The Routledge Handbook of Victorian Scandals in Literature and Culture Brenda Ayres, Sarah E. Maier, 2022-12-01 The Routledge Handbook of Victorian Scandals in Literature and Culture exposes explores and examines what Victorians once considered flagrant breaches of decorum. Infringements that were fantasized through artforms or were actually committed exceeded entertaining parlor gossip once in print they were condemned as socially contaminative but were also consumed as delightfully sensational. Written by scholars in diverse disciplines this volume demonstrates that spreading scandals seemed to have been one of the most entertaining sources of activities but were also normative efforts made by the Victorians to ensure conformity of decorum. Provides a broad spectrum of infractions that were considered scandalous to the Victorians. Identifies Victorian transgressions that made the news and that may still shock modern readers. Covers a gamut of moral infractions and transgressions either practiced rumored or fantasized in art forms. This handbook is an invaluable resource about Victorian literature art and culture which challenges its readers to ponder perplexing questions about how and why some scandals were perpetrated and propagated in the nineteenth century while others were not and what the controversies reveal about the human condition that persists beyond Victoria's reign of propriety.

Desire and Time in Modern English Fiction: 1919-2017 Richard Dellamora, 2020-08-04 Beginning with Somerset Maugham's innovative sexually dissident South Seas novel and tales and Alfred Hitchcock's gay inflected revisiting of the Jack the Ripper sensation in silent film this book considers the continuing presence of the past in future oriented work of the 1930s and the Second World War by Sylvia Townsend Warner Virginia Woolf George Orwell and the playwright and novelist Patrick Hamilton. The final three chapters carry the discussion to the present in analyses of works by lesbian postcolonial and gay authors such as Sarah Waters Amitav Ghosh and Alan Hollinghurst. Focusing on questions about temporality and changes in gender and sexuality especially gay and lesbian straight and queer following the rejection of the Victorian patriarchal marriage model this study examines the continuing influence of late Victorian Aestheticist and Decadent culture in Modernist writing and its permutations in England.

The Fiction of Emyr Humphreys Linden Peach, 2011-01-15 For over half a century Emyr

Humphreys's work as a novelist, short story writer, poet, dramatist, and television producer has been extraordinarily impressive. This pioneering and stimulating book considers Humphreys's fiction from a range of contemporary critical perspectives and stresses its relevance to the 21st century. Drawing on the work of leading modern cultural and literary theorists such as Jacques Derrida and Homi Bhabha, psychoanalytic critics such as Melanie Klein and Jacqueline Rose, and gender theorists such as Judith Butler, Linden Peach brings fresh perspectives to the content, structure, and developing nature of Humphreys's work, employing for example historicist, post-historicist, new geography, psychoanalytic, and feminist and postfeminist frameworks. Through detailed readings which highlight subjects such as gender identity, contested masculinities, war, pacifism, strangeness, and otherness, problematic father and daughter relationships, and cultural discourse in complex linguistic environments, Peach suggests that Humphreys's work is best understood as dramatic dissident and/or dilemma fiction, rather than by the term 'Protestant novelist' which Humphreys used to describe himself at the outset of his career. Stressing how Humphreys came to see himself as more of a protesting novelist, Peach examines how the dilemmas around which his fiction is based originally linked to Humphreys's definition of himself as a protestant writer increasingly become sites in which controversial and often dark themes are explored. This approach to Humphreys's work is pursued through exciting readings of some of Humphreys's best and lesser-known works, including A Man's Estate, A Toy Epic, Outside the House of Baal, The Best of Friends, Salt of the Earth, Unconditional Surrender, The Gift of a Daughter, Natives, Ghosts and Strangers, Old people are a Problem, The Shop, and The Woman at the Window.

The Dematerialisation of Karl Marx Leonard Jackson, 2014-07-22 This volume constitutes both an attack on modern left-wing literary theory, the main product of the last Marxist renaissance in the past thirty years, and a defence of the one element of Marxism which in the general collapse modern theorists have been happiest to lose: its economic materialism. It traces Marxist theory from its beginnings in Hegelian idealism to its end in Althusser's structuralism and concludes that while Marxist economics will not work and the type of revolution prophesied was fantasy, the principle of historical materialism remains intact and defensible. This will be a key text in literary and cultural studies as well as being of interest to students on philosophy and sociology courses.

Marx for Our Times Daniel Bensaïd, 2020-05-05 The end of Soviet Socialism signalled to some observers that the ghost of Marx had finally been laid to rest. But history's refusal to grind to a halt and the global credit crisis that began in 2008 have rekindled interest in capitalism's most persistent critic. Written during the mid-nineties, a period of Western complacency and neo-liberal reaction, Marx for Our Times is a critical reading of dialectical materialism as a method of resistance. Without denying the contradictory character of Marx's thought and with a sensitivity to the plurality of theories, it has inspired Daniel Bensaïd to set out to discover what in Marx remains dynamic and relevant in our era of accelerating economic change Marx's theory emerges not as a doctrinal system but as an intellectual tool of social struggle and global transformation in a world where capital continues to dominate social relations

The Red Flag David Priestland, 2016-05-03 The best and the most accessible one volume history of communism now available A far reaching vividly written account Foreign Affairs In The Red Flag Oxford professor David Priestland tells the epic story of a movement that has taken root in dozens of countries across two hundred years from its birth after the French Revolution to its ideological maturity in nineteenth century Germany to its rise to dominance and subsequent fall in the twentieth century Beginning with the first modern Communists in the age of Robespierre Priestland examines the motives of thinkers and leaders including Marx Engels Lenin Stalin Castro Che Guevara Mao Ho Chi Minh Gorbachev and many others Priestland also shows how Communism in all its varieties appealed to different societies for different reasons in some as a response to inequalities and in others more out of a desire to catch up with the West But paradoxically while destroying one web of inequality Communist leaders were simultaneously weaving another It was this dynamic together with widespread economic failure and an escalating loss of faith in the system that ultimately destroyed Soviet Communism itself At a time when global capitalism is in crisis and powerful new political forces have arisen to confront Western democracy The Red Flag is essential reading if we are to apply the lessons of the past to navigating the future Detailed and scholarly but written in lively prose this is a rich satisfying account of the most successful utopian political movement in history Publishers Weekly starred review
