Marketing Modernism in Fin-de-Siècle Europe Robert Jensen,2022-02-08 In this fundamental rethinking of the rise of modernism from its beginnings in the Impressionist movement Robert Jensen reveals that market discourses were pervasive in the ideological defense of modernism from its very inception and that the avant garde actually thrived on the commercial appeal of anti commercialism at the turn of the century The commercial success of modernism he argues depended greatly on possession of historical legitimacy The very development of modern art was inseparable from the commercialism many of its proponents sought to transcend Here Jensen explores the economic aesthetic institutional and ideological factors that led to its dominance in the international art world by the early 1900s He emphasizes the role of the emerging dealer gallery market and of modernist art historiographies in evaluating modern art and legitimizing it through the formation of a canon of modernist masters In describing the canon building of modern dealerships Jensen considers the new ideological dealer and explores the commercial construction of artistic identity through such rhetorical concepts as temperament and independent art and through such institutional structures as the retrospective His inquiries into the fate of the juste milieu a group of dissidents who saw themselves as true heirs of Impressionism and his look at a new form of art history emerging in Germany further expose a linear dealer oriented history of modernist art constructed by or through the modernists themselves

Jewish Dealers and the European Art Market, c. 1860–1940 Silvia Davoli,Tom Stammers,2025-01-23 Before the tragedy of the Holocaust many of the leading art and antiques dealers across Europe were Jewish establishing dynamic cross Channel international and transatlantic networks Aside from a few famous examples however we are only at the beginning of exploring the diversity of Jewish dealers commercial and cultural worlds and reflecting on the particular conditions that made possible their dramatic expansion within the profession Adopting a wider geography than any previous study this book brings together a team of distinguished international contributors to consider Jewish art dealers as an interconnected cohort tied together by common strategies and a shared vulnerability After an extended historiographical introduction the volume presents case studies and trends from 1860 1940 including Jewish family businesses in Western Europe the role of Jews as mediators of art from East Asia the antisemitism and suspicion faced by Jewish dealers Jews as theorists exhibition makers and promoters of modern art and the geographical mobility and professional reinvention of Jewish dealers in times of economic and political crisis With a wide variety of illustrations including paintings decorative arts historic photographs and archival material the volume adopts a mix of methodological approaches to analyse a key chapter in Jewish cultural history and in the history of the international art market Includes Afterword by Charles Dellheim author of Belonging and Betrayal

How Jews Made the Art World Modern 2021      Theatre, Politics, and Markets in Fin-de-Siècle Paris S. Charnow, 2016-09-23

Since the Enlightenment French theatre has occupied a prominent place within French thought society and culture but as a subject of study it has remained a purview of theatre historians literary scholars and aestheticians They focus on the emergence of the modern theatre as change generated from within bourgeois literary drama but ignore theatre as a complex social practice Theatre Politics and Markets in Fin de Si cle Paris investigates the dynamic relationships among the avant garde official culture and the commercial sphere arguing against the neat divide of high and low culture by showing how cultural forms of varying social origins influenced each other      Barricades and Borders Robert Gildea, 2003-03-06 This is a comprehensive survey of European history from the coup d etat of Napoleon Bonaparte in France to the assassination of the Archduke Ferdinand at Sarajevo which led to the First World War It concentrates on the twin themes of revolution and nationalism which often combined in the early part of the century but which increasingly became rival creeds Going beyond traditional political and diplomatic history the book incorporates the results of recent research on population movements the expansion of markets the accumulation of capital social mobility education changing patterns of leisure religious practices and intellectual and artistic developments The work falls into three chronological sections The first starting in 1800 rather than the more usual 1815 follows the build up of the revolutionary currents which were eventually going to erupt in the Year of Revolutions 1848 The second from 1850 to 1880 deals with the golden age of capitalism the successful culmination of struggles for national unification and the threat of anarchism The concluding chapters look at the social and political stresses caused by socialism and national minorities at new attempts by government to order society imperial rivalry and the descent into a war which was to mark the end of nineteenth century Europe For this third edition Dr Gildea has substantially revised the text and maps and completely updated the bibliography Newly added introductory sections guide the reader through the wealth of material in each chapter The new edition also includes for the first time a full Chronology of the period a list of leading state ministers and family trees for all the major dynasties      Decentering European Intellectual Space , 2018-05-15

Decentering European Intellectual Space challenges the conventional view of intellectual history as a debate over the interpretation of a limited number of texts produced by a small group of prominent scholars writers and intellectuals from the cultural centers of Europe Addressing the question What is European intellectual space this collection of essays seeks to demonstrate how this space is shaped ordered and communicated between Europe s fluctuating cores and peripheries Focusing on the asymmetrical relations between large and small centers and peripheries cores and margins in scholarly and other forms of interaction and within Europe as well as globally the volume brings forth a variety of trajectories and strategies developed by intellectuals outside the culturally dominant centers Contributors are David Cottington Narve Fuls s Tommaso Giordani Marja Jalava Zs fia L rand ukasz Miko ajewski Diana Mishkova Stefan Nyg rd Emilia Palonen Manolis Patiniotis Johanna Rainio Niemi Tore Rem Jos Mar a Rosales and Johan Strang      "Marketing Art in the British Isles,

1700 to the Present " Charlotte Gould,2017-07-05 A cultural history of the first truly modern art market Marketing Art in the British Isles 1700 to the Present furthers the burgeoning exploration of Britain's struggle to carve a niche for itself on the international art scene Bringing together scholars from the UK US Europe and Asia this collection sheds new light on such crucial notions as the internationalization of the art market the emergence of an increasingly complex exhibition culture issues of national rivalry and emulation artists individual and collective strategies for their own promotion and survival the persistent anti commercialism of an elite group of art lovers and critics and accusations of philistinism levelled at the middle classes as well as an unquestionable native British genius at reconciling jarring discourses Essays explore the unresolved tension between artistic aspirations and commercial interest a tension that has come to shape Britain's national artistic tradition from the perspectives of artists dealers and super collectors and the upwardly mobile middle classes whose consumerism gave rise to the British art market as it is known today Specific case studies include Whistler Roger Fry Damien Hirst and Charles Saatchi essays consider art markets from London and Manchester to Paris and Flanders New

Narratives of Russian and East European Art Galina Mardilovich,Maria Taroutina,2019-12-20 This book brings together thirteen scholars to introduce the newest and most cutting edge research in the field of Russian and East European art history Reconsidering canonical figures re examining prevalent debates and revisiting aesthetic developments the book challenges accepted histories and entrenched dichotomies in art and architecture from the nineteenth century to the present In doing so it resituates the artistic production of this region within broader socio cultural currents and analyzes its interconnections with international discourse competing political and aesthetic ideologies and continuous discussions over identity Painting outside the Lines David W. Galenson,2009-06-30 In a work that brings new insights and new dimensions to the history of modern art David Galenson examines the careers of more than 100 modern painters to disclose a fascinating relationship between age and artistic creativity Art and Commerce in Late Imperial Russia Andrey Shabanov,2019-01-10 Andrey Shabanov's seminal reinterpretation of the Peredvizhniki is a comprehensive study that examines in depth for the first time the organizational structure self representation exhibitions and critical reception of this 19th century artistic partnership Shabanov advances a more pragmatic reading of the Peredvizhniki artists seeking professional and creative freedom in authoritarian Tsarist Russia He likewise demonstrates and challenges how and why the group eventually came to be defined as a critically minded Realist art movement Unprecedentedly rich in new primary visual and textual sources the book also connects afresh the Russian and Western art worlds of the period A must read for anyone interested in Russian art and culture 19th century European art and also the history of art exhibitions art movements and the art market Schubert in the European Imagination Scott Messing,2006 The concept of Schubert as a feminine type began in 1838 This work examines the historical reception of Franz Schubert as conveyed through the gendered imagery and language of 19th and early 20th century European culture The figures discussed include Musset Sand Nerval Maupassant

George Eliot and others      The Female Secession Megan Brandow-Faller, 2020-06-22 Decorative handcrafts are commonly associated with traditional femininity and unthreatening docility However the artists connected with interwar Vienna's female Secession created craft based artworks that may be understood as sites of feminist resistance In this book historian Megan Brandow Faller tells the story of how these artists disrupted long established boundaries by working to dislodge fixed oppositions between art and craft decorative and profound and masculine and feminine in art Tracing the history of the women's art movement in Secessionist Vienna from its origins in 1897 at the Women's Academy to the Association of Austrian Women Artists and its radical offshoot the Wiener Frauenkunst Brandow Faller tells the compelling story of a movement that reclaimed the stereotypes attached to the idea of Frauenkunst or women's art She shows how generational struggles and diverging artistic philosophies of art craft and design drove the conservative and radical wings of Austria's women's art movement apart and explores the ways female artists and craftswomen reinterpreted and extended the Klimt Group's ideas in the interwar years Brandow Faller draws a direct connection to the themes that impelled the better known explosion of feminist art in 1970s America In this provocative story of a Viennese modernism that never disavowed its ornamental decorative roots she gives careful attention to key primary sources including photographs and reviews of early twentieth century exhibitions and archival records of school curricula and personnel Engagingly written and featuring more than eighty representative illustrations The Female Secession recaptures the radical potential of what Fanny Harlfinger Zakucka referred to as works from women's hands It will appeal to art historians working in the decorative arts and modernism as well as historians of Secession era Vienna and gender history      Rethinking Vienna 1900 Steven Beller, 2001 Fin de siècle Vienna remains a central event in the birth of this century's modern culture This text offers alternative ways of understanding the subject through the concept of critical modernism and the integration of previously neglected subjects

Théodore Rousseau and the Rise of the Modern Art Market Simon Kelly, 2021-03-25 The 19th century in France witnessed the emergence of the structures of the modern art market that remain until this day This book examines the relationship between the avant garde Barbizon landscape painter Théodore Rousseau 1812-1867 and this market exploring the constellation of patrons art dealers and critics who surrounded the artist It argues for the pioneering role of Rousseau his patrons and his public in the origins of the modern art market and in so doing shifts attention away from the more traditional focus on the novel careers of the Impressionists and their supporters Drawing on extensive archival research the book provides new insight into the role of the modern artist as professional It provides a new understanding of the complex iconographical and formal choices within Rousseau's work rediscovering the original radical charge that once surrounded the artist's work and led to extensive and peculiarly modern tensions with the market place      Art and Emancipation John Roberts, 2023-11-07 Across a powerfully wide ranging set of themes theoretical registers and historical examples John Roberts analyses the key problems that continue to confront art after conceptual art in the light of art's longstanding relationship to market and institution the commodity and mass culture namely artistic labour and technology modernity and the new art and negation identity and subjectivity agency and audience form and value In these terms the book provides a rigorous and ambitious examination of the limits and possibilities of art s contribution to emancipatory discourse and practice

East Central European Art Histories and Austria Karolina Majewska-Güde, Monika Leisch-Kiesl, 2024-05-06 The specific role of the Austro Hungarian Empire and the later nation of Austria within the formation of regional art histories in East Central Europe has received little attention in art historical research so far Taking into account the era of the Dual Monarchy as well as the period after 1989 the contributions analyze and critically scrutinize the imperial legacies transnational transfer processes and cultural hierarchies in art historiographies artistic practices and institutional histories Consisting of 17 texts with new commissions and one reprint case studies monographic essays and interviews grouped thematically into two sections the anthology proposes a pluriversal narrative on regional cultural and political contexts

Art Crossing Borders Jan Dirk Baetens, Dries Lyna, 2019-02-11 Art Crossing Borders offers a thought provoking analysis of the internationalisation of the art market during the long nineteenth century Twelve experts dealing with a wide variety of geographical temporal and commercial contexts explore how the gradual integration of art markets structurally depended on the simultaneous rise of nationalist modes of thinking in unexpected and ambiguous ways By presenting a radically international research perspective Art Crossing Borders offers a crucial contribution to the field of art market studies

"Material Women, 1750?950 " MaureenDaly Goggin, 2017-07-05 With the volume s global perspective and comparative framework this collection contributes to the ongoing scholarly examination of consumption by taking the topic of women material culture and consumption into new arenas The essays explore the connections between consumption and subjectivity they build upon and complicate the idea that consumption as a form of meaning making is key to the construction of gendered classed and national identities Providing a cross cultural perspective on consumption the essays are historically specific case studies While some essays examine women s consumption in a range of Anglophone and Francophone locations primarily in Britain France Australia Canada and the US other essays on Chinese Senegalese Indian and Mexican women s consumption particularly as it relates to fashion and design provide a comparative framework that will recalibrate ongoing discussions about consumption and domesticity dress and identity and desire and subjectivity In addition to its focus on gender and consumption this volume addresses gender and collecting exploring the tensions between accumulation and systematic collecting Also examined is the way in which the display of collected objects in Impressionists paintings in mass produced illustrations in the glass cases of museums and department stores participates in the construction of particular identities as well as serving as a kind of value producing material practice

Foreign Currency Volatility and the Market for French Modernist Art David Challis, 2021-08-04 Foreign Currency Volatility and the Market for French Modernist Art examines how the collapse of the French franc in the decades following the First World War activated powerful push and pull economic forces that compelled French art collectors to monetise their collections while simultaneously elevating the purchasing power of international art collectors. These factors are shown to have played a significant and previously under recognised role in the large scale translocation of French modernist art that radically accelerated its commercial and critical reception across the globe and positioned it at the apex of the newly established hierarchy of modern art.

Academics, Pompiers, Official Artists and the Arrière-garde Natalie Adamson, Toby Norris, 2020-06-12

Academics Pompiers Official Artists and the Arrière-garde: Defining Modern and Traditional in France 1900-1960 is a collection of eight essays and a scholarly introduction by established and emerging scholars that challenges the continuing modernist slant of twentieth century art history. The intention is not to perpetuate the vulgar opposition between avant garde and reactionary art that characterized early twentieth century discourse and has marked much subsequent historical writing but rather to investigate the complex relationship that both innovative and conservative artists had to the concept of tradition. How did artists and art critics conceive of tradition in relation to modernity? What was the role of an artist's institutional positioning in determining expectations for his or her art? What light is thrown on the structure of the French art world by considering artists from abroad who worked in Paris? How did the war alter modernist and avant garde paradigms and force crucial changes upon art production in the postwar period to 1960? Particular attention is paid to the terms academic, pompier, official and arrière-garde originally used to situate the more conservative artists and works as second rate or as the negative foil to the assumed radicalism of the avant garde. By re-evaluating the work of artists pushed to the historical margins by such polemical descriptors and by proposing alternative understandings of the aesthetic, economic, institutional and political factors that drive our ideas of avant gardism and the modernist narrative in France, this collection of essays offers new routes to explore the terrain of twentieth century art in France.
