of key genres of the English Renaissance especially lyric poetry dramatic tragedy satire and masque But how did the Inns come to be literary centers in the first place and why were they especially vibrant at particular times Early modernists have long understood that urban setting and institutional environment were central to this phenomenon in the vibrant world of London educated men with time on their hands turned to literary pastimes for something to do Lawyers at Play proposes an additional more essential dynamic the literary culture of the Inns intensified in decades of profound transformation in the legal profession Focusing on the first decade of Elizabeth's reign the period when a large literary network first developed around the societies this study demonstrates that the literary surge at this time developed out of and responded to a period of rapid expansion in the legal profession and in the career prospects of members Poetry translation and performance were recreational pastimes however these activities also defined and elevated the status of inns of court men as qualified learned and ethical participants in England's legal magistracy those lawyers judges justices of the peace civic office holders town recorders and gentleman landholders who managed and administered local and national governance of England Lawyers at Play maps the literary terrain of a formative but understudied period in the English Renaissance but it also provides the foundation for an argument that goes beyond the 1560s to provide a framework for understanding the connections between the literary and legal cultures of the Inns over the whole of the early modern period Four Restoration Libertine Plays Deborah Payne Fisk, 2005-04-14 Thomas Shadwell The Libertine George Etherege The Man of Mode Thomas Durfey A Fond Husband Thomas Otway Friendship in Fashion These four plays in the Oxford English Drama series capture the range of responses to the fashionable and daring libertine movement in the second half of the seventeenth century A Fond Husband and Friendship in Fashion are lesser known comic gems of the Restoration stage The Man of Mode is Etherege's masterpiece and The Libertine is Shadwell's experimental and dark version of the Don Juan story. The texts are freshly edited using modern spelling There is a critical introduction wide ranging annotation and an informative bibliography which together illuminate the plays cultural context and theatrical potential for reader and performer alike The series should shape the canon in a number of significant areas A splendid and imaginative project Professor Anne Barton Cambridge University
