

Heaven and Sam Kinison help Al glimpse a world which never knew Bundyness.

The Bundy family collides with Christmas in an irreverent parody of the old holiday classic when Sam Kinison comes his wings as Al's guardian angel - and gives Al a new lease on his miserable existence.
He may be married with children,
but It's a Bundyful Life.

When Al reveals he's been stashing
cash in a Christmas club account, Peg, Kelly and Bud turn on the affection, and the Bundys get psyched for a holiday fest - Christmas presents!

But a last-minute customer at the shoe store frustrates Al's plans, and Al comes home empty-handed. With no loot to buy his family's love, Al finds himself alone and hungry on Christmas Eve wishing he had never been born.

Raucous redemption arrives quickly with Al's guardian angel (Sam Kinison) and heaven helps Al glimpse a world which never knew Bundyness. A dastardly Dag busy in the kitchen? A compassionate Bud who defends feminine virtue?
A blushing Kelly visiting from college? Finding his family so happy without him, an ordinary man would throw in the towel and never go back.
But not Al. Because the happy, loving family of one man's nightmare is Al Bundy's pride... It's a Bundyful Life.

Married With Children Its A Bundyful Life:

Married... With Children vs. the World Richard Gurman, 2024-04-23 A rollicking account of the groundbreaking show from one of the show's producers featuring the voices of the stars creators and executives involved with bringing it to life I had the pleasure of working with Richard Gurman for eleven years When he sent me his new book Married With Children vs the World I figured it would be a trip down memory lane So I was stunned by some revelations I never knew And reminded how brilliant much of the writing was What a time that was If you liked Married With Children then you should read this book You're in for a treat Ed O'Neill Married With Children burst onto the airwaves with a full frontal attack on the myth of domestic tranquility depicted in family comedies since the dawn of TV The outlier series created by two rebellious writers given carte blanche from a fledgling FOX became one of the longest running live action sitcoms in television history and forever changed the way married life was portrayed on the very networks it so scathingly satirized But it was far from smooth sailing as the creators bucked up against Barry Diller then CEO of FOX on everything from casting to content and then butted heads with network standards as they sought to shatter traditional broadcast norms Reading Married With Children vs the World jolted me right back into the mindset where our little show was the rock n roll of sitcoms fighting to get heard in an easy listening world Richard Gurman who was there for the whole ride digs deep into the joys and frustrations of the entire experience and turns it up loud Katey Sagal Married With Children writer producer Richard Gurman takes us behind the scenes of this boundary breaking show to reveal how its inner workings were at times as disruptive and contentious yet at other times as hysterical and raunchy as the Bundy family themselves Featuring exclusive interviews with the cast including Ed O'Neill and Katey Sagal media moguls network executives writers directors critics and even the woman who was so offended by one episode she launched a sponsor boycott that almost got the series canceled Married With Children vs the World celebrates the rebellious satirical vision of the show and the battle to keep it alive that paved the way for the tremendous diversity in family comedy style we see today Not only is this an accurate chronicle of both families on either side of the camera but what should also serve as a valuable lesson of never giving up on a dream Michael G Moye Co Creator I had almost as much fun reading Married with Children vs the World as I had working on the show Almost Richard Gurman chronicles from his vantage point inside the writers room and the sound booth how we broke the china in the family sitcom kitchen and upended the television industry by doing so What could be more fun than that David Garrison Poetry
