Photoglyphs, 1993 Reframing Photography Rebekah Modrak, Bill Anthes, 2011 In an accessible yet complex way Rebekah Modrak and Bill Anthes explore photographic theory history and technique to bring photographic education up to date with contemporary photographic practice History of Photography Laurent Roosens, Luc Salu, 1989-01-01 The fourth volume in a history of photography this is a bibliography of books on the subject Rimma Gerlovina and Valeriy Gerlovin, The Oxford Handbook of Soviet Underground Culture Mark Lipovetsky, Maria Engström, Tomáš Glanc, Ilja Kujuk, Klavdia Smola, 2024 In 1932 the Central Committee of the Communist Party issued the resolution On the Restructuring of Literary and Arts Organizations This resolution put an end to the coexistence of aesthetically different groups and associations of writers and artists that had been common during the 1920s and instead led to the establishment of the monopoly of Socialist Realism in 1934 Ironically this resolution unwittingly created a rich literary and artistic production of underground intellectuals known as the Soviet underground during an era of political and aesthetic censorship in the Soviet Union The Oxford Handbook of Soviet Underground Culture is the first comprehensive English language volume covering a history of Soviet artistic and literary underground In forty four chapters an international group of leading scholars introduce readers to a web of subcultures within the underground highlight the culture achievements of the Soviet underground from the 1930s through the 1980s emphasize the multimodality of this cultural phenomenon and situate the study of underground literary texts and artworks into their broader theoretical ideological and political contexts The volume presents readers with several approaches to mapping the underground that include chapters on nonconformist cultures in Ukraine Belarus Baltic countries Central Asia and provincial cities of Russian Federation Finally the volume also provides an analysis of groups shaped around religious and cultural identity as well as queer and feminist underground circles Sf Camerawork Quarterly, 1991 Criticizing Photographs Terry Barrett, 2006 Revised to include coverage of digital images this text progresses logically from describing criticism in general to describing photographs interpretation judging to an understanding of photographic theory Multiculturalism in Art Museums Today Joni Boyd Acuff, Laura Evans, 2014-07-08 Aimed at museum educators Multiculturalism in Art Museums Today seeks to marry museum and multicultural education theories It reveals how the union of these theories yields more equitable educational practices and guides museum educators to address misrepresentation exclusivity accessibility and educational inequality This contemporary text is directive it encourages museum educators to consider the critical multicultural education theoretical framework in their day to day functions in order to illuminate and combat shortcomings at the crux of museum education Museum Educators as Change Agents Inclusion versus Exclusion Collaboration with Diverse Audiences Responsive Pedagogy This book adopts a broad definition of multiculturalism which names not only race and ethnicity as concerns but also gender sexual orientation religion ability age and class While focusing on these various facets of identity the authors demonstrate how museums are social systems that should offer comprehensive diverse educational experiences not only through exhibitions but through other educational activities The authors pull from their own research and practical experiences which exemplify how museums have been and can be attentive to these areas of identity Multiculturalism in Art Museums Today is hopeful and inspiring as it identifies and commends the positive and effective practices that some museum educators have enacted in an effort to be inclusive Museum educators are at the front line interacting with the public on a daily basis Thus these educators can be the real vanguard of change modeling critical multicultural behavior and practices
