The Road to Parnassus: Artist Strategies in Contemporary Art Diego Mantoan, 2020-10-06 How can one become a successful artist Where should one start a career in the art world What are useful strategies to achieve recognition in the art system Such questions hoard in students minds ever since entering art school and they probably chase every kind of art professional who is at an early career stage The Road to Parnassus tries to understand what makes a good start in today s art world who are influential players in the field and which strategies might apply The swift career ascension of Glasgow artist Douglas Gordon one of today s leading visual artists and of the broader YBA generation that rose into worldwide prominence in the 1990s Damien Hirst and Sarah Lucas among the best known serves as a convenient case to analyse contemporary artist strategies This book takes a multidisciplinary approach spanning from traditional art history to sociology and economics pursuing the reconstruction of the field of forces in art as intended by French sociologist Pierre Bourdieu Compared to previous publications on art system dynamics such as Thompson s The 12 Million Stuffed Shark this book offers an enhanced understanding of the factors that allow a young artist to enter the arena of contemporary art The present research should help uncover the art system logic which appears enigmatic to non experts revealing that artists are aware they need to consider global trends beat competitors and meet the demands of dealers collectors curators and museums This book furthers existing contributions on the YBAs for example Stallabrass High Art Lite offering innovative conclusions on recent British art such as on the duality between London and Glasgow the gender opposition among emerging artists and the predominance of resourceful authors High Art Lite Julian Stallabrass,1999 High Art Lite takes a critical look at British art of the 1990s It provides an analysis of the British art scene exploring the reasons for its popularity and examines in detail the work of the leading figures New Spirit, New Sculpture, New Money Richard Cork,2003-01-01 Overzicht van de moderne beeldende kunst in Groot Brittanni in de jaren 80 Biennial Exhibition Whitney Museum of American Art,1991

Hoptman,2002 Published to accompany the exhibition held at the Museum of Modern Art QNS New York 17 October 2002 6 January 2003 Carnegie International 1995 Richard Armstrong,Paola Morsiani,Carnegie Museum of Art,1995 Unpackaging Art of the 1980s Alison Pearlman,2003-06-15 American art of the 1980s is as misunderstood as it is notorious Critics of the time feared that market hype and self promotion threatened the integrity of art They lashed out at contemporary art questioning the validity of particular media and methods and dividing the art into opposing camps While controversies have since subsided critics still view art of the 1980s as a stylistic battlefield Alison Pearlman rejects this picture which is truer of the period s criticism than of its art Pearlman reassesses the works and careers of six artists who became critics biggest targets In each of three chapters she pairs two artists the critics viewed as emblematic of a given trend Julian Schnabel and David Salle in association with Neo Expressionism Jean Michel Basquiat and Keith Haring vis vis Graffiti Art and Peter Halley and Jeff Koons in relation to Simulationism Pearlman shows how all these artists shared important but unrecognized influences and approaches a crucial and overwhelming inheritance of 1960s and 1970s Conceptualism a Warholian understanding of public identity and a deliberate and nuanced use of past styles and media Through in depth discussions of works from Haring s body paintings of Grace Jones to Schnabel s movie Basquiat Pearlman demonstrates how these artists' interests exemplified a broader generational shift unrecognized by critics. She sees this shift as starting not in the 1980s but in the mid 1970s when key developments in artistic style, art world structures and consumer culture converged to radically alter the course of American art. Unpackaging Art of the 1980s offers an innovative approach to one of the most significant yet least understood episodes in twentieth century art. Art Of The Postmodern Era Irving Sandler, 2018-05-30 Sandler discusses the major and minor artists and their works, movements, ideas, attitudes and styles and the social and cultural context of the period. He covers post modernist art theory, the art market and consumer society. American and European art and artists are included. Sport and Art Andrew Edgar, 2016-04-08 Sport and Art explores relationship of sport to art. It does not argue that sport is one of the arts but rather that sport and art hold common ground. Both are ways in which humans confront philosophical challenges though they do this through very different media. While art deploys sensual media such as paint or sound, sport is the pursuit of a physical challenge at which the athlete may fail. This is to propose in an argument that has its roots in Hegel's aesthetics that sport may be interpreted as a way of reflecting upon metaphysical and normative issues such as the nature of human freedom, fate and chance and even our sense of space and time. This argument is developed by proposing the concept of a sportworld, an atmosphere of theory and a knowledge of history through which an event is interpreted and thereby constituted as sport. Ultimately Sport and Art argues that in order to be truly appreciated sport must be understood within a modernist aesthetics. That is to say that sport is not about beauty but rather about the struggle to find meaning in sporting triumph and crucially sporting failure. This book was published as a special issue of Sport Ethics and Philosophy. Memento Mori in Contemporary Art Taylor Worley, 2019-11-28 This book explores how four contemporary artists Francis Bacon, Joseph Beuys, Robert Gober and Damien Hirst pursue the question of death through their fraught appropriations of Christian imagery. Each artist is shown to not only pose provocative theological questions but also to question the abilities of theological speech to adequately address current attitudes to death. When set within a broader theological context around the thought of death, Bacon's works invite fresh readings of the New Testament's narration of the betrayal of Christ and Beuys' works can be appreciated for the ways they evoke Resurrection to envision possible futures for Germany in the aftermath of war. Gober's immaculate sculptures and installations serve to create alternative religious environments and these places are both evocative of his Roman Catholic upbringing and virtually haunted by the ghosts of his excommunication from that past. Lastly and perhaps most problematically Hirst has built his brand as an artist from making jokes about death. By opening fresh arenas of dialogue and meaning making in our society and culture today, the rich humanity of these artworks promises both renewed depths of meaning regarding our exit from this world as well as how we might live well within it for the time that we have. As such it will be a vital resource for all scholars in Theology, the Visual Arts, Material Religion and Religious Studies. Mind Over Matter Richard Armstrong, 1990 World Collectors Annuary, 1992 Devil on the Stairs Robert Storr, Judith Tannenbaum, 1991 Ahearn, John Applebroog, Ida
