Martine Franck:

Martine Franck Martine Franck, John Berger, 1998 This volume presents a collection of Martine Franck's photographs her own favourites grouped within themes of childhood the theatre the Orient old age portraits museums and landscapes In creating her pictures which range from portraits of Michel Foucault and Marc Chagall Franck sees the camera as a frontier that one is constantly breaking down so as to get closer to the subject Martine Franck: One Day to the Next (Signed Edition) Martine Franck, 2005-06 Martine Franck One Day to the Next includes more than 100 images that capture singular visual moments with elegance and wit Presented here is a selection of this highly regarded photographer's favorite images from the last 30 years covering subject matter from the inquisitiveness of childhood to the quirks of old age from strange and rugged landscapes to the rhythms of crowds Whether photographing artists and writers such as Michel Foucault and Marc Chagall or Tibetan Buddhist refugees in India and Nepal Franck sees photography as a frontier a barrier of sorts that one is constantly breaking down so as to get closer to the subject Martine Franck: Looking at Others, 2024-10-15 MARTINE FRANCK. AGNES SIRE LACOSTE (ANNE.), 2018 Martine Franck, Contemporary Narratives of Ageing, Illness, Care Katsura Sako, Sarah Falckus, 2021-12-24 This collection of essays explores cultural narratives of care in the contexts of ageing and illness It includes both text based and practice based contributions by leading and emerging scholars in humanistic studies of ageing The authors consider care not only in film feature and documentary and literature novel short story children's picturebook but also in the fields of theatre performance photography and music The collection has a broad geographical scope with case studies and primary texts from Europe and North America but also from Hong Kong Japan Australia Argentina and Mexico The volume asks what care autonomy and dependence may mean and how these may be inflected by social and cultural specificities Ultimately it invites us to reflect on our relations to others as we face the global and local challenges of care in ageing societies Collaborative Theatre David Williams, 2005-08-16 Over the past thirty years Ariane Mnouchkine's Théâtre du Soleil has become one of the most celebrated companies in Europe and Mnouchkine one of its best known directors Collaborative Theatre is the first in depth sourcebook in English on Théâtre du Soleil providing English readers with first hand accounts of the development of its collectivist practices and ideals Collaborative Theatre presents critical and historical essays by theatre scholars from around the world as well as the writings of and interviews with members of le Théâtre du Soleil past and present Projects discussed include 1789 L'Age d'Or Richard II L'Indiade and Les Atrides Molière on Stage Robert W. Goldsby, 2012-04 Molière on Stage takes the reader onstage backstage and into the audience of Molière's plays analyzing the performance of his works in both his own time and in ours Written by a professional stage director with over fifty years experience directing and translating Molière this text explores how the playwright strove to create a communal experience of shared laughter and investigates four key topics relating to this achievement Molière's early experiences that lead to his later theater experiences his central great plays of love and lust his comedic genius and his passion for the stage and the final words and performances of his life      Theatre Histories Phillip B. Zarrilli, 2010 Providing a clear journey through centuries of European North and South American African and Asian forms of theatre and performance this introduction helps the reader think critically about this exciting field through fascinating yet plain speaking essays and case studies      Le Théâtre du Soleil Béatrice Picon-Vallin, 2020-07-22 Le Théâtre du Soleil traces the company's history from a group of young barely trained actors directors and designers struggling to match their political commitment to a creative strategy to their grappling with the concerns of migration separation and exile in the early decades of the twenty first century Béatrice Picon Vallin recounts how in the 55 years since its founding the Th tre du Soleil has established itself as one of the foremost names in modern theatre Ariane Mnouchkine and her collaborators have developed a unique and ever evolving style that combines a piercing richness of shape color and texture with precision choreography innovative musical accompaniment and multi layered metaphorical dreamscapes This rich storied history is illustrated by a wealth of spectacular rehearsal and production photos from the company's own archive and interviews with dozens of past and present members including Mnouchkine herself Judith G Miller's timely translation of the first comprehensive history and analysis of a remarkable award winning company is a compelling read for both students and teachers of Drama and Theatre Studies

Women's Narratives of Ageing and Care Emily Jeremiah, Shirley Jordan, 2025-02-17 Care is fundamental to human survival yet it is often overlooked undermined undervalued and thought of as women's work Care of the old is particularly low in status and is too readily occluded This volume asks why and how cultures of care for older people are negatively configured It examines some of the powerful responses to relationships of intergenerational care in recent creative works by women It thereby contributes to the contemporary imperative to transform care by investigating some of the ways in which care might be redefined and reconceptualized Taking as its focus the representation or narrativization of care in theory literature visual culture and performance it engages with contemporary female authored works from diverse cultural contexts encouraging the development of comparative cross cultural perspectives Narrative is key here for it is in stories about ageing and care that the complexities and ambiguities of care relationships are made available and that simplified ideas about them are challenged This volume will be of interest to scholars in literary and cultural studies gender studies critical age studies the medical and health humanities and all who are interested in care      Encyclopedia of

Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren, 2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader

the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included Newsletter, East Asian Art and Archaeology, 1998 Contemporary Photography in France Olga Smith, 2022-10-19 This compelling publication traces the broad arc of photography's development in France from the 1970s to the present day A decade by decade account reveals unexpected points of convergence between practices that are not usually considered in a comparative perspective These include photographic practices in contemporary art documentary photojournalism and fashion Author Olga Smith sets these practices in dialogue with French philosophy the writings of Roland Barthes Jean Baudrillard and Jacques Rancière to produce an innovative study of the intersections between the photographic image text practice and theory This analysis is guided by an understanding of photography as deeply engaged with historical cultural and intellectual events that defined French national experience in the contemporary period Landscape provides a particular focus to study issues of key significance including national identification colonial past legacies of modernization and environmental breakdown Latin American Artists in Their Studios Marie-Pierre Colle, 1994 Many of these artists have remained in Latin America others are scattered throughout the world Some are in Paris Claudio Bravo lives in a magnificent villa in Tangiers Botero shuttles between houses and studios in New York Paris Pietrasanta and Bogota The Acoustics of the Social on Page and Screen Nathalie Aghoro, 2021-09-09 Sound positions individuals as social subjects The presence of human beings animals objects or technologies reverberates into the spaces we inhabit and produces distinct soundscapes that render social practices group associations and socio cultural tensions audible The Acoustics of the Social on Page and Screen unites interdisciplinary perspectives on the social dimensions of sound in audiovisual and literary environments The essays in the collection discuss soundtracks for shared values group membership and collective agency and engage with the subversive functions of sound and sonic forms of resistance in American literature film and TV The Paris Jigsaw David Bradby, Maria M. Delgado, 2002 This book examines the creation and development of communities of actors directors designers and playwrights in Paris over the past thirty years It shows how the willingness of the city to welcome international influences has enriched its creative life and that many of the most important trends and new developments have been the direct result of the creative combination of influences from all over the world

Temperaments: Memoirs of Henri Cartier-Bresson and Other Artists Dan Hofstadter, 2015-01-27 In these five profiles four of which originally appeared in the New Yorker the author evokes the life and work of seven gifted artists Among those presented often through lively conversations are Jean Helion Mark Rothko R B Kitaj and Dennis Creffield Chief among those portrayed however is Henri Cartier Bresson 1908 2004 the great French photographer and photojournalist who famed for dodging contact with the press is here sketched in rare and fond detail Of all these artists only two still live what emerges from this book is a picture often bizarre often hilarious of a bygone bohemian world Modern French Drama 1940-1990 David Bradby, 1991-05-16 An updated account and comparison of the major traditions and tendencies in the French theatre

from 1940 1990
