Park, 2012-09-20 Arbitration of International Business Disputes 2nd edition is a fully revised and updated anthology of essays by Rusty Park a leading scholar in international arbitration and a sought after arbitrator for both commercial and investment treaty cases This collection focuses on controversial questions in arbitration of trade financial and investment disputes The essays address some of the most interesting topics in cross border business dispute resolution many of which have endured over several decades and remain subject to radically different views Examples include the proper role of judicial review the allocation of jurisdictional tasks evolution of arbitration s statutory and treaty framework free trade and bilateral investment agreements and the balance between fixed rules and arbitral discretion The book is structured around three themes arbitration s legal framework the conduct of arbitral proceedings and a comparison of arbitration in specific fields such as finance intellectual property and taxation In each of these areas analysis includes the tensions between fairness and efficiency and the accurate application of substantive law as well as the implications of mandatory procedural norms Augmented by more than a dozen new contributions and a revised introduction this 2nd edition retains all of its earlier practical and scholarly relevance and includes a Foreword by V V Johnny Veeder QC The Yale Law School Guide to Research in American Legal History John B. Nann, Morris L. Cohen, 2018-06-19 The study of legal history has a broad application that extends well beyond the interests of legal historians An attorney arguing a case today may need to cite cases that are decades or even centuries old and historians studying political or cultural history often encounter legal issues that affect their main subjects Both groups need to understand the laws and legal practices of past eras This essential reference is intended for the many nonspecialists who need to enter this arcane and often tricky area of research
