Economic Reforms and Political Attempts in China 1979-1989 Barna Talas, 2012-12-06 In our quickly changing world authors who are analyzing the social economic and political processes going on in different countries often find themselves in a situation where the development of processes they have already described take a turn in another direction before their work is in final form or appears in print As a consequence some of their statements are no longer valid More rarely it occurs that after the writing of a book presenting a reform process covering 10 years the writing itself taking one and a half years exceptional events take place in the given country within 1 or 2 months of the delivery of the manuscript that indicate a sharp break in this process one that makes it doubtful whether the process can continue along the same channel This is what has happened to this text and to its author at the beginning of June 1989 when in Beijing after the brutal suppression of student demonstrations and of protests lasting several weeks the General Secretary of the Communist Party of China Zhao Ziyang was relieved of his office and arrested along with several other prominent representatives of reform policy and reform endeavors of the past decade The manuscript of this book was handed over to the publisher on May 4 1989 for editing Immediately thereafter I left for nearly 2 months in the United States consequently I did not receive the manuscript again until in early July
