Arts, Inc. Bill Ivey,2008-05-10 In this impassioned and persuasive book Bill Ivey the former chairman of the National Endowment for the Arts assesses the current state of the arts in America and finds cause for alarm Even as he celebrates our ever emerging culture and the way it enriches our lives here at home while spreading the dream of democracy around the world he points to a looming crisis The expanding footprint of copyright an unconstrained arts industry marketplace and a government unwilling to engage culture as a serious arena for public policy have come together to undermine art artistry and cultural heritage the expressive life of America In eight succinct chapters Ivey blends personal and professional memoir policy analysis and deeply held convictions to explore and define a coordinated vision for art culture and expression in American life      Blood Moon Rising Kimberly Dayne Starr,2003-07 This is a black heritage children s series novel about three young boys who are the closest of friends Their friendship and love for the game of marbles created a bond that held them together The story takes place before the Civil Rights movement Segregation dictated their life They lived across the railroad tracks where life was a challenge The schools they attended had crowded classrooms with two grades being taught in one room The books they were taught from were second hand They could not use the public library Their living conditions reflected the era where poverty was widespread But in spite of it all they succumb the inferior education and living conditions to become scholars and leaders in the field of medicine One of the boys became Dr Charles Drew a leader in the preservation of blood Dr Daniel Hale Williams became a pioneer in operating on the human heart The third boy was a victim of polio Through their bold efforts and persistence to stay the course to fulfill their goals they became scholars and leaders These young boys are a link between the present medical breakthroughs and a forgotten past thereby changing the face of the quality of life for all mankind      Orange Judd American Agriculturist ,1912      Practical Lurcher Breeding ,
