Journal of Health, Physical Education, Recreation ,1963 Unrelenting George H Morris,2016-05-01 If there is one name in the American equestrian story that everyone knows it is George Morris A horse lover rider carouser competitor taskmaster dreamer teacher and visionary George Morris has been ever present on the rarified stage of the international riding elite for most of the 70 years he s been in the saddle He has represented our country as an athlete and a coach and at one time or another instructed many of our nation s best horsemen and women His carefully chosen perfectly enunciated words are notoriously powerful They can raise you up or cut you to the quick His approval can be a rainmaker his derision can end a career But as much as people know and respect or perhaps fear the public face of George Morris he has lived in other ways a remarkably private life keeping his own personal struggles with insecurity with ambition and with love behind closed doors It is only now that he has chosen in his own words to share the totality of his life the very public and the incredibly private with the world This engrossing autobiography the real story of the godlike George Morris beautifully demonstrates his ultimate humanity

The Recollections of Margaret Cabell Brown Loughborough Margaret Loughborough,James H. Johnston,2009-12-08 Margaret Cabell Brown s Recollections written in 1911 provide a woman s perspective on the Civil War Born on a plantation in Virginia Margaret fell in love with Henry Loughborough the son of a prominent Washington family They planned to be married but the Civil War intervened Henry enlisted in the Confederate Army while Margaret worked for the Confederate government in Richmond They married a year and a half later but Henry kept fighting and Margaret kept working Near the end of the war she moved to Washington to live with Henry s family thus experiencing life in both wartime capitals These Recollections are not about battle and glory To Margaret war was an absent husband office work a make shift party dress rampant inflation food shortages malnutrition a baby still born typhoid limbless soldiers death privation loss and pride Her Recollections help in understanding how those in the South viewed their cause how they endured the hardships of war how brave they were as individuals how misguided they were as a group how long they stayed in denial of the inevitable and ultimately why the South lost
