Grabbe,Robert D. Haak,2004-05-01 Much study has taken place of the prophetic and apocalyptic writings in recent decades but the relationship between the two has been little explored A major explicit debate on the question is very much needed and is now provided This collection of essays addresses the subject from a variety of points of view including studies on the issues of definitions ancient Near Eastern prophecies social anthropology and modern apocalyptic movements In the introduction Lester Grabbe argues that many scholars operate with subconscious assumptions about how apocalyptic writings relate to the prophetic writings but that many of these assumptions now need to be questioned in the light of the essays in this volume Such a comprehensive attempt to tackle the main theoretical issues arising from the study of the prophetic and the apocalyptic has not been attempted for some time This volume brings fresh questions and insights that both specialists and students will want to consider      Gods in America Charles L.
