Marketing Staple Food Crops in Tropical Africa William Orville Jones,1972      Marketing of Staple Food Crops in Tropical Africa William O. Jones,1969      Marketing of Staple Food Crops in Tropical Africa William C. Jones,1969

Marketing Staple Food Crops in Sierra Leone ,1968      Marketing of Staple Food Crops in Africa Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations. Economic Analysis Division,1965      Agricultural Marketing in Tropical Africa H. Laurens van der Laan,Tjalling Dijkstra,Aad van Tilburg,2018-08-09 First published in 1999 this volume explores how African agriculture has always had a strong appeal for the people of the Netherlands This is due to 1 a long established interest in tropical agriculture going back to the days when Indonesia was a Dutch colony 2 a broad based desire to help the Third World and 3 the view that Tropical Africa is highly dependent on agriculture As practical expertise in Africa and systematic research on African agriculture grew specialization became both possible and necessary This volume reflects the specialization in marketing which has been welcomed by economists geographers and scholars of agricultural marketing In addition to a general introductory chapter this book includes five contributions on staple food grains two on export crops two on cattle and one on horticulture Nine of the chapters are country specific covering Benin Burkina Faso Cameroon Cote d'Ivoire Ghana Kenya Sierra Leone Tanzania and Zambia      Woodfuel Markets in Developing Countries: A Case Study of Tanzania Jill Boberg,2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 Woodfuels in developing countries particularly Africa remain a basic need for urban households who depend heavily on them for their energy needs This work examines the confusion about the environmental and social impacts of woodfuel use and the structure of informal sector woodfuel markets Using data from a year of survey field work in Tanzania the author questions assumptions of poorly functioning woodfuel markets and their impact on environment and society Approaching the unregulated woodfuel markets as industrial organizations the author uses a classic structure previously applied to developed markets in industrialized countries to determine the competitiveness and efficiency of woodfuel markets Results indicate well functioning markets under most circumstances and the study details the variables which enhance market sustainability The social and environmental implications of woodfuel use as it exists and suggestions to policymakers for improvements to enhance the sustainability of the system and the environment complete the study The study should be useful for those interested in energy and environmental issues or informal markets including agricultural markets in developing countries and to those interested in industrial organization as applied to the Third World      Food Marketing in Developing Countries United States. Department of Agriculture. Foreign Economic Development Service,1971      Regional Analysis Carol A. Smith,2014-05-10 Regional Analysis Volume I Economic Systems explores the interconnectedness of economic and social systems as they exist and develop in territorial environmental systems This volume concentrates on developing and refining models of trade and urban evolution emphasizing evolutionary models and relationship between economic and political subsystems in the developmental process Topics include the regional approach to economic systems trade markets and urban centers in developing regions spatio economic organization in complex regional systems and economic consequences of regional system organization This publication is valuable to social and regional scientists geographers economists social anthropologists archeologists sociologists and political scientists interested in the implications of rural urban relations and regional settlement patterns

Feeding African Cities Jane Guyer, 2018-08-06 Originally published in 1987 this book traces the broad outlines of urban food policy drawing attention to the limited knowledge of regional social history Urban food supply systems in Africa have developed very fast in the midst of societies in which food production was not in general oriented to feeding distant populations of specialist consumers Institutional and political links had to be forged between town and country if food supply was to be cheap and predictable This volume explores the political and material dynamics of urban food supply through 4 case studies Kano Yaound Dar es Salaam and Harare

A Conference on the Role of Women in Meeting Basic Food and Water Needs in Developing Countries, 1978 Problems of Rural Development Raymond E. Dumett, Lawrence J.

Brainard, 2021-12-06 African Seminars Various Authors, 2021-02-25 Originally published between 1986 and 1989 the 8 volumes in this set reflect the research and debate surrounding many issues for the African economy society and culture and as such make a vital contribution to effective development both rural and urban They re issue key titles from the International African Library and the International African Seminars and address themes of direct relevance to contemporary Africa on topics as diverse as medicine migration housing pastoralism and marriage Adjusting to Reality Robert

Klitgaard, 2021-12-24 Originally published in 1991 Robert Klitgaard s classic book addresses questions of enduring relevance in a lively and insightful way Bribes tribes and markets that fail these are the realities in many developing countries The usual strategies for reform be they capitalist or socialist have failed to address them effectively What is to be done when economic reforms leave the poor behind or when when new constitutions and elections are undercut by inefficient

bureaucracies overcentralization and corruption And what to do about persistent ethnic inequalities within developing countries The book provides inspiring examples from around the world as well as analytical frameworks to guide inclusive policy discussion Theorists will enjoy the novel uses of industrial economics the theory of the firm and the economics of discrimination The book highlights overlooked causes of underdevelopment imperfect information and weak information processing in individuals and institutions In the preface the former President of Panama Dr Nicol s Ardito Barletta writes Poverty Klitgaard argues is and should be a principal concern of development strategists but policy makers and analysts will continue to run from pillar to post in their search for a cure unless they can adjust their development schemes to reality The new approach that the author proposes is based on two fundamental principles One is that the proper choice of economic strategies cannot be determined in the abstract but depends on particular circumstances The other is that information is at the heart of problems in the real world of the developing countries Klitgaard offers examples from Bolivia Brazil India

Indonesia Malaysia Pakistan Peru and the Philippines to make his point The author suggests creative ways in which the state and citizens themselves can solve their own inevitably unique problems One of the key tasks in Klitgaard s view is to ensure that environments are rich in information This volume offers a broad framework for policy analysis that moves us closer to intelligent solutions to the real problems of the real poor in the modern world Strategies for African Development Robert J. Berg, Jennifer Seymour Whitaker, 2023-04-28 This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1986 The A.I.D. Research Program, 1962-1971 United States. Agency for International Development. Office of Research and University Relations, 1971 Aid Research Program, 1962-1971 United States. Agency for International Development. Office of Research and University Relations, 1971 Rural-Urban Interaction in the Developing World Kenny Lynch, 2004-09-15 Sustaining the rural and urban populations of the developing world has been identified as a key global challenge for the twenty first century Rural Urban Interaction in the Developing World is an introduction to the relationships between rural and urban places in the developing world and shows that not all their aspects are as obvious as migration from country to city There is now a growing realization that rural urban relations are far more complex Using a wealth of student friendly features including boxed case studies discussion questions and annotated guides to further reading this innovative book places rural urban interactions within a broader context thus promoting a clearer understanding of the opportunities as well as the challenges that rural urban interactions represent Rice Production Programs United States. Agency for International Development. Agriculture and Rural Development Service, 1969 Accounting for Services Daan Marks, 2009 The most intriguing question about Indonesia s economic development during the twentieth century is why the country s growth performance has been so erratic and displayed such a high degree of discontinuity This is connected with the fundamental question about the nature of long run economic development in Indonesia So far the economic historiography of Indonesia has been less systematic than what the available source material would permit Indonesia is exceptionally well endowed with rich statistical sources which carry the potential of supporting a rigorous and systematic quantitative approach to vital questions concerning the economic growth performance in the long run This book takes such an approach and presents new estimates for the long run growth of the Indonesian service sector and analyses the role of the various service sectors in economic development Linking empirical and theoretical analysis in a creative fashion Daan Marks provides a rich and original contribution to our understanding of the economic history of Indonesia He shows that the service sector has played a crucial role in Indonesia s economic development Or in other words to fully understand Indonesia s economic development path services need to be accounted for
