further through a period of stagnation up to its last blooming just before the beginning of the Dark Ages A Companion to Ancient Epigram offers the first ever full scale treatment of the genre from a broad international perspective The book is divided into six parts the first of which covers certain typical characteristics of the genre examines aspects that are central to our understanding of epigram and discusses its relation to other literary genres The subsequent four parts present a diachronic history of epigram from archaic Greece Hellenistic Greece and Latin and Greek epigrams at Rome all the way up to late antiquity with a concluding section looking at the heritage of ancient epigram from the Middle Ages up to modern times Provides a comprehensive overview of the history of the epigram The first single volume book to examine the entire history of the genre Scholarly interest in Greek and Roman epigram has steadily increased over the past fifty years Looks at not only the origins of the epigram but at the later literary tradition A Companion to Ancient Epigram will be of great interest to scholars and students of literature world literature and ancient and general history It will also be an excellent addition to the shelf of any public and university library

The Epigrams of M. Val. Martial James Elphinston, 1782 Epigrammaton Liber VII Guillermo Galán Vioque, 2002 This is the first comprehensive commentary line by line and word by word on the seventh book of the epigrams of Martial Literary linguistic and metrical matters are examined in depth and special attention is paid to the relationship with the poet's other books and with the rest of Greek and Latin Literature as well as to the use of recurrent motifs obscene language puns double meanings and proper names

Martial's Epigrams Book Two, 2004-01-08 This edition provides an English translation of and detailed commentary on the second book of epigrams published by the Latin poet Marcus Valerius Martialis The past ten years have seen a resurgence of interest in Martial's writings But contemporary readers are in particular need of assistance when approaching these epigrams and until now there has been no modern commentary dedicated to Book II This new commentary carefully illuminates the allusions to people places things and cultural practices of late first century Rome that pervade Martial's poetry It analyzes the epigrammatist's poems as literary creations treating such topics as the structure of the individual poems and of the book as a whole and the influence of earlier texts on Martial's language and themes

A General Bibliographical Dictionary Friedrich Adolf Ebert, 1837 Latin Literature John William Mackail, 1895 The Mask of the Parasite Cynthia Damon, 1997 A much needed cultural study of parasitic people in Roman drama politics and society

A General Bibliographical Dictionary: M-P Friedrich Adolf Ebert, 1837 The Oxford Handbook of Cities in World History Peter Clark, 2013-02-14 In 2008 for the first time the majority of the planet's inhabitants lived in cities and towns Becoming globally urban has been one of mankind's greatest collective achievements over time and raises many questions How did global city systems evolve and interact in the past How have historic urban patterns impacted on those of the contemporary world And what were the key drivers in the roller coaster of urban change over the millennia market forces such as trade and industry rulers and governments competition and collaboration between cities or the urban environment and demographic forces This pioneering comparative work by leading scholars drawn from a range of disciplines offers the first detailed comparative study of urban development from ancient times to the present day The Oxford Handbook of Cities in World History explores not only the main trends in the growth of cities and towns across the world in Asia and the Middle East Europe Africa and the Americas and the different types of cities from great metropolitan centres to suburbs colonial cities and market towns but also many of the essential themes in the making and remaking of the urban world the role of power economic development migration social inequality environmental challenge and the urban response religion and representation cinema and urban creativity Split into three parts covering Ancient cities the medieval and early modern period and the modern and contemporary era it begins with an introduction by the editor identifying the importance and challenges of research on cities in world history as well as the crucial outlines of urban development since the earliest cities in ancient Mesopotamia to the present

Ritual and the Poetics of Closure in Flavian Literature Angeliki-Nektaria Roumpou, 2023-08-07 This collection of papers responds to the question of whether a ritual at the end of a text can offer resolution and order or rather a complicated kind of closure It reveals that ritual can bring but also can thwart closure by alluding to new beginnings A ritual could be a perfect kind of ending but it hardly ever seems to be In Flavian literature this is even more apparent because of the complicated political background under which these texts were produced Ancient religious practices in the closing sections of Flavian texts help us create connections between endings and new beginnings order and disorder binding and loosening structure and dissolution which reflects the structure of the Empire in Flavian Rome Overall this volume offers a new tool for studying literary endings through ritual which promotes our understanding of Flavian culture and politics as well as creating a new perception of the use of religion and ritual in Flavian literature instead of giving a sense of closure this volume argues that ritual is a medium to increase complexity to expose ritual actors and to project a generic riskiness of ritual actors also onto the epic actors who are acting before and mostly after a ritual scene
