Marmaduke Pickthall British Muslim:

Marmaduke Pickthall Peter Clark, Professor of European Urban History Peter Clark, 2016-05-20 Marmaduke William Pickthall born in 1875 London to Mary O'Brien and the Reverend Charles Grayson Pickthall is remembered if he is remembered at all as a translator of the Qur'an. The fact that a practicing English Christian would convert to Islam and become a renowned translator of the holiest of Muslim texts during years of volatile relations between Britain and the Ottoman Empire is itself exceptional. Yet Pickthall was much more than an historical oddity or gifted translator; he was a novelist, journalist, political and religious leader, and an often confusing mix of allegiances and beliefs. Marmaduke Pickthall British Muslim is an examination of his ideas and writings. For twenty years of Pickthall's adult life he was a devout Christian, and for the last twenty years he was a devout Muslim. Peter Clark's book raises issues of Muslim and national identity. Pickthall wrote much about Islam, which he saw as an open, tolerant and progressive religion. A reissue of the book is a timely and authoritative contribution to current debates. Marmaduke Pickthall: Islam and the Modern World, 2017-04-11

This new volume of essays marks eighty years since the death of Marmaduke Pickthall. His various roles as translator of the Qur'an, traveller to the Near East, political journalist writing on behalf of Muslim Turkey, and creator of the Muslim novel are discussed. In later life Pickthall became a prominent member of the British Muslim community in London and Woking, co-worker with Muslims in the Indian subcontinent, supporter of the Khilafat movement, and editor of the journal Islamic Culture under the patronage of the Nizam of Hyderabad. Marmaduke Pickthall: Islam and the Modern World makes an important contribution to the field of Muslims in Europe in the first half of the twentieth century. Contributors are Humayun Ansari, Adnan Ashraf, James Canton, Peter Clark, Ron Geaves, A. R. Kidwai, Faruk Kokoglu, Andrew C. Long, Geoffrey P. Nash, M. A. Sherif, and Mohammad Siddique Seddon. Veiled Women Marmaduke William Pickthall, 2019-12-03 In Veiled Women

Marmaduke William Pickthall delves into the intricate world of Eastern Muslim women, navigating themes of gender, culture, and identity through a series of compelling narratives. Writing in the early 20th century, Pickthall employs a rich descriptive literary style that not only reflects the social complexities of the time but also offers an empathetic glimpse into the lives cloaked in mystery by Western perceptions. Intertwining personal anecdotes with broader cultural observations, the text stands as both a literary work and an important sociocultural commentary, revealing the layered existence of women beneath the veil of tradition and expectation. Pickthall, a British author who embraced Islam, was profoundly influenced by his experiences in the Ottoman Empire and his deepening understanding of Islamic culture. His conversion to the faith provided him with a unique lens through which to approach the narratives of women often silenced or misrepresented in Western discourse. This intimate understanding and respect for the subject matter imbue the work with authenticity and depth, distinguishing it from contemporaneous colonial literature. Veiled Women invites readers to engage with the often ignored voices of Muslim women and challenges prevailing stereotypes. For scholars, students, and general readers alike, this book is an essential exploration of cultural intersectionality encouraging a reevaluation of perspectives and a deeper understanding of the human experience that transcends geographical boundaries The Meaning of the Glorious Koran Mohammed

Marmaduke Pickthall,1997-05-01 The classic translation of the Koran by a convert to Islam In 1930 Mohammed Marmaduke Pickthall a Western Islamic scholar and convert to Islam published this English translation of the Koran the central religious text of Islam which the Times Literary Supplement lauded as a great literary achievement The aim of this work is to present to American readers what Muslims the world over hold to be the meaning of the words of the Koran and the nature of that Book accurately and concisely with a view to the requirements of English speaking Muslims The first English translation of the Koran by an Englishman who is a Muslim the Book is here rendered almost literally and every effort has been made to choose befitting language Regarded by Muslims as God s actual words revealed to the prophet Mohammed the Koran remains the supreme authority of the Islamic tradition Comprising laws moral precepts and narratives its timeless texts are the inspiration and guide of millions of Muslims With this remarkably readable and scholarly translation Pickthall introduces the sacred scriptures of the Koran to Western readers and provides invaluable and fascinating insight into one of the world s great religions Veiled Women Marmaduke William Pickthall,2024-11

Veiled Women by Marmaduke William Pickthall is a novel set in the Middle East focusing on the lives of women in the context of Islamic culture and society The story delves into the complex roles and restrictions placed on women particularly exploring the lives of those who live behind the veil a symbol of modesty and cultural tradition in many Muslim communities The novel reflects Pickthall s deep understanding of Islamic culture as he was an Englishman who converted to Islam and spent considerable time in the Middle East Through the eyes of the main characters Veiled Women explores themes of freedom oppression love and the intersection of traditional customs with the desire for personal agency The narrative touches upon the social dynamics between men and women the limitations placed on women s roles in society and the challenges they face in asserting their identity within a patriarchal system Pickthall s writing offers a sympathetic yet critical view of the cultural practices surrounding women in the Islamic world as he presents both the beauty and the struggles inherent in these traditional customs The British Muslim Convert

Lord Headley, 1855-1935 Jamie Gilham,2020-11-12 This is the first biography of Lord Headley who made international headlines in 1913 when he defied convention by publicly converting to Islam Drawing on previously unpublished archival sources this book focuses on Headley s religious beliefs conversion to Islam and work as a Muslim leader during and after the First World War Lord Headley slipped into obscurity following his death in 1935 but there is growing recognition globally that he is a pivotal figure in the history of Western Islam and Muslim Christian relations this book evaluates the strengths and weaknesses successes and failures of the man and his work and considers his significance for contemporary understandings of Islam in the Global West Brave Hearts: Pickthall and Philby - Two English Muslims in a Changing

conversion to Islam in the late 1880s the Liverpool lawyer William Henry Abdullah Quilliam publicly propagated his new faith and established the first community of Muslim converts in Victorian Britain Despite decades of relative obscurity following his death with the resurgence of interest in Muslim heritage in the West since 9 11 Quilliam has achieved iconic status in Britain and beyond as a pivotal figure in the history of Western Islam and Muslim Christian relations In this timely book leading experts of the religion history and politics of Islam offer new perspectives and shed fresh light on Quilliam s life and work Through a series of original essays the authors critically examine Quilliam s influences philosophy and outlook the significance of his work for Islam his position in the Muslim world and his legacy Collectively the authors ask pertinent questions about how conversion to Islam was viewed and received historically and how a zealous convert like Quilliam negotiated his religious and national identities and sought to indigenise Islam in a non Muslim country Towards Building a British Islam Haifaa A. Jawad,2011-12-08 Despite the current negative image of Islam in Europe there has been a steady growth of converts to Islam over the past few decades British converts are a highly diverse group with different social economic and educational backgrounds Recently this group has grown in confidence and become increasingly active in influencing positive Islamic discourse in Britain The book sheds light on the intellectual and spiritual contributions of some of the prominent figures of this group of new Muslims and assesses their efforts in shaping Islam in British society including Martin Lings Gai Eaton Tim Winter and Hamza Yusuf The research investigates the potential benefit new Muslims can bring to bridge the gap between Muslim communities and wider British society thus helping in the process of building mutual trust greater cooperation and positive understanding among all parties in Britain The work will help readers to become aware of the evolution of a British Islam that is more open rooted in British values and spiritual traditions and forms a part of the continually changing British religious landscape Britain Through Muslim Eyes Claire Chambers,2015-07-30 What did Britain look like to the Muslims who visited and lived in the country in increasing numbers from the late eighteenth century onwards This book is a literary history of representations of Muslims in Britain from the late eighteenth century to the eve of Salman Rushdie s publication of The Satanic Verses 1988 An empire of many cultures Diane Robinson-Dunn,2024-04-30 Based upon extensive archival research and bringing to life the words and actions of extraordinary individuals from the early 20th century this book calls into question contemporary assumptions about the appreciation of diversity as a solely postcolonial phenomenon It shows how Bah Muslim and Jewish leaders prior to and during WWI found value in the existence of many different religions races languages nations and ethnicities within the British Empire Recognition of this heterogeneity combined with sympathy for certain liberal traditions allowed those historical actors to engage with that imperial state and culture in ways that would have an impact on future generations and relevance to modern debates Defending the Faith Todd Weir,Hugh McLeod,2021-01-11 This book explores how conflicts between secular worldviews and religions shaped the history of the 20th century Islamic Britain Philip Lewis,2002-03-29 From the 1980s Britain s large Muslim community a long established but little noticed group suddenly became visible as controversies involving the education and dress of Muslim schoolgirls the Rushdie affair and the Gulf War excited huge media interest Caricatures and misconceptions began to spread and with political Islam on the march in many Middle Eastern countries fears of British Muslims becoming a bridgehead in the West for the establishment of an Islamic theocracy began to loom in the popular imagination How do British Muslims really think about themselves about their religion and their politics What dilemmas do they face as they give up the myth of return that sustained first generation immigrants and struggle to define a British Islam In this important book the first major study of British Muslims Philip Lewis deals with the reality behind distorted media images through a rich first hand account of the Muslim community in Bradford the city which became the epicentre of British Muslim anger and resistance to The Satanic Verses

Muslim Active Citizenship in the West Mario Peucker, Shahram Akbarzadeh, 2014-04-03 Muslim Active Citizenship in the West investigates the emergence and nature of Muslims struggle for recognition as full members of society in Australia Great Britain and Germany What actions have been taken by Muslims to achieve equal civic standing How do socio political and socio economic factors impact on these processes And how do Muslims negotiate their place in a society that is often regarded as sceptical if not hostile towards Muslims desire to belong This book sheds new light on Muslims path towards citizenship in Australia Great Britain and Germany Existing research and statistics on Muslims socio economic status community formation claim making and political responses and the public portrayal of Islam are systematically examined These insights are tested through the eyes of Muslims based on in depth interviews with Muslim community leaders and other experts in all three countries The findings offer unique perspectives on Muslim resilience to be recognised as equal citizens of Islamic faith in very different socio political national settings Pursuing an interdisciplinary and comparative approach this book examines the country specific interplay of historical institutional political and identity dimensions of Muslims active citizenship and will be invaluable for students and researchers with an interest in Sociology Religious Studies and Political Science

Islam and Britain Ron Geaves, 2017-11-02 Based on hitherto untapped source materials this book charts the history of Muslim missionary activity in London from 1912 when the first Indian Muslim missionaries arrived in London until 1944 During this period a unique community was forged out of British converts and native Muslims from various parts of the world which focused itself around a purpose built mosque in Woking and later the first mosque to open in London in 1924 Arguing that an understanding of Muslim mission in this period needs to place such activity in the context of colonial encounter Islam and Britain provides a background narrative into why Muslim missionary activity in London was part of a variety of strategies to engage with European expansion and overzealous Christian missionary activity in India Ron Geaves draws on research undertaken in India and Pakistan where the Ahmadiya missionaries have kept extensive archives of this period which until now have been unavailable to scholars Unique in providing an account of Islamic missionary work in Britain from the Islamic perspective Islam and Britain adds to our knowledge and understanding of British Muslim history and makes an important contribution to the literature concerned with Islamic missiology

Muslim Women in Britain, 1850-1950 Sariya

Cheruvallil-Contractor, Jamie Gilham, 2024-01-01 The history of British Islam and British Muslims is a growing area of interest among historians and the general public But whilst Muslim women have featured in some research their lives and experiences prior to the present day have remained obscure if not hidden in both academic and popular discussion Uncovering Muslim women s experiences and contributions to society in past generations is essential for us to build a full picture of Muslim life in Britain then and now This is the first book to address that gap telling the stories of Muslim women who lived in Britain between the mid nineteenth and mid twentieth centuries from Victorian times to the years immediately after the Second World War just before immigration profoundly affected the size and composition of Britain s Muslim communities It reveals a rich variety of experiences including Muslim women who travelled to or away from Britain and many who converted to Islam within the British Isles Underpinned by feminist historical approaches this groundbreaking book aims to make women visible where they have been hidden from or within history Its fascinating accounts will reinstate Muslim women as actors storytellers and storymakers who have shaped the history of Britain and of British Islam

Leadership,

Authority and Representation in British Muslim Communities Sophie Gilliat-Ray, Riyaz Timol, 2021-01-26 The contributions explore Muslim religious leadership in multiple forms and settings While traditional authority is usually correlated with theology and piety as in the case of classically trained ulema the public advocacy of Muslim community concerns is often headed by those with professionalized skillsets and civic experience In an increasingly digital world both women and men exercise leadership in novel ways and sites of authority are refracted from traditional loci such as mosques and seminaries to new and unexpected places This collection provides systematic focus on a topic that has hitherto been given rather diffuse consideration It complements historical work on community leadership as well as more contemporary discussion on the training and role of Islamic religious authorities It will be of interest to scholars in Religious Studies
