Marxism The Megalopolis

Jean E. Howard, Scott Cutler Shershow

Marxism The Megalopolis:

Marxism and the Metropolis William K. Tabb, Larry Sawers, 1978 The Urban Sublime in American Literary Naturalism Christophe Den Tandt, 1998 In this dynamic reappraisal of American literary naturalism Christophe Den Tandt connects late nineteenth century fiction to its romantic urban gothic roots and to recent discussions of the sublime in postmodern theory Den Tandt focuses on aspects of naturalist novels their use of hyperbole and hysteria of the grotesque and the abject of uncanniness and mesmerism that have often been left in the periphery of naturalist discourse He argues that realistic strategies of literary representation can never succeed in depicting the urban environment since the logic of the city rests on a network of hidden relations Naturalist texts try to resolve this dilemma by opposing sublime components and realistic documentary elements Varieties of Marxism Shlomo Avineri, 2012-12-06 The essays included in this volume are based on papers delivered at the International Symposium on Varieties of Marxism held at the Van Leer Jerusalem Foundation on June 16 19 1974 and dedicated to the memory of George Lichtheim When the idea of such a symposium was first raised the organizers planned to have George Lichtheim as one of the main speakers at the event In our last and brief meeting in London I suggested this to him and Lichtheim gave his consent to attend the symposium though at that time no date was yet fixed His tragic death a few months later left a gap not only in the program of the symposium but in Marxist studies generally it was felt that perhaps one way of paying tribute to his contribution to the study of a subject so near to his mind would be to name the symposium in his memory and devote an introductory paper to an attempt at an intellectual portrait of George Lichtheim as an historian of ideas The volume as published includes all papers delivered at the symposium with the exception of the papers of J L Talmon Jerusalem on Marxism and Nationalism and Gajo Petrovic Zagreb on Yugoslav Marxism Appended is also a short obituary written by me on Lichtheim for the journal Political Science published by the American Political Science Association The New Blackwell Companion to The City Gary Bridge, Sophie Watson, 2011-02-23 This book considers the state of the city and contemporary urbanisation from a range of intellectual and international perspectives The most interdisciplinary collection of its kind Provides a contemporary update on urban thinking that builds on well established debates in the field Uses the city to explore economic social cultural environmental and political issues more broadly Includes contributions from non Western perspectives and cities The Politics of the Encounter Andy Merrifield, 2013-04-15 The Politics of the Encounter is a spirited interrogation of the city as a site of both theoretical inquiry and global social struggle The city writes Andy Merrifield remains important virtually and materially for progressive politics And yet he notes more than forty years have passed since Henri Lefebvre advanced the powerful ideas that still undergird much of our thinking about urbanization and urban society Merrifield rethinks the city in light of the vast changes to our planet since 1970 when Lefebvre's seminal Urban Revolution was first published At the same time he expands on Lefebvre's notion of the right to the city which was first conceived in the wake of the 1968 student uprising in Paris We need to think less of cities as entities with borders and clear demarcations between what's inside and what's outside and emphasize instead the effects of planetary urbanization a concept of Lefebvre's that Merrifield makes relevant for the ways we now experience the urban The city from Tahrir Square to Occupy Wall Street seems to be the critical zone in which a new social protest is unfolding yet dissenters' aspirations are transcending the scale of the city physically and philosophically Consequently we must shift our perspective from the right to the city to the politics of the encounter says Merrifield We must ask how revolutionary crowds form where they draw their energies from what kind of spaces they occur in and what kind of new spaces they produce

This book sheds a radical light on the issue of race showing that social and racist discourses are ideological and political mystifications masking exploitation It deals with substantive issues that have the potential to enhance our understanding how Marxist theory can be quite useful in interpreting the race paradigm

Communism After Deleuze Alex Taek-Gwang Lee, 2025-01-23 This new reading of Gilles Deleuze forges a link between his early and later works by decoding his hidden agenda for communism Encoded in the idea of the Third World Deleuze used his concept of communism as a bulwark against fascist politics and the liberal political economy Inspired by May 68 and its aftermath these concealed interpretations of Marx are now tacitly forgotten but can unlock a deeper understanding of Deleuze's political project Often regarded as an apolitical philosopher the challenges that Deleuze mounted to structuralism are easy to overlook By reinvigorating the communist aspect of his political project and linking his ideas to Alain Badiou Jacques Rancière and Slavoj Žižek Alex Taek Gwang Lee reveals Deleuze's objective to rescue Marxism from the dogmatic status quo and revive its political agendas This major undertaking situates his ideas alongside and sets out a new framework for reading the significance of Marxist thought in postwar France Ultimately this new understanding of Deleuze's critique of global capitalism opens up his vision of materialistic politics as a means of shaping the people and the proletariat of the future

Problems of Communism, 1986 Teaching Marx & Critical Theory in the 21st Century, 2019-07-22 In response to this current political and economic climate Teaching Marx Critical Theory in the 21st Century defends the importance and difficulties of teaching Marx and critical theory and the crucial insights of critical pedagogy through variously original and republished chapters which each in their own ways reflect on ways to teach and reach twenty first century students This volume presents unique perspectives on teaching Marx and critical theory in various contexts sub fields and geographies and underscores the need for students of the modern world to be versed in Marxist thought and for pedagogues to push the limits of critical pedagogical strategies in the classroom and beyond Contributors include Allan Ardill Mary Caputi Mauro Caraccioli Zachary Casey Ronald Cox Kevin Funk Maylin M Hernandez Douglas Kellner Jason Morrisette Sebastian Sclofsky Bryant William Sculos Sean Walsh
