching and learning research This second edition has been fully revised and updated to reflect the latest research and includes new sections on multimodal digital narrative research and the reporting of findings in dissertations and theses This original and well respected textbook is an ideal course book for specialist courses on narrative inquiry in language teaching and learning It is an excellent entry level text for undergraduate students preparing honours projects postgraduate masters and doctoral students embarking on narrative projects and more advanced researchers seeking to understand the role of narrative inquiry in language teaching and learning research It is also the go to choice as a reference on narrative in more general applied linguistics research methodology courses

"Strangers" of the Academy Guofang Li, Gulbahar H. Beckett, 2023-07-12 No less than other minorities Asian women scholars are confronted with racial discrimination and stereotyping as well as disrespect for their research teaching and leadership and are underrepresented in academia In the face of such barriers many Asian female scholars have developed strategies to survive and thrive This book is among the first to examine their lived experience in Western academic discourses It addresses the socio cultural political academic and personal issues that Asian female scholars encounter in higher education The contributors to this book include first and second generation immigrants who are teachers and researchers in higher education and who come from a wide range of Asian nations and backgrounds They here combine new research and personal narratives to explore the intersecting layers of relationships that impact their lives language culture academic discourses gender class generation and race The book is replete with the richness and complexity of these scholars struggles and triumphs in their professional and personal realms This powerful and engaging volume Examines and celebrates the struggles and triumphs that Asian female scholars experience as they try to make it in academic environments that may differ sharply from the culture of their countries of origin Highlights the unique contributions the authors have made to research theory and the profession Establishes the authors claim to visibility and a voice for themselves and more generally for Asian women in the academy Opens a dialogue on these critical issues by sharing the academic and personal experiences of senior and junior scholars alike and Contributes to the on going discussion on issues pertinent to the status of minority female scholars in higher education Handbook of Research in Second Language Teaching and Learning Eli Hinkel, 2016-11-18 Volume III of the Handbook of Research in Second Language Teaching and Learning like Volumes I and II is a comprehensive state of the art overview of current research into social contexts of second language L2 foreign language FL teaching and learning language policy curriculum types of instruction incremental language skills such as listening speaking reading writing vocabulary and grammar international communication pragmatics assessment and testing It differs from earlier volumes in its main purpose to provide a more in depth discussion and detailed focus on the development of the essential language skills required for any type of communication speaking listening reading vocabulary grammar and writing Volume III preserves continuity with previous volumes in its coverage of all the classical areas of research in L2 FL teaching and learning and applied linguistics but rather than offering a historical review of disciplinary traditions it explores innovations and new directions of research acknowledges the enormous complexity of teaching and learning the essential language abilities and offers a diversity of perspectives Chapter authors are all leading authorities in their disciplinary areas What's new in Volume III Updates the prominent areas of research including the sub disciplines addressed in Volumes I and II and represents the disciplinary mainstays Considers and discusses perspectives held by different schools of thought on the what the how and the why of teaching foundational language skills including theories pedagogical principles and their implementation in practice Captures new and ongoing developments and trends in the key areas of L2 FL teaching and learning and innovative research topics that have gained substantial recognition in current publications including the role of corpora technology and digital literacy in L2 FL teaching and learning Examines new trends in language pedagogy and research such as an increased societal emphasis on teaching academic language for schooling somewhat contradictory definitions of literacy and the growing needs for instruction in intercultural communication Second Language Writing Research Paul Kei Matsuda, Tony Silva, 2014-04-08 In this original volume eighteen researchers from different parts of the world reflect on their own research projects providing insights into key methodological issues in research on second language writing By offering a glimpse into the process of constructing and negotiating knowledge in the field the messy space of situated practices of inquiry it helps to demystify the research process which can appear in published studies and in introductory methodology guides to be neater and more orderly than it actually is Taking a broad conception of research as inquiry that emphasizes the situated and constructed nature of knowledge in the field Second Language Writing Research Perspectives on the Process of Knowledge Construction encourages multiple forms of inquiry including philosophical narrative and historical modes Empirical inquiry as presented in this book encompasses both quantitative and qualitative approaches as well as those that strategically combine them A helpful discussion of the nuts and bolts of developing sustainable research programs is also provided The volume as a whole facilitates a situated issue driven research practice Its unique focus on second language writing research makes it an invaluable resource for both novice and experienced researchers in the field

Learning Pragmatics from Native and Nonnative Language Teachers Andrew D. Cohen, 2018-05-25 This book deals with intercultural pragmatics and how both nonnative teachers NNTs and native teachers NTs may enhance their classroom instruction regarding target language TL pragmatics It focuses primarily on the experiences of instructors as they teach their learners about the pragmatics of the TL both in second and foreign language learning settings It makes clear that there are aspects of teaching pragmatics where it may help to be an NT and other areas where it may help to be an NNT and proposes creative ideas that both sets of teachers may draw on to compensate for gaps in their knowledge Further themes in the book include ideas for motivating students who want to learn about pragmatics the role of technology in teaching and learning pragmatics the role of learning strategies the assessment of pragmatics and ways to research pragmatics The book will be of interest to teachers teacher educators and students interested in researching and improving the teaching of pragmatics

Asian English Language Classrooms Handoyo Widodo, Alistair Wood, Deepti Gupta, 2017-06-14 The teaching of English in the Asian context is always challenging and dynamic because both teachers and learners have diverse linguistic and cultural backgrounds Equally important where English is not widely used outside the classroom English language classrooms are an authentic site of learner engagement For these reasons for all those concerned with contemporary English language teaching ELT in Asia Asian English Language Classrooms Where Theory and Practice Meet provides an account of theoretical orientations and practices in the teaching of

English to multilingual speakers whose primary language is not English While covering the fundamental ELT areas e g the teaching of language skills educational literature the use of technology in ELT the role of pragmatics in ELT social psychology of the language classroom and language classroom management with which every language teacher and teacher trainer must be concerned this volume showcases how particular orientations shape ELT practices We believe that practicing English teachers must have a heightened awareness of the theory behind their practice At the same time the theoretical stance must be firmly anchored in actual classrooms Containing newly commissioned chapters written by well regarded and emerging scholars this book will appeal not only to beginning teachers or teachers in training but also to established teachers around Asia where English is used as a lingua franca If you are a student teacher of English or an English teacher who would like to see what other progressive teachers like you are doing across Asia this is the book you have been looking for

Language Learner Narrative Helen O'Sullivan, 2014-01-02 Increasing numbers of people have contact with other cultures and languages Language Learner Narrative examines representations of this phenomenon in literary texts using an applied linguistic approach This analysis of written narratives of language learning and cross cultural encounter complements objective studies in intercultural communication and second language acquisition research Kant's use of the term Mündigkeit in his essay What is Enlightenment is used to frame the complex issues of language identity meaning and reality presented by the texts Augmented by Pierre Bourdieu's concept of linguistic capital this framing forms a counterpoint to the positioning of these authors as avatars of poststructuralist wisdom Eva Hoffman The work includes a uniquely detailed linguistic analysis of Emine Sevgi Zdamar's Mutter Zunge and further texts by other widely studied and less familiar authors Yoko Tawada Eva Hoffman Vassilis Alexakis Z Do Rock It also lists literary sources of language learner narrative Through its fundamental examination of what and how language means to us as individuals this volume will be of wide appeal to students and researchers in applied linguistics second language acquisition intercultural communication and literary studies

Risk in Academic Writing Lucia Thesen, Linda Cooper, 2013-11-15 This book brings together a variety of voices students and teachers journal editors and authors writers from the global north and south to interrogate the notion of risk as it applies to the production of academic writing Risk taking is viewed as a productive force in teaching learning and writing and one that can be used to challenge the silences and erasures inherent in academic tradition and convention Widening participation and the internationalisation of higher education make questions of language register agency and identity in postgraduate writing all the more pressing and this book offers a powerful argument against the further reinforcement of a northern Anglophone understanding of knowledge and its production and dissemination This volume will provide food for thought for postgraduate students and their supervisors everywhere
