Marx Economist Philosopher Jew Steps In The Development Of A Doctrine:

Marx Murray Wolfson,1982      German Question/Jewish Question Paul Lawrence Rose,2014-07-14 In this compelling narrative of antisemitism in German thought Paul Rose proposes a fresh view of the topic Beginning with an examination of the attitudes of Martin Luther he challenges distinctions between theologically derived medieval and secular racial modern antisemitism arguing that there is an unbroken chain of antisemitic feeling between the two periods Originally published in 1990 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905      Karl Marx's Social and Political Thought Bob Jessop,Charlie

Malcolm-Brown,1999      Karl Marx Allan Megill,2001-12-11 Why did Karl Marx want to exclude politics and the market from his vision of a future socialism In Karl Marx The Burden of Reason Allan Megill begins with this question Megill's examination of Marx's formative writings casts new light on Marx's relation to philosophy and reveals a hitherto largely unknown rationalist Marx In demonstrating how Marx's rationalism permeated his attempts to understand politics economics and history generally Megill forces the reader to rethink Marx's entire intellectual project While Megill writes as an intellectual historian and historian of philosophy his highly original redescription of the Marxian enterprise has important implications for how we think about the usability of Marx's work today Karl Marx The Burden of Reason will be of interest to those who wish to reflect on the fate of Marxism during the era of Soviet Communism It will also be of interest to those who wish to discern what is living and what is dead what is adequate and what requires replacement or supplementation in the work of a figure who in spite of everything remains one of the greatest philosophers and social scientists of the modern world

The Jewish Question Enzo Traverso,2018-10-16 In The Jewish Question History of a Marxist Debate Enzo Traverso explores the causes and the forms of the encounter that took place from the middle of the nineteenth century to the Holocaust between the intelligentsia of a cosmopolitan minority and the most radical ideological current of Western modernity From Karl Marx to the Frankfurt School the Jewish Question to a set of problems related to emancipation and anti-Semitism cultural assimilation and Zionism raised significant controversies within Marxist theory Enzo Traverso carefully reconstructs this intellectual debate that runs over more than a century pointing out both its achievements and its blind alleys This is the second edition completely rewritten and updated of a book already translated into many languages originally published in French then translated into English German Spanish Japanese and Turkish      Modernity and Ambivalence Zygmunt Bauman,2013-05-08 Modern civilization Bauman argues promised to make our lives understandable and open to our control This has not happened and today we no longer believe it ever will In this book now available in paperback Bauman argues that our postmodern age is the time for reconciliation with ambivalence we must learn how to live in an incurably ambiguous world

The Rhetoric of Cultural Dialogue Jeffrey S. Librett, 2000 In this groundbreaking work the author effects the first extended rhetorical philosophical reading of the historically problematic relationship between Jews and Germans based on an analysis of texts from the Enlightenment through Modernism by Moses Mendelssohn Friedrich and Dorothea Schlegel Karl Marx Richard Wagner Friedrich Nietzsche and Sigmund Freud The theoretical underpinning of the work lies in the author's rereading in terms of contemporary rhetorical theory of the medieval tradition known as figural representation which defines the Jewish Christian relation as that between the dead prefigural letter and the living fulfilled spirit After arguing that the German Enlightenment ultimately plays out the historical phantasm of a necessary Judaization of Protestant rationality the author shows that German Early Romanticism consists fundamentally in the attempt to solve the aporias raised by this impossible confrontation between Protestant spirit and Jewish letter In readings of Dorothea Schlegel Mendelssohn's daughter and her husband Friedrich Schlegel the author provides a new interpretation of the Neo Catholic turn of later German Romanticism Further he situates the proleptic end and reversal of the project of Jewish emancipation in the two extreme versions of late nineteenth century anti Judaism those of Marx and Wagner here viewed as binary concretizations of a specifically post Romantic paganized Protestantism Finally the author argues that twentieth century Modernism as represented by Nietzsche and Freud renews if in a multiply ironic displacement the secret Judaizing tendencies of the Enlightenment Fascism and Communism both denigrate this Modernism which affirms the letter of language as quasi synonymous with the force of temporality or anticipatory repetition that disrupts all claims to the full presence of spirit The book ends with a note on recent debates about Holocaust memory

Race and Racism in Modern Philosophy Andrew Valls, 2005 An innovative substantial intervention in critical race theory this book brings together an impressive roster of thinkers to trace the question of race in modern philosophical inquiry and explore its influence on contemporary philosophy

Marc Blitzstein Howard Pollack, 2012-10-01 A composer and lyricist of enormous innovation and influence Marc Blitzstein remains one of the most versatile and fascinating figures in the history of American music his creative output running the gamut from films scores and Broadway operas to art songs and chamber pieces A prominent leftist and social maverick Blitzstein constantly pushed the boundaries of convention in mid century America in both his work and his life Award winning music historian Howard Pollack's new biography covers Blitzstein's life in full from his childhood in Philadelphia to his violent death in Martinique at age 58 The author describes how this student of contemporary luminaries Nadia Boulanger and Arnold Schoenberg became swept up in the stormy political atmosphere of the 1920s and 1930s and throughout his career walked the fine line between his formal training and his populist principles Indeed Blitzstein developed a unique sound that drew on everything contemporary from the high modernism of Stravinsky and Hindemith to jazz and Broadway show tunes Pollack captures the astonishing breadth of Blitzstein's work from provocative operas like The

Cradle Will Rock No for an Answer and Regina to the wartime Airborne Symphony composed during his years in service to lesser known ballets film scores and stage works A courageous artist Blitzstein translated Bertolt Brecht and Kurt Weill's The Threepenny Opera during the heyday of McCarthyism and the red scare and turned it into an off Broadway sensation its Mack the Knife becoming one of the era's biggest hits Beautifully written drawing on new interviews with friends and family of the composer and making extensive use of new archival and secondary sources Marc Blitzstein presents the most complete biography of this important American artist

The Marxists and the Jewish Question Enzo Traverso, 1994 The relationship of Marxism to the Jewish Question is far more complex than many have assumed Despite the Jewish backgrounds of several Marxists including Marx himself many showed a sense of indifference toward a sense of Jewishness Yet an increasingly virulent anti-Semitism affecting sections of the working class and culminating in the Holocaust and in the growing strength of Zionism became a problem that numerous Marxist thinkers were compelled to consider In addition to examining the works of Marx Karl Kautsky Leon Trotsky Ber Borokhov Abram Leon and figures associated with the Frankfurt School Traverso also investigates the actual policies in the socialist and communist movements and sensitively explores the unique history of the Jewish workers movement in various countries

Criticism of Earth Roland Boer, 2012-06-08 Criticism of Earth thoroughly reassesses Marx and Engels's engagement with theology drawing on largely ignored texts Thus alongside opium of the people Hegel's philosophy of law and the Feuerbach theses other works are also central These include Marx's early pieces on theology continual transformations of fetishism and lengthy treatments of Bruno Bauer and Max Stirner Engels too is given serious attention since he moved beyond Marx in appreciating theology's revolutionary possibilities Engels's Calvinism is discussed his treatments of biblical criticism and theology and his later writings on early Christianity's revolutionary nature The book continues the project for a renewed and enlivened interaction between Marxism and religion being the fourth of five volumes in the Criticism of Heaven and Earth series
