Lawrence,2023-10-20 Using a critical lens derived from ecopsychology and its praxis ecotherapy this book explores the relationships Madeleine L Engle develops for her characters in a selection of the novels from her three Time Austin family and O Keefe family series as those relationships develop along a human nonhuman kinship continuum This is accomplished through an examination both of pairs of novels from the fantastic and the realistic series and of single novels which stand out as slightly different from the most prominent genre in a given series Thus this examination also shows L Engle's fluid movement along a fantasy reality continuum and demonstrates the integration of the three series with each other Importantly through examining these relationships and this movement along continuums in these novels the project demonstrates how ecopsychology and ecotherapy provide strong and important and as yet virtually unexplored intersections with children's literature

Warner, 2006-03-03 As is painfully evident from the reports of school shootings gang violence dysfunctional family life and from statistics on adolescent suicide many teens live troubled lives Even those who live a normal life still face the challenges adults face but teens are also engaged in establishing independence and finding their identity However few adolescents have the same resources as adults for surviving life challenges Building from the idea that story is a powerful source of meaning particularly those stories that resonate with our own lives this book suggests that the stories of other young adults offer a resource yet to be fully tapped Adolescents in the Search for Meaning begins from the perspective of young adults by sharing the results of a survey of over 1400 teens and also includes the insights of authors of Young Adult Literature The book presents over 120 novels that teens have identified as meaningful as well as books recommended by YA authors and experts in the field of YA literature For any teacher librarian parent or counselor wanting to reach young adults this book is ideal      The Irish Monthly , 1919
