Building an Opportunity Society Lewis D. Solomon, 2017-09-08 Twenty first century US policymakers face a great challenge How can federal government help more people achieve the American dream Specifically how can we provide greater opportunities for less prosperous individuals enabling them to succeed through hard work on their merits and take increased responsibility for their lives Lewis D Solomon sees this as the challenge of our time He seeks to thread the fine public policy needle between social democratic efforts to perfect the world and those who negatively view public sector programs Based on the premise that capitalism is not inherently unjust and defective and American capitalism s structural features do not inexorability thwart opportunity Building an Opportunity Society offers the possibility of more limited carefully structured cost effective empirically verified federal policies and programs Solomon first provides the background and context of many existing domestic challenges and problems that the current and proposed federal policies and programs seek to address He then analyses the federal safety net that keeps Americans from poverty and helps reduce income inequality Finally he presents a lifecycle analysis of current federal policies and programs preventive and remedial designed as part of the Entitlement State but if restructured could facilitate the building of an Opportunity Society Solomon challenges policymakers to take a fresh look at how best to achieve society's goals for all citizens

Marriage and Modernization Don S. Browning, 2003-03-20 The processes of modernization and globalization promise more wealth and health for many people But they are also a threat to the stability and quality of marriage and family life This new book at once sobering and constructive looks at the impact of these processes on marriage and asks what Christianity in cooperation with other religions can do to strengthen married life today Among the deleterious effects of modernization and globalization on marriage are a worldwide drift of men away from the responsibility of parenthood and the tendency of mothers too readily to take on the task of childrearing alone After looking at recent research on these and other problems Don Browning suggests that the cure for modern marital disruption entails reforming and reconstructing the institution of marriage while also nurturing relevant forms of social support Yet the effort to initiate a world marriage revival requires a complex cultural work and Browning explores the key contributions that the religions of the world must make for such an effort to be successful Handbook of Marriage and the Family Marvin B. Sussman, Suzanne K. Steinmetz, Gary W. Peterson, 2013-06-29 To know where we are going as scholars educators and practitioners in the field of marriage and family life we first need to know where we have been A perusal of early texts on marriage and family life provides some thought provoking insights into the accuracy of the saying what goes around comes around It is interesting to note who has been considered to be in a position to provide information on marriage and family life Included in the eclectic collection of texts we reviewed were ministers whose focus was on spirituality doctors who emphasized medical aspects of child and adult health and public health professionals and home economists concerned with fighting disease who emphasized cleanliness order fighting germs and eliminating rodents and insects There are also philosophers who drew from ancient texts when discussing family life and a count who assembled a group of German intellectual elites to address various topics An insightful essay of this type is by Marta Karlweis 1926 in which she notes There is no other fetish that society holds to so firmly as the conception woman with all its usual associations of infantilism and dependence The child requires protection is a minor and consequently a serf but above all it possesses no spiritual existence Neither doctorates or other distinctions nor the right to vote have as yet been able to dispel this sweet idea of the childishness of woman which man cherishes p International bibliography of research in marriage and the family Joan Aldous, 1967 Welfare and Marriage Issues United States. Congress. House. Committee on Ways and Means. Subcommittee on Human Resources, 2001 Marriages and Families in the 21st Century Tasha R. Howe, 2011-09-15 Marriages and Families in the 21st Century provides an in depth exploration of a traditional field of study using a new and engaging approach The text covers all the important issues including parenting divorce aging families balancing work and family family violence and gender issues using a bioecological framework that takes into account our status as both biological and social beings Using this lens which emphasizes the individual's interactions with a series of larger systemic influences from family peers neighbors and teachers to schools media institutions and culture the book creates a cohesive overview of modern family life and helps students visualize the complex influences affecting all people in families It also examines the state of modern families using a strengths based approach which allows students to evaluate the health and functioning of a family considering the biological and cultural milieu in which it exists rather than on its observable structure or appearance alone Individual chapters cover historical and cultural trends and also explore the biological personal and social forces that shape individuals and families Each chapter investigates the wide diversity of human relationships and integrates discussions of ethnicity culture sexual orientation and gender seamlessly into the main narrative In addition the book explores recent research in neuroscience medicine and biopsychology to examine how family relationships are shaped by and also influence individuals biological functioning An accessible writing style coupled with numerous student friendly pedagogical features help readers come to a multi layered understanding of what makes families tick while also challenging them to reevaluate their own assumptions and experiences

Key features Uses a bioecological model that takes into account our status as both biological and social beings Employs a strengths based approach that focuses on family processes rather than structure in evaluating families optimal health and happiness Incorporates discussion of neuroscience medicine and biopsychological research throughout Explores a wide diversity of family relationships integrating issues of ethnicity culture sexual orientation and gender Focus on my Family boxes profile real families who wrote essays in their own words about their diverse experiences How Would You Measure That sections emphasize students critical thinking and analysis of research design and conclusions Helps students analyze their own families strengths and attempt to build on those through psychometrically sound self assessments and Building Your Strengths exercises Engaging and accessible writing style incorporates contemporary real world examples with important theory and research Instructor s manual test bank PowerPoint lecture slides and useful web links as well as Student flash cards and self test questions available upon publication at www.wiley.com/go/howe
