Handbook of Relationship Marketing Atul Parvatiyar, Jagdish N Sheth, 1999-12-22 As businesses increasingly stress the importance of cooperation and collaboration with suppliers and customers relationship marketing is emerging as the core of all marketing activity In recent years there has been an explosive growth in business and academic interest in relationship marketing yet no comprehensive book has been available to present key concepts theories and applications The editors of this volume have assembled an authoritative and global cast of chapter contributors and crafted a volume that will become the seminal founding work in this growing field Their approach is eclectic including a broad coverage of topics diverse theoretical and conceptual paradigms and global viewpoints Teaching Marketing Brennan, Ross, Vos, Lynn, 2021-11-19 Teaching Marketing prompts the reader to reflect on why marketing is taught how it is taught and what should be included in curricula in tertiary level programmes The international contributors have a wide range of expertise in marketing education and provide their own perspectives on these questions while considering a variety of different points of view so encouraging the reader to develop their own opinion The Marketing of Service-Dominant Logic Chris Miles, 2023-11-30 Service Dominant logic can be described as a mind set for a unified understanding of the purpose and nature of organizations markets and society A concept that was first introduced by Vargo and Lusch in 2004 S D logic has generated not just a vast host of journal articles and books but has established an expanding sphere of influence across marketing scholarship In this book the author uses a rhetorical approach to investigate the marketing of Service Dominant logic asking how the formulation and presentation of the logic aids in its persuasive promotion In doing so the book explores the lexicon choices metaphors symbols and persuasive gambits that have resonated so strongly with marketing academia with the aim of understanding how these elements work together in a compelling narrative that delivers the logic s core value proposition of transcendence The author investigates how these rhetorical strategies have evolved as the S D logic framework has developed examining the revisions to its foundational premises and axioms and the introduction of new perspectives such as systems theory It is the first book length rhetorical analysis of a single strand of marketing discourse and as such it serves as a showcase for the methodology the insights it can provide and its value for marketing scholarship Political Marketing Robert P. Ormrod, Stephan C M Henneberg, Nicholas J.

O'Shaughnessy, 2013-05-13 Electronic inspection copies are available for instructors Political Marketing Theories and Concepts provides students with a valuable and critical understanding of how political parties use marketing to attain their aims Unlike other textbooks this text explicitly focuses on the theoretical underpinnings and cutting edge concepts used by political parties allowing students to gain key insights into how they win elections and remain in power With an engaging and thought provoking topic selection these field leading authors have ensured that this often complex and theoretically advanced topic is clearly accessible for a student audience and novice researchers Key features of each chapter include Short chapter introduction and learning summaries Discussion questions to share in the classroom Annotated suggestions for further reading Lists of key terms to consider This text is essential reading for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate

The Roots and Uses of Marketing Knowledge Terry Smith, 2020-01-20 Marketing theory is often developed in isolation not collaboration theoretical perspectives sometimes are ignorant of the diversity of marketing practice In The roots and uses of marketing knowledge a critical inquiry into the theory and practice of marketing the author engages with the vital conversation about how marketing knowledge is created disseminated and consumed looking beyond the traditional reification of practice in theory and verification of theory in practice The ontology of this work is anchored in subjective individual meaning the epistemological stance assumes that this meaning is socially constructed Consequently rich empirical data grounded in the context of experiential evidence is extracted from a comprehensive range of marketing constituencies academics practitioners managers consultants authors lecturers and students In its examination of the polarities hybridity and iterative flow of marketing knowledge creation and consumption this text posits a cohesive argument for a theory practice bipartite fusion not dichotomy adding valuable insights into the textual contextual and pedagogical representations of marketing knowledge The history and future of marketing knowledge is examined with the aid of instructive illustrations and insightful first hand experience Drawing on extensive qualitative research from a broad range of influential producers and vital consumers Dr Smith presents a relevant exciting marketing knowledge framework which will be a vital resource for academics students and practitioners

The Service-Dominant Logic of Marketing Robert F. Lusch, Stephen L. Vargo, 2014-12-18 Expanding on the editors award winning article Evolving to a New Dominant Logic for Marketing this book presents a challenging new paradigm for the marketing discipline This new paradigm is service oriented customer oriented relationship focused and knowledge based and places marketing once viewed as a support function central to overall business strategy Service dominant logic defines service as the application of competencies for the benefit of another entity and sees mutual service provision rather than the exchange of goods as the proper subject of marketing It moves the orientation of marketing from a market to philosophy where customers are promoted to targeted and captured to a market with philosophy where the customer and supply chain partners are collaborators in the entire marketing process The editors elaborate on this model through an historical analysis clarification and extension of service dominant logic and distinguished marketing thinkers then provide further insight and commentary The result is a more comprehensive and inclusive marketing theory that will challenge both current thinking and marketing practice
