Women and Citizenship in Britain and Ireland in the 20th Century

Esther Breitenbach,Pat Thane,2010-05-06 The continuing under representation of women in political and public life remains a matter of concern across a wide range of countries including the UK and Ireland Within the UK it is a topical issue as political parties currently debate strategies often controversial which will increase women s representation At the same time devolution has ushered in significant change in the level of women s representation in Scotland and Wales and improved representation for women in Northern Ireland That such increases in women s representation in political institutions have been slow in coming is indisputable given that full enfranchisement of women on equal terms with men was achieved in Ireland in 1921 and in the UK in 1928

Spiritual Home Charles D. Cashdollar,2010-11-01 A Spiritual Home explores congregational life inside British and American Reformed churches between 1830 and 1915 At a time when scholars have become interested in the day to day experience of local congregations this book reaches back into the nineteenth century a critically formative period in Anglo American religious life to examine the historical roots of congregational life Taking the perspective of the laity Cashdollar ranges widely from worship and music to fund raising and administration from pastoral care to social work from prayer meetings to strawberry festivals from the sanctuary to the kitchen Firmly rooted in broader currents of gender class notions of middle class respectability increasing expectations for personal privacy and patterns of professionalization he finds that there was a gradual shift in emphasis during these years from piety to fellowship Based on records publications and memorabilia from about 150 congregations representing eight denominations A Spiritual Home gives us a comprehensive composite portrait of religious life in Victorian Britain and America
