Reform The Law Essays On The Renewal Of The Australian Legal System:

Reform the Law Michael Donald Kirby, 1983 Reform Geoffrey Palmer, 2013-11 Politician and law professor Geoffrey Palmer recounts the events and forces that shaped him in this memoir as well as his many adventures in reforming a wide range of institutions laws and policies Reform has been a recurring theme throughout Geoffrey Palmer's life not only during his career in politics and as a Prime Minister but also as a law professor and law practitioner He speaks of his early life and family background and the eventful lives of his pioneering ancestors He examines the intellectual influences on his thinking particularly the nature of his education both in New Zealand and the United States and chronicles his life according to the issues accident compensation the Constitution the Bill of Rights the Law Commission liquor law Maori issues parliamentary reform the Resource Management Act law and order prisons and local government reform Meticulously detailed and engagingly written Reform is essential reading for anyone interested in New Zealand legal and political history

Reforming Law Reform Michael Tilbury, Simon N.M. Young, Ludwig Ng, 2014-01-01 As a special administrative region of China Hong Kong has its own legal system rooted in the common law Reforms to this system take into account Hong Kong's unique conditions as an international city and draw widely on practices around the world Since 1980 recommendations from a Law Reform Commission chaired by the Secretary for Justice have resulted in comprehensive revisions in key areas of law ranging from commercial arbitration and interception of communications to divorce and copyright Recently however the government has been slow to act on the Commission's recommendations Questions have also arisen about whether the Commission under resourced part time and government led can really meet the needs of an increasingly sophisticated society Is law reform itself also in need of reform This collection of essays by distinguished experts from around the world seeks answers to the question The book explores the varied experience of law reform in Hong Kong and other common law jurisdictions and makes recommendations for strengthening the process of law reform both in Hong Kong and elsewhere Michael Tilbury is Kerry Holdings Professor in Private Law in the Faculty of Law the University of Hong Kong Simon N M Young is a professor in the Faculty of Law the University of Hong Kong and was formerly Director of the Centre for Comparative and Public Law Ludwig Ng is a partner in ONC Lawyers Hong Kong This important book should be a wake up call to lawmakers in Hong Kong and beyond on the urgent need for effective law reform It is especially important for Hong Kong whose competitive advantage is being harmed by institutional paralysis and official lethargy The editors' modest recommendations deserve urgent action by Hong Kong's governors to bring up to date its archaic and outmoded legislation Lord Lester of Herne Hill QC Law reform is essential especially in these fast changing times The law reform agency plays an important role in this process This work examines the experience of the agency in Hong Kong and elsewhere and discusses how its effectiveness can be enhanced This valuable contribution deserves to be read The Hon Andrew Li Chief Justice of Hong Kong 1997-2010 This is probably the first collection in Hong Kong of writings on law reform examining clinically how law reform is and can be processed with reference to other law reform institutions in the pursuit of effectively meeting the often shifting needs of society and economy Important chapters on reform of different areas of law are also included in this book The editors and contributors are to be congratulated for masterminding such an admirable source of information and inspirational ideas Stephen Kai yin Wong Barrister Secretary of the Law Reform Commission of Hong Kong In this collection of essays the learned editors Tilbury Young and Ng have drawn together an outstanding group of authors representing many years of experience in law reform across the common law world From the UK Canada Australia and Hong Kong the insights of the authors are both reflective and forward looking providing a rich resource towards reforming law reform Professor Rosalind Croucher President Australian Law Reform Commission Reform the Law Michael Donald Kirby,1983 Changing social conditions and the impact of science and technology mean that the Australian legal system is facing unprecedented challenge This book outlines the legal system s response to the changes and examines more closely those changes which have necessitated the law reforms International Medical Malpractice Law Dieter Giesen,1988-09 This monograph is the most comprehensive comparative law study of legal responsibility arising from medical care presently available It is written for doctors as well as health care administrators and legal professionals Focusing on the problems of civil liability it presents the development points of contact with and differences between the modern law of medical liability stemming from both the Common Law and Civil Law traditions of England Scotland Eire New Zealand Australia Canada the United States South Africa France Belgium West Germany Switzerland and Austria It demonstrates the extent to which both problems of medical law and trends towards their solution are already familiar in these legal systems The work describes principles and trends not by confronting the reader with national reports and separate chapters on different legal systems rather the relevant legal problems are analyzed from an integrative comparative viewpoint The main thrust of the presentation is the analysis of numerous court decisions the number of which is rising ominously in the United States on the civil liability of doctors and hospitals for damages arising from substandard treatment or inadequate disclosure of information to the patient References to the legal and medical literature indexes and a refined system of cross references together with an important collection of appendices covering legal and ethical declarations make this work accessible as a handbook and reference work for the legal and social problems encountered today in the wide area of law ethics and medicine Bulletin of the Australian Society of Legal Philosophy ,1984 Class Actions and Government Rachael Mulheron,2020-04-02 Government in all of its guises plays a significant controversial and sometimes hidden role in class actions reform and litigation Who's Who in Contemporary Gay and Lesbian History Vol.2 Robert Aldrich,Garry Wotherspoon,2005-07-25 Who s Who in Contemporary Gay and Lesbian History From World War II to the Present Day provides a comprehensive modern biographical survey of homosexuality in the Western world Among those included are Controversial political activists Peter Tatchell Guy Hocquenghem Harvey Milk Pop icons David Bowie k d lang Boy George Groundbreaking artists writers and
