The Marvelous Adventures of Pierre Baptiste Patricia Eakins, 1999-05 A magic realism novel on an 18th century slave in the Caribbean who becomes a philosopher writing an encyclopedia on his race After escaping by sea he lands on an island is made pregnant by a mermaid and gives birth through his mouth to a guartet of philosofish Representing Autism Stuart Murray, 2008-01-01 From concerns about an autism epidemic to the MMR vaccine crisis autism is a source of peculiar fascination in the contemporary media Author Stuart Murray himself the parent of an autistic child contends that for all the coverage autism rarely emerges from the various images we produce of it as a comprehensible way of being in the world instead occupying a succession of narrative spaces as a source of fascination and wonder A refreshing analysis and evaluation of autism within contemporary society and culture Representing Autism establishes the autistic presence as a way by which we might more fully articulate our understanding of those with the condition and what it means to be a human This is an outstanding volume of empathetic scholarship Representing Autism is a truly significant piece of cultural criticism about one of the defining conditions of our time Mark Osteen Loyola College The Art of Discovery Margareth Hagen, Randi Koppen, Margery Vibe Skagen, 2010-08-30 This anthology brings together scholars from literature the natural sciences and the philosophy of science to present new perspectives on the relations between literary and scientific communities Drawing on literature spanning the 19th and 20th centuries as well as Europe and the Americas the authors explore how science has been portrayed from the perspective of literature at different times and in different places as challenge or opportunity promise or scandal The disturbance of science emanates perhaps from its association with a frightening future or its ability to change the appearance of the past the scandal occurs as it recalls us to thresholds and hybrids human and non human animal and machine Science however also emerges as a source of metaphor and imaginative modelling of encodings and decodings representations and discoveries Less prominent in the collection though no less important is the view on how scientific cultures portray literature or the literary academic and how science reflects on itself

Swan, What Shores? Veronica Lee Patterson, 2000-05-01 Winner of the Colorado Book Award Winner of the Willa Literary Award As heard on Public Radio International's The Writer's Almanac Full of music and evocative word play Veronica Patterson's Swan What Shores offers alluring poems varied in form and inventive in approach In language that is both precise and lyrical Patterson's work like much of the best poetry plumbs the human condition with depth wit and above all compassion. The poems offer fine surprises from the lyrical litany of The Riddle of My Want the stride of your eyes a summering of skin to the unusual elegy Three Photographs Not of My Father to the mysteries embodied in Where Are My Swans All movement in their dreams is theirs that glide without haste for what core of the universe has to hurry Swan What Shores marks the blossoming of a major poetic talent The Alphabet of Desire Barbara Hamby, 1999-05. In this book of poetry Barbara Hamby races through the circuitous regions of heaven and hell desire and love trailing words ahead of and behind her giving shape and significance to the strange and the familiar Not limited to the self referential Hamby playfully references historic and literary personae taking stabs at Shakespeare Jane Austen the Bible and Casanova Fiction
