New Mexico Ornithological Society - New Mexico Bird Finding Guide William H. Howe,2021-12-20

New Mexico has the 4th highest bird diversity of any state in the U S with nearly 550 species documented within its borders including over 300 species known to breed At a biological crossroad between east and west and north and south the state s birdlife is influenced by the Rocky Mountains Great Plains Great Basin and Chihuahuan deserts and the sierras of northwest Mexico An elevational range from lowland desert and rivers below 3 000 feet to alpine tundra over 13 000 feet also greatly contributes to its diversity This Fourth Edition of the New Mexico Bird Finding Guide contains chapters covering each of the state s 33 counties addressing nearly 400 birding locations to explore These include easily accessed well known destinations as well as sites that are obscure and remote Detailed maps directions and lists of expected and specialty species accompany each location The guide also includes an annotated checklist presenting the status distribution frequency and abundance for all species recorded in the state This will be a valuable reference for resident and visiting birders alike Looking for Law in All the Wrong Places Marianne Constable,Leti Volpp,Bryan Wagner,2019-03-05 For many inside and outside the legal academy the right place to look for law is in constitutions statutes and judicial opinions This book looks for law in the wrong places sites and spaces in which no formal law appears These may be geographic regions beyond the reach of law everyday practices ungoverned or ungovernable by law or works of art that have escaped law s constraints Looking for Law in All the Wrong Places brings together essays by leading scholars of anthropology cultural studies history law literature political science race and ethnic studies religion and rhetoric to look at law from the standpoint of the humanities Beyond showing law to be determined by or determinative of distinct cultural phenomena the contributors show how law is itself interwoven with language text image and culture Many essays in this volume look for law precisely in the kinds of wrong places where there appears to be no law They find in these places not only reflections and remains of law but also rules and practices that seem indistinguishable from law and raise challenging questions about the locations of law and about law s meaning and function Other essays do the opposite rather than looking for law in places where law does not obviously appear they look in statute books and courtrooms from perspectives that are usually presumed to have nothing to say about law Looking at law sideways or upside down or inside out defamiliarizes law These essays show what legal understanding can gain when law is denied its ostensibly proper domain Contributors Kathryn Abrams Daniel Boyarin Wendy Brown Marianne Constable Samera Esmeir Daniel Fisher Sara Ludin Saba Mahmood Rebecca McLennan Ramona Naddaff Beth Piatote Sarah Song Christopher Tomlins Leti Volpp Bryan Wagner
