poststructuralist pedagogical practices the author focuses on diagnosing the fault lines of composition s refusal of poststructuralism rather than on providing solutions in the form of teaching templates Upsetting Composition Commonplaces addresses the need to more effectively engage in poststructuralist concepts in composition in an accessible and engaging voice that will advance the conversation about relations between the theory and teaching of writing in College Louis Newman, 2023-03-07 Finally a college prep book that actually prepares students for college Almost all first year college students discover that college courses are more academically challenging than they expected and certainly harder than classes in high school Professors expect students not just to absorb material but to analyze and synthesize it consider multiple perspectives evaluate conflicting evidence and then apply what they ve learned in new contexts Thinking Critically in College explains how to do all this and more Louis E Newman draws on decades of experience as a professor at Carleton College and Dean of Academic Advising and Associate Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education at Stanford offering the guidance you need to succeed both in college and in life post graduation Unique among college prep books Thinking Critically in College builds on the latest research in learning spells out the key critical thinking skills you need shows you how to tackle actual college assignments and provides exercises throughout to reinforce the lessons Written in a personal engaging style Thinking Critically in College explains how to do the work your professors will require exactly the preparation you need no matter what your academic background Practical accessible comprehensive and interactive Thinking Critically in College is the definitive guide not only for those in college or headed there but for everyone who needs Donald Trump in Historical Perspective Michael Harvey, 2022-04-11 Donald Trump in a refresher on thinking clearly Historical Perspective Dead Precedents is a collection of chapters that utilizes the thinking of historians philosophers and political scientists to explore historical parallels to the presidency of Donald J Trump the 45th President of the United States of America This collection provides an extensive analysis on the ways Trump's impulsiveness breaking of norms and disregard for longstanding democratic pieties caused him to represent a definitive end to the American century an era when American self confidence steadiness and leadership even in the face of titanic challenges were almost universally taken for granted Yet this book also argues how in the longer sweep of history Trump is a familiar figure in the turbulent life of democracies These in depth chapters reveal the ways Trump represents the anti institutionalist the populist demagogue the would be authoritarian who exploits electoral and political vulnerabilities to gain and hold power Through these detailed evaluations these chapters suggest that Trump is not radically unique but that democracies have produced many previous versions of the Trump phenomenon This book is essential reading for scholars and students in political science political theory history and leadership This book is also noteworthy for readers interested in key developments in contemporary American democracy One of its greatest appeals is its extensive look into leadership on an international scale from Donald Trump's global significance to various explorations of non American leaders and the comparisons that can be made

Insights into Ethical Theory and Practice Francis Fallon, 2022-02-06 Ethical issues hold great importance for all of us but expert accounts of them are difficult to access for those outside academics This volume bridges that gap by framing a variety of essays within the field in a way that renders them accessible to experts and non experts alike Many collections on ethics re publish classic essays and offer contextualization and analysis while other volumes of emerging innovative work presuppose a background in the field This book uniquely borrows from both approaches offering emerging innovative work carefully curating its order for sense and presenting the work so that non experts may understand it The field of ethics is an eclectic one Where other collections on ethics may intimidate the reader by representing the field as an organized monolith or as impenetrable to outsiders this volume is designed to give readers confidence and enthusiasm in approaching a diverse and lively subject Scholarly Writing Mary Renck Jalongo, Olivia N. Saracho, 2023-11-20 This book on scholarly writing offers a unique evidence based technology supported approach to writing for publication across the disciplines It is suitable both as a graduate level textbook and as support for faculty seeking professional development in scholarly writing It is a seguel to Writing for Publication Transitions and Tools That Support Scholars Success Current issues in Academia such as the expectation that graduate students will publish the option for doctoral students to publish in lieu of writing the dissertation the pressure on scholars from various countries to contribute to professional journals written in English and the metrics used to assess impact of published work have influenced scholarly writing Unlike other books on the topic every chapter includes narratives of experience self assessment tools guided practice activities reviews of research and discussion of controversies in publishing All chapters incorporate curated online resources and technology supports as well Across the spectrum of experience ranging from aspiring author to prolific readers are guided in ways to generate manuscripts that are not only readable and publishable but also downloaded and respectfully cited by their professional peers Resources in Education Generation 1.5 in College Composition Joel Spring, 2008 Literacy in Grades 4-8 Nancy L. their own writing In this book Kelly Boswell shows you how to transform student writers by infusing short bursts of purposeful teacher modeling As students watch an adult writer think talk and write they can develop the skills needed in order to create writing that is both polished and purposeful Tony Stead educator internationally known literacy specialist and author says Finally Not just another book about how to teach writing but one that targets the power of modeled writing What a delight it is to read this professional resource that highlights the importance of this strategy as the cornerstone to successful teaching and learning of the writing process Learning from the Lived Experiences of Graduate Student Writers Shannon Madden, Michele Eodice, Kirsten T. Edwards, Alexandria Lockett, 2020-07-01 Learning from the Lived Experiences of Graduate Student Writers is a timely resource for understanding and resolving some of the issues graduate students face particularly as higher education begins to pay more critical attention to graduate student success Offering diverse approaches for assisting this demographic the book bridges the gap between theory and practice through structured examination of graduate students narratives about their development as writers as well as researched approaches for enabling these students to cultivate their craft The first half of the book showcases the voices of graduate student writers themselves who describe their experiences with graduate school literacy through various social issues like mentorship access writing in communities and belonging in academic programs Their narratives illuminate how systemic issues significantly affect graduate students from historically oppressed groups The second half accompanies these stories with proposed solutions informed by empirical findings that provide evidence for new practices and programming for graduate student writers Learning from the Lived Experiences of Graduate Student Writers values student experience as an integral part of designing approaches that promote epistemic justice This text provides a fresh comprehensive and essential perspective on graduate writing and communication support that will be useful to administrators and faculty across a range of disciplines and institutional contexts Contributors Noro Andriamanalina LaKela Atkinson Daniel V Bommarito Elizabeth Brown Rachael Cayley Amanda E Cuellar Kirsten T Edwards Wonderful Faison Amy Fenstermaker Jennifer Friend Beth Godbee Hope Jackson Karen Keaton Jackson Haadi Jafarian Alexandria Lockett Shannon Madden Kendra L Mitchell Michelle M Paquette Shelley Rodrigo Julia Romberger Lisa Russell Pinson Jennifer Salvo Eaton Richard S v re Cecilia D Shelton Pamela Strong Simmons Jasmine Kar Tang Anna K Willow Trevi o Maurice Wilson Anne Zanzucchi Dynamics of News Reporting and Writing Vincent F.
