Threads of globalization Melia Belli Bose,2024-02-06 Threads of globalization is an interdisciplinary volume that brings fashion specific garments motifs materials and methods of production into dialogue with gender and identity in various cultures throughout Asia during the long twentieth century It examines how the shift from artisanal production to fast fashion over the past 150 years has devalued women s textile labour and how skilled textile garment makers and the organizations that support them are preserving and reviving heritage traditions It also offers examples of how socially engaged artists in Asia and the diaspora use their work to criticize labour and environmental abuses in the global fashion industry

Miss Angel Angelica Goodden,2011-05-31 A word was coined to describe the condition of people stricken with a new kind of fever when the Swiss born artist Angelica Kauffman 1741 1807 came to London in 1766 The whole world it was said is Angelicamad One of the most successful women artists in history a painter who possessed what her friend Goethe called an unbelievable and massive talent Kauffman became the toast of Georgian England captivating society with her portraits mythological scenes and decorative compositions She knew and painted poets novelists and playwrights collaborating with them and illustrating their work her designs adorned the houses of the Grand Tourists she had met and painted in Italy actors statesmen philosophers kings and queen sat to her and she was the force that launched a thousand engravings Despite rumours of relationships with other artists including Sir Joshua Reynolds and an apparently bigamous and annulled first marriage to a pseudo Count Kauffman was adopted by royalty in England and abroad as a model of social and artistic decorum A profoundly learned artist but one who is loved above all for her tender adaptations from classical antiquity and sentimental literature a commercially successful celebrity yet also a founding member of The Royal Academy of arts the virginal creator of sexually ambivalent beings who was one of the hardest headed businesswomen of her age Kauffman s life and work is full of apparent contradictions explored in this first biography in over 80 years

Stories of Hope Sandra Abegglen,Tom Burns,Richard F. Heller,Rajan Madhok,Fabian Neuhaus,John Sandars,Sandra Sinfield,Upasana Gitanjali Singh,2025-07-02 Higher education is in crisis Students are disengaged lecturers are burned out and universities seem more preoccupied with rankings and revenue than with knowledge and wellbeing But rather than dwell on the problems this book focuses on solutions on hope Bringing together a diverse range of educators and practitioners this collection showcases real world innovations that challenge the status quo and offer glimpses of a more humane and inspiring educational future From rethinking systems and curriculum design to fostering imaginative collaboration and exploring the role of technology the book highlights practical hopeful interventions that are already making a difference This is not a manifesto of complaints but an invitation to reimagine education The contributors offer fresh perspectives from around the world illustrating how small but meaningful changes can transform learning spaces empower educators and inspire students For academics teachers administrators and anyone invested in the future of education this book serves as both a source of inspiration and a call to action It is an evolving ecosystem of ideas grounded in practice rich with possibility and rooted in radical hope Now is the time to create the change we wish to see New Narratives of Disability Sara E.
