Hall, A.M. Williams, 2013-06-29 The origins of this book lie in a project of the International Geographical Union Study Group on the Geography of Sustainable Tourism The theme Tourism and migration reflects the growing interests of tourism geographers in common with other geographers and social scientists to reach across traditional cleavages in the way research is undertaken and knowledge is formed In this instance the aim was to connect the largely discrete research domains of tourism studies and migration This was informed not only by awareness of the limitations of disciplinary barriers but also by the growing need to respond to the emergence of new forms of mobility and circulation which fitted uncomfortably into many of the analytical categories of tourism and migration studies. The extension of property rights across boundaries e.g. second homes vacation homes and time shares space time convergence changing approaches to work and leisure and structural changes in economies and the demographic profiles of societies are only some of the factors which have generated these new forms of mobility These serve to bind places and individuals in new and challenging ways with implication for both movers and stayers. The various chapters of this volume bring together a range of dimensions and locations within which to study the relationships between tourism and migration Handbook of Social Psychology John DeLamater, 2006-11-24 Psychology focusing on processes that occur inside the individual and Sociology focusing on social collectives and social institutions come together in Social Psychology to explore the interface between the two fields The core concerns of social psychology include the impact of one individual on another the impact of a group on its individual members the impact of individuals on the groups in which they participate the impact of one group on another This book is a successor to Social Psychology Social Perspectives and Sociological Perspectives in Social Psychology The current text expands on previous handbooks in social psychology by including recent developments in theory and research and comprehensive coverage of significant theoretical Handbook of Attachment Jude Cassidy, Phillip R. Shaver, 1999 Pre eminent authorities in the field cover perspectives the origins and development of attachment theory biological attachment theory biological perspectives measurement of attachment across the lifespan and emerging topics and perspectives Handbook of Attachment, Second Edition Jude Cassidy, Phillip R. Shaver, 2008-08-21 From foremost authorities this comprehensive work is more than just the standard reference on attachment it has become indispensable in the field Coverage includes the origins and development of attachment theory biological and evolutionary perspectives and the role of attachment processes in personality relationships and mental health across the lifespan Foundations of Culture Harald Haarmann, 2007 Constructing culture means constructing knowledge and making it operational for the benefit of sustained community life As a cognitive process knowledge construction does not evolve in a vacuum but rather interacts with belief systems and worldview Cultural knowledge is modulated by key factors such as time linear versus non linear conceptions of reality physical imagined virtual identity and intentionality The critical investigation and comparison of cultures in space and time call for a revision of several concepts These include utility as the maxim of modern Euro American society prototype as an allegedly unified concept of culture evolution and replacement as a generalizing signifier for the exchange of old items for new ones. The working of cultural memory is understood as the storage capacity of items of knowledge relating to the past present and future according to parameters of experienced rather than absolute time This study discusses a wide selection of the variables shaping the foundations and fabric of culture starting with the human capacities for symbol making and using sign systems The impact of knowledge construction on the culture process is articulated in 30 postulates concerning the dynamics of communal life and patterns of sustenance the relationship between the natural environment and cultural space and the life cycle of cultures The Philosophy of Spike Lee Mark Conard, 2011-07-22 Over his twenty plus year tenure in Hollywood Spike Lee has produced a number of controversial films that unapologetically confront sensitive social issues particularly those of race relations and discrimination Through his honest portrayals of life s social obstacles he challenges the public to reflect on the world's problems and divisions The innovative director created a name for himself with feature films such as Do the Right Thing 1989 and Malcolm X 1992 and with documentaries such as 4 Little Girls 1997 and When the Levees Broke 2006 breaking with Hollywood's reliance on cultural stereotypes to portray African Americans in a more realistic light The director continues to produce poignant films that address some of modern society s most important historical movements and events In The Philosophy of Spike Lee editor Mark T Conard and an impressive list of contributors delve into the rich philosophy behind this filmmaker s extensive work Not only do they analyze the major themes of race and discrimination that permeate Lee's productions but also examine other philosophical ideas that are found in his films ideas such as the nature of time transcendence moral motivation self constitution and justice The authors specialize in a variety of academic disciplines that range from African American Studies to literary and cultural criticism and Philosophy Kinship Relations in the Gospel of John Joan C. Campbell, 2023-12-06 This monograph examines the relationships between the two families of Jesus in the Fourth Gospel The first family is that of the mother brothers and sisters of Jesus the second is the fictive family of the disciples Using social scientific criticism Campbell proposes that the Gospel depicts a sharp division between these families that is between the biological family the brothers and sisters of Jesus adelphoi and the discipleship family that includes the Encyclopedia of Women & Islamic Cultures Suad Joseph, Afsāna Nağmābādī, 2003 Family Body Sexuality mother of Jesus and Health is Volume III of the Encyclopedia of Women Islamic Cultures In almost 200 well written entries it covers the broad field of family body sexuality and health and Islamic cultures
