Marxism And Totality The Adventures Of A Concept From Lukacs To Habermas:

Marxism and Totality Martin Jay, 1984 Totality has been an abiding concern from the first generation of Western Marxists most notably Lukacs, Korsch, Gramsci and Bloch through the second exemplified by the Frankfurt School, Lefebvre, Goldmann, Sartre, Merleau-Ponty and Della Volpe up to the most recent typified by Althusser, Colletti and Habermas. Yet no consensus has been reached concerning the term's multiple meanings: expressive, decentered, longitudinal, latitudinal, normative or its implications for other theoretical and practical matters. By closely following the adventures of this troublesome but central concept, Marxism and Totality offers an unconventional account of the history of Western Marxism.

Marxism and Totality Martin Jay, 1984-01-01 Marxism and Totality Martin Jay, 1984-01-01 The Routledge Companion to Marxisms in Art History Tijen Tunali, Brian Winkenweder, 2025-03-31 This companion is an essential contribution to the study of historical materialism in general and the social history of art in particular. Each chapter in the collection focuses on a key figure, concept or historical epoch. Increasingly, scholars adopt an array of Marxist methods intertwined with a host of other theoretical practices, particularly the historiography of key issues regarding hegemony, ideology and identity. Ideological issues of connoisseurship, patronage and analyses of the artwork as a form of labor and leisure are essential to the practice of Marxisms in art history. This collection spotlights a plurality of Marxian theories in which the ideas of such figures as Walter Benjamin, Guy Debord and T. J. Clark are debated and developed through analyses of the socio-historical conditions that impact how art is produced, circulated and received. This ultimately underscores that the historical contextualization of artworks and their markets within a class-based society is crucial for writing socially engaged art history. This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, visual studies, visual sociology, communication studies and the sociology of art.

Marxist Humanism and Communication Theory Christian Fuchs, 2021-03-16 This book outlines and contributes to the foundations of Marxist humanist communication theory. It analyses the role of communication in capitalist society. Engaging with the works of critical thinkers such as Erich Fromm, E. P. Thompson, Raymond Williams, Henri Lefebvre, Georg Lukacs, Lucien Goldmann, Günther Anders, M. N. Roy, Angela Davis, C. L. R. James, Rosa Luxemburg, Eve Mitchell and Cedric J. Robinson, the book provides readings of works that inform our understanding of how to critically theorise communication in society. The topics covered include the relationship of capitalism, racism and patriarchy; communication and alienation; the base-superstructure problem; the question of how one should best define communication; the political economy of communication; ideology critique; the connection of communication and struggles for alternatives. Written for a broad audience of students and scholars interested in contemporary critical theory, this book will be useful for courses in media and communication studies, cultural studies, Internet research, sociology, philosophy, political science and economics. This is the first of five Communication and Society volumes, each one outlining a particular aspect of the foundations of a critical theory of communication in society.

The Palgrave Handbook of Critical Theory Michael J.

Thompson, 2017-01-20 This handbook is the only major survey of critical theory from philosophical political sociological psychological and historical vantage points It emphasizes not only on the historical and philosophical roots of critical theory but also its current themes and trends as well as future applications and directions It addresses specific areas of interest that have forged the critical theory tradition such as critical social psychology aesthetics and the critique of culture communicative action and the critique of instrumental reason It is intended for those interested in exploring the influential paradigm of critical theory from multiple interdisciplinary perspectives and understanding its contribution to the humanities and the social sciences The Cambridge History of Modern European Thought: Volume 2, The Twentieth Century Warren Breckman, Peter E. Gordon, 2019-08-29 An authoritative and comprehensive survey of the major themes thinkers and movements in modern European intellectual history The Cambridge History of Modern European Thought: Volume 2, The Twentieth Century Peter E. Gordon, Warren Breckman, 2019-08-29 The Cambridge History of Modern European Thought is an authoritative and comprehensive exploration of the themes thinkers and movements that shaped our intellectual world in the late eighteenth and nineteenth century Representing both individual figures and the contexts within which they developed their ideas each essay is written in a clear accessible style by leading scholars in the field and offers both originality and interpretive insight This second volume surveys twentieth century European intellectual history conceived as a crisis in modernity Comprised of twenty one chapters it focuses on figures such as Freud Heidegger Adorno and Arendt surveys major schools of thought including Phenomenology Existentialism and Conservatism and discusses critical movements such as Postcolonialism Structuralism and Post structuralism Renouncing a single master narrative of European thought across the period Peter E Gordon and Warren Breckman establish a formidable new multi faceted vision of European intellectual history for the global modern age Shakespeare's Universal Wolf Hugh Grady, 1996 Shakespeare was neither a Royalist defender of order and hierarchy nor a consistently radical champion of social equality but rather simultaneously radical and conservative as a critic of emerging forms of modernity Hugh Grady argues that Shakespeare's social criticism in fact often parallels that of critics of modernity from our own Postmodernist era that the broad analysis of modernity produced by Marx Horkheimer and Adorno Foucault and others can serve as a productive enabling representation and critique of the emerging modernity represented by the image in Troilus and Cressida of an universal wolf of appetite power and will The readings of Troilus and Cressida Othello King Lear and As You Like It in Shakespeare's Universal Wolf demonstrate Shakespeare's keen interest in what twentieth century theory has called reification a term which designates social systems created by human societies but which confronts those societies as operating beyond human control according to an autonomous systems logic in nascent mercantile capitalism in power oriented Machiavellian politics and in the scientific value free rationality which Horkheimer and Adorno call instrumental reason The Constitution of Society Anthony Giddens, 1984 Anthony Giddens has been in the forefront of developments in social theory for the past decade In The Constitution of Society he outlines the distinctive position he has evolved during that period and offers a full statement of a major new perspective in social thought a synthesis and elaboration of ideas touched on in previous works but described here for the first time in an integrated and comprehensive form A particular feature is Giddens s concern to connect abstract problems of theory to an interpretation of the nature of empirical method in the social sciences In presenting his own ideas Giddens mounts a critical attack on some of the more orthodox sociological views The Constitution of Society is an invaluable reference book for all those concerned with the basic issues in contemporary social theory Happiness or Its Absence in Art William Barcham,Ronit Milano,2014-10-02

The concept of happiness is central to most civilized cultures This volume investigates the many ways in which Western art has visualized the concept from the early Middle Ages to the present Employing different methodological approaches the essays gathered here situate the concept of human happiness within discourses on gender religion intellectual life politics and New Age culture Operating as a cultural agent art communicates the idea of happiness as both a physical and spiritual condition by exploiting specific formulae of representation This volume combines art history cultural analyses and intellectual studies in order to explore the complexities of iconographic programs that represent various forms of happiness or its explicit absence and to expose the implications embedded in the artistic works in question Through innovative readings the ten authors presented in this book survey different artistic and or cultural paradigms and offer new interpretations of happiness or of its absence Concepts of Cabralism Reiland

Rabaka,2014-07-16 By examining Amilcar Cabral s theories and praxes as well as several of the antecedents and major influences on the evolution of his radical politics and critical social theory Concepts of Cabralism Amilcar Cabral and Africana Critical Theory simultaneously reintroduces chronicles and analyzes several of the core characteristics of the Africana tradition of critical theory Reiland Rabaka s primary preoccupation is with Cabral s theoretical and political legacies that is to say with the ways in which he constructed deconstructed and reconstructed theory and the aims objectives and concrete outcomes of his theoretical applications and discursive practices The book begins with the Negritude Movement and specifically the work of L opold Senghor Aim C saire and Jean Paul Sartre Next it shifts the focus to Frantz Fanon s discourse on radical disalienation and revolutionary decolonization Finally it offers an extended engagement of Cabral s critical theory and contributions to the Africana tradition of critical theory Ultimately Concepts of Cabralism chronicles and critiques revisits and revises the black radical tradition with an eye toward the ways in which classical black radicalism informs or should inform not only contemporary black radicalism African nationalism and Pan Africanism but also contemporary efforts to create a new anti racist anti sexist anti capitalist anti colonialist and anti imperialist critical theory of contemporary society what has come to be called Africana critical theory Social Democracy in the Making Gary Dorrien,2019-04-23

An expansive and ambitious intellectual history of democratic socialism from one of the world s leading intellectual historians and social ethicists The fallout from twenty years of neoliberal economic globalism has sparked a surge of interest in the old idea of democratic socialism a democracy in which the people control the economy and government no group dominates any other and every citizen is free equal and included With a focus on the intertwined legacies of Christian socialism and Social Democratic politics in Britain and Germany this book traces the story of democratic socialism from its birth in the nineteenth century through the mid 1960s Examining the tenets on which the movement was founded and how it adapted to different cultural religious and economic contexts from its beginnings through the social and political traumas of the twentieth century Gary Dorrien reminds us that Christian socialism paved the way for all liberation theologies that make the struggles of oppressed peoples the subject of redemption He argues for a decentralized economic democracy and anti imperial internationalism

Georg Lukacs Reconsidered Michael Thompson, 2011-04-07 An international team of contributors explore contemporary insights into the work of Georg Lukacs in political theory aesthetics ethics and social and cultural theory Marxism and the City Ira Katznelson, 1992 In this work Katznelson critically analyzes the development of Marxist scholarship on cities in the last quarter century He demonstrates how some of the most important weaknesses in Marxism as a social theory can be remedied by forcing it to seriously engage with cities and spatial concerns and explains the significant shortcomings even of this improved Marxism Katznelson explores how a Marxism that is open to engagement with other social theoretical traditions can help illuminate our understanding of cities and the patterns of class and group formation that have characterized urban life in the West Walter Benjamin and the Critique of Political Economy Duy Lap

Nguyen, 2022-07-14 Exploring the connections between Walter Benjamin s philosophy of history and a Marxian Critique of Political Economy Duy Lap Nguyen analyses Benjamin s early writings and their development into a distinct understanding of historical materialism Benjamin s historically materialist conception of history is shown to be characterised by a focus on the religion of capitalism the mythology of the state and messianic time Revealing these factors Nguyen joins up Benjamin s philosophical critique of the Kantian conception of history alongside the historical trajectory of capitalism he subscribed to Influenced by the theory of fascism outlined by German Marxist theorist Karl Korsch we see how Benjamin s own theory of revolution and redemption in capitalist society developed into a sophisticated critique Essential to Benjamin s materialist critique was a recognition of the fallibility of the Enlightenment notion of progress as well as the need to overturn the political and economic catastrophes which enable capitalism and fascism to thrive In mapping the exact course of Benjamin s critical historical materialism Nguyen fully explicates the unique contribution he made to western Marxism A Divided

Republic Emile Chabal, 2015-04-02 This book is an original and sophisticated historical interpretation of contemporary French political culture Until now there have been few attempts to understand the political consequences of the profound geopolitical intellectual and economic changes that France has undergone since the 1970s However Emile Chabal s detailed study shows how passionate debates over citizenship immigration colonial memory the reform of the state and the historiography of modern France have galvanised the French elite and created new spaces for discussion and disagreement

Many of these debates have coalesced around two political languages republicanism and liberalism both of which structure the historical imagination and the symbolic vocabulary of French political actors The tension between these two political languages has become the central battleground of contemporary French politics It is around these two poles that politicians intellectuals and members of France's vast civil society have tried to negotiate the formidable challenges of ideological uncertainty and a renewed sense of global insecurity

The Neo-primitivist Turn Victor Li, 2006-01-01 In recent years the concept of the primitive has been the subject of strong criticism it has been examined unpacked and shown to signify little more than a construction or projection necessary for establishing the modernity of the West The term primitive continues however to appear in contemporary critical and cultural discourse begging the question Why does primitivism keep reappearing even after it has been uncovered as a modern myth In The Neo primitivist Turn Victor Li argues that this contentious term was never completely banished and that it has in fact reappeared under new theoretical guises An idealized conception of the primitive he contends has come to function as the ultimate sign of alterity Li focuses on the works of theorists like Jean Baudrillard Jean Fran ois Lyotard Marianna Torgovnick Marshall Sahlins and J rgen Habermas in order to demonstrate that primitivism continues to be a powerful presence even in those works normally regarded as critical of the concept Providing close readings of the ways in which the premodern or primitive is strategically deployed in contemporary critical writings Li's interdisciplinary study is a timely and forceful intervention into current debates on the politics and ethics of otherness the problems of cultural relativism and the vicissitudes of modernity

Reconciliation and Reification Todd Hedrick, 2019 This book defends Hegel's concept of reconciliation as the best understanding of human beings emancipatory interest and presents reification as a systematic blockage to its realization Drawing upon psychoanalysis and legal theory it explores the extent to which recent theories Rawls Honneth Habermas succeed in spelling out how society could be organized in such a way that reconciliation between individual and society could be realized on something approaching a universal basis

Genesis and Validity Martin Jay, 2021-11-12 There is no more contentious and perennial issue in the history of modern Western thought than the vexed relationship between the genesis of an idea and its claim to validity beyond it Can ideas or values transcend their temporal origins and overcome the sin of their original context and in so doing earn abiding respect for their intrinsic merit Or do they inevitably reflect them in ways that undermine their universal aspirations Are discrete contexts so incommensurable and unique that the smooth passage of ideas from one to the other is impossible Are we always trapped by the limits of our own cultural standpoints and partial perspectives or can we somehow escape their constraints and enter into a fruitful dialogue with others These persistent questions are at the heart of the discipline known as intellectual history which deals not only with ideas but also with the men and women who generate disseminate and criticize them The essays in this collection by one of the most recognized figures in the field address them through engagement with leading intellectual historians Hans Blumenberg Quentin Skinner Hayden White Isaiah Berlin

Frank Ankersmit as well other giants of modern thought Max Weber Emile Durkheim Georg Simmel Walter Benjamin Theodor Adorno and Georg Lukács They touch on a wide variety of related topics ranging from the heroism of modern life to the ability of photographs to lie In addition they explore the fraught connections between philosophy and theory the truth of history and the truthfulness of historians and the weaponization of free speech for other purposes
