Ngien, 2021-09-28 This book articulates the significance of the magisterial reformers specifically Luther and Calvin for Christian spirituality today Utilizing primary sources from Luther and Calvin Dennis Ngien shows how the Reformers understood Christian spirituality in light of the gospel and how Reformation theology speaks to the theme of the Christian life Ngien frames the discussion within a creedal trinitarian approach to the narrative of salvation highlighting the connection between the doctrine of God and the life of faith He also shows the surprising affinities between the Lutheran and Reformed branches of Protestantism Reading Paul with the Reformers Stephen J. Chester, 2017-07-11 In debates surrounding the New Perspective on Paul the sixteenth century Protestant Reformers are often characterized as the apostle's misinterpreters in chief In this book Stephen Chester challenges that conception with a careful and nuanced reading of the Reformers

Pauline exegesis Examining the overall contours of Reformation exegesis of Paul Chester contrasts the Reformers with their opponents and explores particular contributions made by such key figures as Luther Melancthon and Calvin He relates their insights to contemporary debates in Pauline theology about justification union with Christ and other central themes arguing that their work remains a significant resource today Published in the 500th anniversary year of the Protestant Reformation Chester's Reading Paul with the Reformers reclaims a robust understanding of how the Reformers actually read the apostle Paul

Reading Scripture with the Reformers Timothy George, 2011-09-12 Timothy George reveals how the sixteenth century's revolution in theological thinking was fueled by a fresh return to the Scriptures He underlines several Reformers' unique engagement with the Bible and suggests what their legacy might mean for reading praying and living out the Scriptures today

Reformation Theology Matthew Barrett, 2017-03-16 Five hundred years ago the Reformers were defending doctrines such as justification by faith alone the authority of Scripture and God's grace in salvation some to the point of death Many of these same essential doctrines are still being challenged today and there has never been a more crucial time to hold fast to the enduring truth of Scripture In Reformation Theology Matthew Barrett has brought together a team of expert theologians and historians writing on key doctrines taught and defended by the Reformers centuries ago With contributions from Michael Horton Gerald Bray Michael Reeves Carl Trueman Robert Kolb and many others this volume stands as a manifesto for the church exhorting Christians to learn from our spiritual forebears and hold fast to sound doctrine rooted in the Bible and passed on from generation to generation
