Excerpt from The Revolutionary Idea in France 1789 1871 I might have brought this brief study to an end in 1830 for in that year the first Revolution triumphant over the determined attempt under the Bourbon Restoration to resurrect the ancien regime en bloc becomes finally an established and conservative force save only for that small aggressive residue embodied in the movement for its logical completion in the Republic But the revolutionary movement which about 1830 begins to take shape in a new revolutionary idea not only lies so close to the roots of the most urgent problem of our own day but reproduces so many features of the first that the two deserve unmistakably not to be separated and each must gain from the juxtaposition For indeed the deepest waters of the revolutionary idea ow alike beneath the surface currents of both its aspects the belief I mean in the possibilities of Revolution as a method About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
