Homeland Security Michael C. LeMay, 2018-06-21 This book provides a comprehensive summary of the creation of the Department of Homeland Security and efforts to protect the United States from international terrorism Homeland Security A Reference Handbook covers the precursor events and laws from 1965 to 2000 that set the stage for the 2002 law that established the Department of Homeland Security It identifies and discusses a dozen problems associated with homeland security policy objectively allowing readers to come to their own conclusions Additionally it addresses all of the major units and agencies within the department Comprehensive in scope and accessible in style it discusses 46 organizations and profiles 50 actors Unlike many books on the topic it provides excerpts and summaries of data presented in figures and tables and as documents from court decisions presidential actions and key laws to implement homeland security policy It also annotates key secondary sources on the topic including books scholarly journals films and videos to guide the reader to further research on the subject The Human Rights Reader Micheline Ishay,2007 This book presents the most comprehensive collection of essays speeches and documents from historical and contemporary sources available on the subject of human rights What's Wrong With Terrorism? Robert E. Goodin,2013-04-23 Terrorists perform terrible acts They maim mutilate and kill in pursuit of their goals The horrifying events of 9 11 and the regular suicide bombings around the world have made terrorism one of the central preoccupations of the twenty first century But what is the distinctive wrong of terrorism Criminal acts such as murder and hijacking are already on the moral statute books so why is it that we regard terrorists as different from and morally worse than ordinary killers and kidnappers Some see terrorism is an ideology others claim it is a deep seated social or psychological failing others that it is a form of fighting unfairly judged by just war standards In this provocative new book Robert Goodin puts forward the view that terrorism is in fact a deliberate tactic of frightening people for socio political gain Fear affects peoples ability to reason clearly and undermines their capacity for autonomous self government In this way Goodin contends that terror is not only the weapon of organizations such as al Qaeda it also benefits democratic politicians who profit from the climate of insecurity induced by terrorist threats and violence Political figures conducting a campaign of fear as part of their war on terrorism may therefore be committing wrongs akin to those of terrorists themselves This Goodin argues is what is distinctively wrong with terrorism in the contemporary world Refugee Law after 9/11 Obiora Chinedu Okafor,2020-02-15 Common wisdom suggests that the 9 11 terrorist attacks changed everything about the character of refugee law in the United States and in neighbouring Canada But did they If so how do the responses of the two countries compare in terms of their negative impacts on refugee rights Refugee Law after 9 11 undertakes a systematic examination of available legal policy and empirical evidence to reveal a great irony refugee rights were already so whittled down in both countries before 9 11 that there was relatively little room for negative change after the attacks It also shows that the Canadian refugee law regime reacted to 9 11 in much the same way as its US counterpart and these similar reactions raise significant questions about security relativism and the cogency of Canadian and US national self image Security V. Privacy Rebecca Stefoff,2008 Explores the past present and future to shed light on complex high priority public policy Offers the pros and cons of each issue with opinions from social policy experts Secret Intelligence Christopher Andrew,Richard J. Aldrich,Wesley K. Wark,2019-07-26 The second edition of Secret Intelligence A Reader brings together key essays from the field of intelligence studies blending classic works on concepts and approaches with more recent essays dealing with current issues and ongoing debates about the future of intelligence Secret intelligence has never enjoyed a higher profile The events of 9 11 the conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan the missing WMD controversy public debates over prisoner interrogation together with the revelations of figures such as Edward Snowden recent cyber attacks and the rise of hybrid warfare have all contributed to make this a hot subject over the past two decades Aiming to be more comprehensive than existing books and to achieve truly international coverage of the field this book provides key readings and supporting material for students and course convenors It is divided into four main sections each of which includes full summaries of each article further reading suggestions and student questions The intelligence cycle Intelligence counter terrorism and security Ethics accountability and secrecy Intelligence and the new warfare This new edition contains essays by leading scholars in the field and will be essential reading for students of intelligence studies strategic studies international security and political science in general and of interest to anyone wishing to understand the current relationship between intelligence and policy making U.S. Immigration Policy, Ethnicity, and Religion in American History Michael C.

Transcultural Identities in Contemporary Literature Irene Gilsenan Nordin, Julie Hansen, Carmen Zamorano Llena, 2013-10-01 In recent decades globalization has led to increased mobility and interconnectedness For a growing number of people contemporary life entails new local and transnational interdependencies which transform individual and collective allegiances Contemporary literature often reflects these changes through its exploration of migrant experiences and transcultural identities Calling into question traditional definitions of culture many recent works of poetry and prose fiction go beyond the spatial boundaries of a given state emphasizing instead the mixing and collision of languages cultures and identities In doing so they also challenge recent and contemporary discourses about cultural identities fostering a more nuanced understanding of the complexities of identity formation processes in diverse transcultural frameworks This volume analyses how traditional understandings of culture as well as literary representations of identity constructs can be reconceptualized from a transcultural perspective In four thematic sections focusing on migration cosmopolitanism multiculturalism and literary translanguaging the twelve essays included in this volume explore various facets of transculturality in contemporary poetry and fiction from around the world Contributors Malin Lidström Brock Katherina Dodou Pilar Cuder Domínguez Stefan Helgesson Christoph Houswitschka Carly McLaughlin Kristin Rebien J B Rollins Karen L Ryan Eric Sellin Mats Tegmark Carmen Zamorano Llena Irene Gilsenan Nordin is Professor of English Literature at Dalarna University Sweden She is founder and director of DUCIS Dalarna University Centre for Irish Studies and leads Dalarna University's Transcultural Identities research group Julie Hansen is Research Fellow at the Uppsala Centre for Russian and Eurasian Studies and teaches Russian literature in the Department of Modern Languages at Uppsala University Sweden Carmen Zamorano Llena is Associate Professor of English Literature at Dalarna University Sweden and member of Dalarna University's Transcultural Identities research group

Information Assurance and Security Ethics in Complex Systems: Interdisciplinary Perspectives Dark, Melissa Jane, 2010-08-31 Information Assurance and Security Ethics in Complex Systems Interdisciplinary Perspectives offers insight into social and ethical challenges presented by modern technology Aimed at students and practitioners in the rapidly growing field of information assurance and security this book addresses issues of privacy access safety liability and reliability in a manner that asks readers to think about how the social context is shaping technology and how technology is shaping social context and in so doing to rethink conceptual boundaries

The Patriot Act Rebecca Stefoff, 2011 The history of the United States is in large part the history of its Landmark Legislation In this series the authors take the reader behind the scenes to show the drama that led to each bill's being passed and the effect each piece of legislation has had in the development of our country. Each book includes an informative From Bill to Law feature which explains in easy to follow fashion how the process of legislation works. Patriot Act tells the story of how the events of September 11 2001 led to the bill officially known as the USA PATRIOT Act and the controversy over civil liberties versus national security that has been debated ever since. Communitarianism in Law and Society Paul van Seters, 2006 In this new collection of essays Paul van Seters brings together an international group of scholars from diverse academic backgrounds to reflect upon the remarkable rise of communitarianism in contemporary studies of law and society. These essays critically assess the communitarian perspective in order to gain a more systematic insight into its distinctive constraints and the special opportunities it provides. The Moral Dimension of Asymmetrical Warfare Th.A. van Baarda, D.E.M. Verweij, 2009-06-30 During the Cold War an era in which the term asymmetric warfare was not well known the issue of the laws and ethics of war seemed simple enough to most soldiers being concerned mainly with leadership management and morale. Post Cold War reality revealed a very different set of challenges including a significantly wider moral dimension particularly when forces initially under UN leadership and later under the NATO flag were deployed in different parts of the turbulent Balkans. Military observers by now with legal advisers close by watched events in the Balkans East Timor and then in central and West Africa with professional interest and some were involved there. A few years later soldiers were subsequently caught as much by surprise by the events of 9/11 a graphic example of asymmetric warfare as most of the rest of the world. The initial post 9/11 response in Afghanistan and Iraq brought the notion of the fragile or collapsed state and the blurring of the roles of military forces international organisations non governmental organisations non state actors and indigenous administrators and their uniformed organisations and with them the moral dilemmas to much wider notice. More recent conflicts have indeed shown the need for commanders and soldiers in all types of conflict to have a much better understanding of the complex moral and legal environments and opened new debates about the principle of winning hearts and minds in counter insurgency and peace support operations. Moreover technological superiority by the West has also produced mixed benefits in the field of military operations and posed additional dilemmas many of them moral. The trend towards defining human rights and fundamental freedoms poses further questions for the soldier today. This collection of essays written by a wide variety of practising experts and scholars touches on all these issues. It links the medieval traditions of jus in bello codified by Saint Thomas Aquinas in the Christian Church nearly eight centuries ago to examination of modern challenges and moral dilemmas relating to the ethics and laws of conflict and crises of all types in the twenty first century and in a global context among people of many different faiths and beliefs and none. It is an important collection for all those researching or practically involved in conflict and post conflict situations. Race, Ethnicity, and Crime Dianne Williams, 2012 Melting pot or tossed salad the U.S. criminal justice system may prove to be fueling intolerance rather than enabling society to accommodate racial and ethnic differences This fresh new textbook to balance theory and the real world addressing topics relating to race ethnicity criminality and criminalization looking at the criminal justice system the media and the death penalty In addition to information on crime and incarceration rates White collar crime and the typical criminal the discussion of minorities and public perceptions is set within a broader context including the issues of terrorism and human trafficking where race and ethnicity are also vital to public perceptions the manual is designed for junior colleges and four year colleges including those offering distance learning courses It is a thought provoking combination of facts and questions the pedagogical focus is on collaborative problem based learning with foundational support for the development of critical thinking and analytical skills
