Queen Of Whale Cay The Eccentric Story Of Joe Carstairs Fastest Woman On Water:

The Queen of Whale Cay Kate Summerscale, 2012-05-10 Born in 1900 to a promiscuous American oil heiress and a British army captain Marion Barbara Carstairs realised very early on that she was not like most little girls Liberated by war work in WWI Marion reinvented herself as Joe and quickly went on to establish herself as a leading light of the fashionable lesbian demi monde She dressed in men s clothes smoked cigars and cheroots tattooed her arms and became Britain s most celebrated female speed boat racer the fastest woman on water Yet Joe tired of the lime light in 1934 and retired to the Bahamian Island of Whale Cay There she fashioned her own self sufficient kingdom where she hosted riotous parties which boasted Hollywood actresses and British royalty among their guests Although her lovers included screen sirens such as Marlene Dietrich the real love of Joe s life was a small boy doll named Lord Tod Wadley to whom she remained devoted throughout her remarkable life She died aged 93 in 1993

The Queen of Whale Cay Kate Summerscale, 2012-05-22 A fascinating biography of the woman champion motorboat racer of the 1920s who in the 30s bought and became ruler of an island in the British West Indies Joe Carstairs was born in London in 1900 the daughter of a Scottish colonel and an American heiress Educated in Connecticut she returned to Europe in 1916 and drove ambulances for the Women s Legion in France She deserted her husband at the church door marriage was a prerequisite of her coming into her 4 million inheritance and settled in England where she took up racing established a boat yard at Cowes and won nearly every trophy going In the 30s she started traveling widely finally moving to the West Indies where she bought the island of Whale Cay There she developed the island into a populated community building everything from roads and schools to lighthouses and churches Carstairs then succeeded in establishing hegemony over the 500 islanders controlling not only their sexual morals but also their diet In 1944 she built a deepwater harbor for the Royal Navy s use and without a word to her population left the island to build warcraft in Florida where she settled for 40 years having run a steamship freightline and set up a chain of airports Kate Summerscale s brilliant biography brings out of obscurity a woman whose very boldness took her beyond fame and notoriety

The Poppy Nicholas J. Saunders, 2013-10-01 In the aftermath of the horrific trench warfare of the First World War the poppy sprouting across the killing fields of France and Belgium then immortalised in John McCrae's moving poem became a worldwide icon Yet the poppy has a longer history as the tell tale sign of human cultivation of the land of the ravages of war and of the desire to escape the earthly realm through inspired Romantic opium dreams or the grim reality of morphine drips This is a story spanning three thousand years from the ancient Egyptian fights over prized medicinal potions to the addicted veterans returning home from the American Civil War from the British political machinations during the Opium Wars with China to the struggle to end Afghanistan's tribal narcotics trade Through it all there stands the transformative poppy Nicholas J Saunders brings us the definitive history of this ever enduring but humble flower of the fields a story that is at turns tragic eye opening and most essentially life affirming a gift to us all Disturbing Practices Laura Doan, 2024-05-31 For decades the history of sexuality has been a multidisciplinary project serving competing agendas Lesbian gay and queer scholars have produced powerful narratives by tracing the homosexual or queer subject as continuous or discontinuous Yet organizing historical work around categories of identity as normal or abnormal often obscures how sexual matters were known or talked about in the past Set against the backdrop of women's work experiences friendships and communities during World War I Disturbing Practices draws on a substantial body of new archival material to expose the roadblocks still present in current practices and imagine new alternatives In this landmark book Laura Doan clarifies the ethical value and political purpose of identity history and indeed its very capacity to give rise to innovative practices borne of sustained exchange between queer studies and critical history Disturbing Practices insists on taking seriously the imperative to step outside the logic of identity to address questions as yet unasked about the modern sexual past Game Changers Molly Schiot, 2016-10-18 The embrace of women's sports sometimes feels almost like a political act Molly Schiot's Game Changers The Unsung Heroines of Sports History is so valuable The Wall Street Journal A thoughtful exhaustively researched and long overdue tribute to the women who have paved the way for the likes of Serena Williams Abby Wambach Simone Biles and more espnW Based on the Instagram account TheUnsungHeroines a celebration of the pioneering forgotten female athletes of the twentieth century that features rarely seen photos and new interviews with past and present game changers including Abby Wambach and Cari Champion Two years ago filmmaker Molly Schiot began the Instagram account TheUnsungHeroines posting a photo each day of a female athlete who had changed the face of sports around the globe in the pre Title IX age These women paved the way for Serena Williams Carli Lloyd and Lindsey Vonn yet few today know who they are Slowly but surely the account gained a following and the result is Game Changers a beautifully illustrated collection of these trailblazers rarely before seen photos and stories Featuring icons Althea Gibson and Wyomia Tyus complete unknowns Trudy Beck and Conchita Cintron policymaker Margaret Dunkle sportswriter Lisa Olson and many more Game Changers gives these founding mothers the attention and recognition they deserve and features critical conversations between past and present
