Rhetoric And Sexuality The Poetry Of Hart Crane Elizabeth Bishop And James Merrill:

Rhetoric and Sexuality Peter Nickowitz, 2006-02-19 Rhetoric and Sexuality explores the poetry of Hart Crane Elizabeth Bishop and James Merrill Nickowitz combines a rhetorical and thematic interpretation employing close readings and the critical lens of Freudian and Kleinian psychoanalysis to illustrate an additional way to read American poetry He argues that the extent to which homosexual desire is problematic for these poets compels them to formulate new ways of expressing issues of homosexuality for which they have no available words Rhetoric and Sexuality shows that the logic of identity in twentieth century American poetry becomes a question of rhetoric James Merrill and W.H. Auden P. Gwiazda, 2007-10-01 James Merrill and W H Auden offers a substantial analysis of the literary and personal relationship between two major twentieth century poets As Gwiazda argues Auden s prominence in the post World War II American poetry scene as a homosexual poet and critic makes his impact on Merrill particularly noteworthy Merrill s imaginary recreation of Auden in his occult verse trilogy The Changing Light at Sandover 1982 offers a powerful statement about the dynamics of poetic influence between gay male poets Combining archival research textual analysis and aspects of queer theory James Merrill and W H Auden examines Sandover s implications to the contentious issues of homosexual identity and self representation

Selected Poems of James Merrill James Merrill, 2008-10-28 This volume brings together the best of Merrill and dazzles at every turn This balanced and compact selection will be an ideal introduction to his work for both students and general readers and an instant favorite among his familiars James Merrill himself once called his body of work chronicles of love and loss and in twenty books written over four decades he used the details of his own life comic and haunting exotic and domestic to shape a portrait that in turn mirrored the image of our world and our moment Includes poems from the domestic rupture of The Broken Home to the universal connections of Lost in Translation from the American storyteller of The Summer People to the ecologically motivated satirist of Self Portrait in a Tyvek™ Windbreaker Log Then when the flame forked like a sudden path I gasped and stumbled and was less Density pulsing upward gauze of ash Dear light along the way to nothingness What could be made of you but light and this The Cambridge Companion to Elizabeth Bishop Angus Cleghorn, Jonathan Ellis, 2014-02-17 Elizabeth Bishop is increasingly recognized as one of the twentieth century s most important and original poets Initially celebrated for the minute detail of her descriptions what John Ashbery memorably called her thinginess Bishop s reputation has risen dramatically since her death in part due to the publication of new work including letters stories and visual art as well as a controversial volume of uncollected poems drafts and fragments This Companion engages with key debates surrounding the interpretation and reception of Bishop s writing in relation to questions of biography the natural world and politics Individual chapters focus on texts such as North and South Questions of Travel and Geography III while offering fresh readings of the significance of Nova Scotia Massachusetts and Brazil to Bishop s life and work This volume explores the full range of Bishop s artistic achievements and the extent to which the posthumous publications have contributed to her enduring popularity Whitman's Queer Children Catherine A. Davies, 2012-04-26 Davies examines the work of four of the most important twentieth century poets who have explored the epic tradition Some of the poems display an explicit concern with ideas of American nationhood while others emulate the formal ambitions and encyclopaedic scope of the epic poem The study undertakes extensive close readings of Hart Crane's The Bridge 1930 Allen Ginsberg's Howl 1956 and The Fall of America Poems of These States 1965 71 1972 James Merrill's The Changing Light at Sandover 1982 and John Ashbery's Flow Chart 1991 Although not primarily an account of a Whitmanian lineage this book considers Whitman's renegotiation of the dialectic between the public and the private as a context for the project of the homosexual epic arguing for the existence of a genealogy of epic poems that rethink the relationship between these two spheres If as Bakhtin suggests the job of epic is to accomplish the task of cultural national and political centralization of the verbal ideological world the idea of the homosexual epic fundamentally problematizes the traditional aims of the genre

The Cambridge Companion to American Poets Mark Richardson, 2015-10-14 The Cambridge Companion to American Poets brings together thirty one essays on some fifty four American poets spanning nearly 400 years from Anne Bradstreet to contemporary performance poetry This book also examines such movements in American poetry as modernism the Harlem or New Negro Renaissance confessional poetry the Black Mountain School the New York School the Beats and L A N G U A G E poetry Its reputable host of contributors approach American poetry from perspectives as diverse as the poetry itself The result is a Companion concise enough to be read with pleasure yet expansive enough to do justice to the many traditions American poets have modified inaugurated and made their own Hart Crane's Queer Modernist Aesthetic N.

Munro, 2015-03-30 Hart Crane's Queer Modernist Aesthetic argues that the aspects of experience which modernists sought to interrogate time space and material things were challenged further by Crane's queer poetics Reading Crane alongside contemporary queer theory shows how he creates an alternative form of modernism The Poetics of the Everyday Siobhan Phillips, 2010 Wallace Stevens once described the malady of the quotidian lamenting the dull weight of everyday regimen Yet he would later hail that which is always beginning over and over recognizing if not celebrating the possibility of fresh invention Focusing on the poems of Wallace Stevens Robert Frost Elizabeth Bishop and James Merrill Siobhan Phillips positions everyday time as a vital category in modernist aesthetics American literature and poetic theory She eloquently reveals how through particular but related means each of these poets converts the necessity of quotidian experience into an aesthetic and experiential opportunity In Stevens Phillips analyzes the implications of cyclic dualism In Frost she explains the theoretical depth of a habitual middle way In Bishop's work she identifies the attempt to turn recurrent mornings into a ceremony rather than a sentence and in Merrill she shows how cosmic theories rely on daily habits Phillips ultimately demonstrates that a poetics of everyday time contributes not only to a richer understanding of these four writers but also to descriptions of their era estimations of their genre and ongoing reconfigurations of the issues that literature reflects and
