

Efforts of Arab rhetoricians (Morocco)

- Muhammad al-Omari (2005: The New Rhetoric between Imagery and Reality):
 - He tries to introduce a new way of rhetorical thinking that goes beyond the classical speech analysis and benefits from Western theories that could tackle specific topics such as irony and argumentation. In 2007, he won the King Faisal International Prize in humanities. In 2013, he published a book entitled (Rhetorical Questions in Theory: A History). He gathered all the relevant questions that are posed in the research field or during life discussions between the two schools; those who support classical rhetorical analysis and those who believe that rhetoric should accommodate people's needs.
- Jamil Hemdawi (2013: From Classical Rhetoric to New Rhetoric):
 - The book focuses on the Western rhetorical theories and how we can apply these theories on the various Arabic rhetoric aspects, such as figures of speech and the differentiation between language and speech in rhetorical analysis.

Rhetoric And Reality The Arab Mind Considered:

The Arab Mind John Laffin, 1975 Rhetoric and Reality John Laffin, 1978-10-01 The Origins of Cultural Differences and Their Impact on Management Jack Scarborough, 1998-02-18 In cross cultural settings the author suggests it is not enough to know that behavior differs across cultures but also how differences in values drive behaviors To truly understand the differences among cultures one must understand their origins how they emerged on the world stage the various economic political physical social and religious forces that shaped them This is a unique book in that it traces the antecedents of people s behavior and shows readers why cultures differ and includes suggestions for adjusting to these differences Engrossing and revealing Scarborough s book will be essential for corporate management and others involved in international commerce but also for their counterparts in the public sector who also understand why it is necessary to get along with people from other cultures in the pursuit of mutually beneficial goals Scarborough says There may be no greater more significant void in the knowledge of educated adults than cross cultural understanding My book advances that understanding by explaining the reasons why behavior attitudes beliefs and values differ across specific cultures Its premise is that people who interact with others with different cultural backgrounds whether in international or culturally diverse domestic settings are much better prepared if they understand the reasons why people act talk think and feel as they do Instead of being left with just lessons on behavior to be learned by rote readers will be able to rely on a substantive understanding of the cultures and societies in which they find themselves as well as their own good common sense and in this way work more productively and harmoniously with their counterparts abroad Women and Suicide in Iran S. Behnaz Hosseini, 2021-09-30 Drawing on feminist theory as well as theory surrounding the correlation between poverty and suicide this study explores the increased rate of suicide among women in western Iran Based on empirical research including interviews with women from the Kurdish region of the country the author considers the marginalisation of Kurdish populations in Iran the suppression of their rights and violence against women in its various forms With attention to family violence such as direct physical or sexual assault psychological bullying or through practices such as forced marriage or honour killings the author also considers the political nature of such violence as certain violent practices are enshrined in the Iranian constitution and legitimised in jurisprudential practice A study of gendered violence and its effects Women and Suicide in Iran will be of interest to scholars working in the fields of Sociology Criminology and Middle Eastern Studies with interests in violence gender and suicide The Mediterraneans Ina-Maria Greverus, Regina Römhild, 2001 This collection of articles supplements the previous issue on The Mediterraneans Transborder Movements and Diasporas vol 9 2000 no 2 Both publications resonate with a shift in how Mediterranean cultures and societies are constructed in anthropological research and discourse today Anthropology finds itself challenged by forms of social life and experience that are neither wholly traditional nor unambiguously modern by social actors who in their own practices and attitudes are breaking down the divide between tradition and modernity We are studying cultures that we can no longer mistake for those traditional communities whose invention anthropology was complicit with In dealing with this challenge a potentially transnational dialogue between anthropologists of various backgrounds has emerged a dialogue that we especially hope to foster and support with this edition of AJEC

A Terrible Love of War James Hillman, 2005-02-22 War is a timeless force in the human imagination and indeed in daily life Engaged in the activity of destruction its soldiers and its victims discover a paradoxical yet profound sense of existing of being human In A Terrible Love of War James Hillman one of today's most respected psychologists undertakes a groundbreaking examination of the essence of war its psychological origins and inhuman behaviors Utilizing reports from many fronts and times letters from combatants analyses by military authorities classic myths and writings from great thinkers including Twain Tolstoy Kant Arendt Foucault and Levinas Hillman's broad sweep and detailed research bring a fundamentally new understanding to humanity's simultaneous attraction and aversion to war This is a compelling necessary book in a violent world

Islamic Images and Ideas John Andrew Morrow, 2013-11-25 These 24 studies on specific symbols images and icons from the Muslim tradition are authored by scholars from around the world Divided into four sections the Divine the Spiritual the Physical and the Societal they examine theological issues such as divine unity creation wrath and justice as well as spiritual subjects such as the straight path servitude perfection the jinn intoxication and the status of Fatimah the daughter of the Prophet Muhammad Essays also explore the symbolism of physical elements such as water trees seas ships food the male sexual organ eyebrows and camels and the significance of more socially centered subjects such as the center ijihad governance otherness Ashura and Arabic Drawing from the Qur'an and Sunnah the essays address these topics with tact and respect from a position that appreciates exegetical diversity while remaining within the realm of unity
