How to Be Good with Words Don LePan, Laura Buzzard, Maureen Okun, 2017-02-28 In recent decades the contested areas of English usage have grown both larger and more numerous English speakers argue about whether we should say man or humanity fisher or fisherman whether we ought to speak of people as being disabled or challenged or differently abled whether it is acceptable to say that's so gay More generally we ask can we use language in ways that avoid giving expression to prejudices embedded within it Can the words we use help us point a way towards a better world Can we ask such questions with appropriate seriousness while remaining open minded and while retaining our sense of humor To all these questions this concise and user friendly guide answers yes while offering clear headed discussions of many of the key issues The Rinehart Guide to Grammar and Usage B.
