, Oxford Dictionary of Humorous Quotations Gyles Brandreth, 2013-10-17 Writer broadcaster and wit Gyles Brandreth has completely revised Ned Sherrin's classic collection of wisecracks one liners and anecdotes With over 1 000 new quotations from all media it's easy to find hilarious quotes on subjects ranging from Argument to Diets from Computers to The Weather Add sparkle to your speeches and presentations or just enjoy a good laugh in company with Oscar Wilde Mark Twain Joan Rivers Kathy Lette Frankie Boyle and friends Now we have the World Wide Web the only thing I know of whose shortened form www takes three times longer to say than what it's short for Douglas Adams Not only is there no God but try getting a plumber on weekends Woody Allen Never go to bed mad Stay up and fight Phyllis Diller Having a baby is like getting a tattoo on your face You really need to be certain it's what you want before you commit Elizabeth Gilbert The trouble with having an open mind of course is that people will insist on coming along and trying to put things in it Terry Pratchett Retreat hell We're only attacking in another direction American general Oliver P Smith Edgar Rice Burroughs Robert B. Zeuschner, 2024-10-14 In creating some of the most enduring characters in 20th century literature Burroughs 1875-1950 left a complex bibliographic record of editions and a long chain of fascinated collectors The present reference work details all United States versions of all his works published through 1995 Each listing begins with a description of the first magazine appearance of the story with full publication data the first hardcover is then examined in detail with publisher date a complete description of the book's cover and jacket print run price number of pages and characteristics that separate it from following editions Similar information is then provided from all subsequent editions World War 3: When and How will it End? G. A. Mohr, Edwin Fear, Richard Sinclair, 2015-06-01 World War 3 This important book examines the history of human conflict concisely including modern terrorism that continues to spread globally Features of the book include An overview of man's long history of conflict Urban crime and conflicting groups in society Tribal ethnic religious and political conflict Territorial and imperialist conflict The two World Wars Terrorism and revolution The threats of nuclear and biochemical warfare Conflicts of democratic vs socialism Islamic terrorism and jihad Proposals to reduce conflict This timely and through provoking book is certain to interest adult readers of all ages for many years to come In decades to come it may also provide a useful historical look at the present times Contemporary Jewish-American Novelists Joel Shatzky, Michael Taub, 1997-07-16 Since World War II Jewish American novelists have significantly contributed to the world of literature This reference book includes alphabetically arranged entries for more than 75 Jewish American novelists whose major works were largely written after World War II Included are entries for both well known and relatively obscure novelists many of whom are just becoming established as significant literary figures While the volume profiles major canonical figures such as Saul Bellow Norman Mailer and Bernard Malamud it also aims to be more inclusive than other works on contemporary Jewish American writers Thus there are entries for gay and lesbian novelists such as Lev Raphael and Judith Katz whose works challenge the more orthodox definition of Jewish religious and cultural traditions Art Spiegelman whose controversial Maus established a new genre by combining elements of the comic book and the conventional novel and newcomers such as Steve Stern and Max Apple who have become more prominent within the last decade Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the novelist's critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources A thoughtful introduction summarizes Jewish American fiction after World War II and a selected general bibliography lists additional sources of information Since World War II Jewish American novelists have made numerous significant contributions to contemporary literature Authors of earlier generations would frequently write about the troubles and successes of Jewish immigrants to America and their works would reflect the world of European Jewish culture But like other immigrant groups Jewish Americans have become increasingly assimilated into mainstream American culture Many feel the loss of their heritage and long for something to replace the lost values of the old world This reference book includes alphabetically arranged entries for more than 75 Jewish American novelists whose major works were largely written after World War II Included are entries for both well known and relatively obscure novelists many of whom are just becoming established as significant literary figures While the volume profiles major canonical figures such as Saul Bellow Norman Mailer and Bernard Malamud it also aims to be more inclusive than other works on contemporary Jewish American writers Thus there are entries for gay and lesbian novelists such as Lev Raphael and Judith Katz whose works challenge the more orthodox definitions of Jewish religious and cultural traditions Art Spiegelman whose controversial Maus established a new genre by combining elements of the comic book and the conventional novel and newcomers such as Steve Stern and Max Apple who have become more prominent within the last decade Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the novelist's critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources A thoughtful introduction summarizes Jewish American fiction after World War II and a selected general bibliography lists additional sources for information

Oxford Dictionary of Humorous Quotations Ned Sherrin, 2008-09-25 This hilarious collection of humorous quotations full of wisecracks and wit snappy comments and inspired fantasy has been specially compiled by the late broadcaster and raconteur Ned Sherrin with a foreword by leading British satirist Alistair Beaton Now packed with even more quotes and covering more subjects than before from Weddings to the Supernatural Australia to Headlines Find the best lines from your favourite jokesters and wordsmiths add that extra something to a speech or presentation or just enjoy a good laugh A chair is a piece of furniture I am not a chair because no one has ever sat on me Ann Widdecombe on the announcement that Parliamentary language will now be gender neutral No wonder Bob Geldof is such an
