Martha Black Her Story From The Dawson Gold Fields To The Halls Of Parliament:

Martha Black Martha Louise Black, 1998 Martha was an independent 32 year old when she headed for the Klondike in 1898 She endured the grueling Chilkoot Trail traveled by boat down the Yukon River and worked placer gold claims while living in a crude log cabin She went on to become a successful businesswoman owning a mining camp and managing a sawmill At the age of 70 she was elected to the Canadian Parliament Book jacket Martha Black Martha L. Black, 2003-05 Her Story from the Dawson Gold Fields to the Halls of Parliament Martha Black Martha Black, Her story from the Dawson Gold Fields to the halls of Parliament Life in 1898 to her winning the election to Canadian Parliament at the age of 70 19th Century Female Explorers Caroline Roope, 2025-08-05 As any historian will testify a nineteenth century woman's place was very much at home Or was it For a lucky and plucky few who had a little determination and the ability to withstand lice infestations climbing mountains in corsets rascally guides and occasional certain death as well as the raised eyebrows of the society they left behind then the world really was their oyster In this lively re telling of twenty two extraordinary ladies who did just that Caroline Roope invites you to journey to the further corners of the earth along with them From humble missionary Annie Royle Taylor who knew God would keep her safe to the haughty aristocrat Lady Hester Stanhope who defied convention and dressed as a Turkish man including pistol knife and turban their collective voices still resonate hundreds of years later Drawing on their original accounts and archival sources this expertly researched book brings to light a wealth of stories that are full of grit sometimes literally courage and just enough humor to wish we'd been there with them on their adventures on the other side of the horizon So pack a suitcase along with a good thick skirt la Mary Kingsley and prepare to go beyond the garden gate Ladies in the Laboratory III Mary R. S. Creese, Thomas M. Creese, 2010-02-08 Published in 1998 Ladies in the Laboratory provided a systematic survey and comparison of the work of 19th century American and British women in scientific research A companion volume published in 2004 focused on women scientists from Western Europe In this third volume author Mary R S Creese expands her scope to include the contributions of 19th and early 20th century women of South Africa Australia New Zealand and Canada The women whose lives and work are discussed here range from natural history collectors and scientific illustrators of the early and mid years of the 19th century to the first generation of graduates of the new colonial colleges and universities Rarely acknowledged in publications of the British and European specialists the contributions of these women nonetheless formed a significant part of the natural history information about extensive previously unknown regions and their products Rather than a biographical dictionary or a collection of self contained essays on individuals from many time periods Ladies in the Laboratory III is a connected narrative tied into the wider framework of 19th century science and education A well organized blend of individual life stories and quantitative information this volume is for everyone interested in the story of women's participation in 19th century science The stories of these women make for fascinating reading and serve as a valuable source for the student of
