Marvin D. Cone : Art as Self-portrait Joseph S. Czestochowski, Cedar Rapids Art Association, Marvin Dorwart Cone, 1989

Marvin D. Cone and Grant Wood Joseph S. Czestochowski, 1989      Marvin D. Cone Joseph S. Czestochowski, Marvin Dorwart Cone, 1985      America After the Fall Sarah L. Burns, Teresa A. Carbone, Annelise K. Madsen, Sarah Kelly Oehler, 2016-01-01 A unique look at America's quest to carve out an artistic identity during the Depression era Through 50 masterpieces of painting this fascinating catalogue chronicles the turbulent economic political and aesthetic climate of the 1930s This decade was a supremely creative period in the United States as the nation's artists novelists and critics struggled through the Great Depression seeking to define modern American art In the process many painters challenged and reworked the meanings and forms of modernism reaching no simple consensus This period was also marked by an astounding diversity of work as artists sought styles ranging from abstraction to Regionalism to Surrealism that allowed them to engage with issues such as populism labor social protest and to employ an urban and rural iconography including machines factories and farms Seminal works by Edward Hopper Grant Wood Thomas Hart Benton Georgia O'Keeffe Aaron Douglas Charles Sheeler Stuart Davis and others show such attempts to capture the American character These groundbreaking paintings highlighting the relationship between art and national experience demonstrate how creativity experimentation and revolutionary vision flourished during a time of great uncertainty      Annals of Iowa ,1993      Georgia O'Keeffe Visions of the Sublime Marjorie P. Balge-Crozier, 2004 Even in her earliest works Georgia O'Keeffe was a visionary who intuitively created her own definitions of the sublime enhanced the perception of its visual symbols and provided new ways to view the surrounding environment and explore one's inner self Over the past two centuries the concept of the sublime has been substantially redefined by a small number of artists writers and critics For O'Keeffe already imbued with the spiritual and transcendental the sublime was not a theoretical concept it was manifest in her everyday worldly experiences Although most of O'Keeffe's works are landscapes the sublime for her was not necessarily associated with a physical location As only few others have O'Keeffe demonstrated an intuitive association with all that can be considered sublime and in her remarkable journey with color line light and form from the abstract to the representational she pursued a spiritual quest that has dramatically refined the visual qualities of the sublime      American Printmakers of the Twentieth Century Donald E. Smith, 2004      The Unforgettables Charles C. Eldredge, 2022-11 In the past histories of American art have traditionally highlighted the work of a familiar roster of artists often white and male Over time the achievements of others worthy of attention including numerous women and artists of color as well as white men have gone uncelebrated and fallen into obscurity In this collection of essays sixty three scholars from various institutions specialties and locales respond to the challenge to nominate one maker deserving remembrance and detail the reasons for their choice The collection is headed by a preface from editor Charles C Eldredge explaining the genesis of the anthology and an introduction by Dr Kirsten Pai Buick promoting the value of

recovered reputations and oeuvres in the training of future art experts and audiences      Illusionen Von Eden Robert Stearns, 2000      World Collectors Annuary ,1991      Who's Who in American Art, 1991-1992 Bowker Editorial Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, 1990      Who's who in Polish America ,1996      Who's who in American Art ,1993-12      Grant Wood's Studio Jane Milosch, 2005 Examines American Gothic painter Grant Wood s period in Cedar Rapids Iowa describing his studio residence and discussing his body of work including not only his paintings drawings and prints but his work in wood metal and interior design      Iowa Artists of the First Hundred Years ,1939      Who's who in American Art 1995 - 96 21st Ed Reed Reference Publishing, 1995 Biografisch woordenboek waarin een overzicht wordt gegeven van kunstenaars uit de Verenigde Staten van Amerika Canada en Mexico      Who's who in American Arts 1993-94 ,1993
