Clark, 2024-03-05 A fascinating look at the lives of twenty rebels and rule breakers throughout history and what made their contributions to society in science politics art and more transformative By the author and host of the popular Unruly Figures

Substack newsletter and podcast Unruly Figures gives you access to the lives and often untold stories of twenty of history's most fascinating individuals. Of all the rebels and revolutionaries who have acted around the world, these are often overlooked. Whether they are a bit familiar or entirely new to you, each of these historical figures provides a vivid example of what it means to live life on one's own terms and have a lasting influence on society. In the first collection of its kind, spotlighting a young historian's fresh view on unheralded rebels, these characters' true stories are brought to life through enthralling narratives of their feats and an original illustration of each. Even those whose names are recognizable like Jonas Salk have moments of rebellion that are largely left out of their histories. The diverse cast of unruly figures profiled includes Kandake Amanirenas, queen of the Kingdom of Kush, modern-day Sudan, who led an army against the invading Romans; Manuela Sáenz, revolutionary from Ecuador and collaborator and lover of Simón Bolívar; Henry Dunant, Swiss humanitarian and founder of the Red Cross; Elaine Sturtevant, known as Sturtevant, a misunderstood American artist who took appropriation and pop art to new heights. Dive into this collection of hidden history tales: those of scientists, artists, revolutionaries, activists, heirs to thrones, and so many more, and you are guaranteed to be inspired by how they lived on their own unconventional terms.

Overlooked Amisha Padnani, New York Times, 2023-11-14. An unforgettable collection of diverse remarkable lives inspired by Overlooked, the groundbreaking New York Times series that publishes the obituaries of extraordinary people whose deaths went unreported in the newspaper, filled with nearly 200 full-color photos and new, never-before-published content. Since 1851, The New York Times has published thousands of obituaries for heads of state, celebrities, scientists, and athletes. There's even one for the person who invented the sock puppet. But until recently, only a fraction of the Times's obits chronicled the lives of women or people of color. The vast majority tell of the lives of men, mostly white men. Started in 2018 as a series in the Obituary section, Overlooked has sought to rectify this, revisiting the Times's 170-year history to celebrate people who were left out. It seeks to correct past mistakes, establish a new precedent for equitable coverage of lives lost, and refocus society's lens on who is considered worthy of remembrance. Now in the first book connected to the trailblazing series, Overlooked shares 66 extraordinary stories of women, BIPOC, and LGBTQIA figures and people with disabilities who have broken rules and overcome obstacles. Some achieved a measure of fame in their lifetime but were surprisingly omitted from the paper, including Ida B. Wells, Sylvia Plath, Alan Turing, and Major Taylor. Others were lesser-known but noteworthy nonetheless, such as Katherine McHale, Slaughterback, a farmer who found fame as Rattlesnake Kate; ngela Ruiz Robles, the inventor of an early e-reader; Terri Rogers, a transgender ventriloquist and magician; and Stella Young, a disabled comedian who rejected inspiration porn. These overlooked figures might have lived in different times and had different experiences, but they were all ambitious and creative and used their imaginations to invent, innovate, and change the world. Featuring stunning photographs, exclusive content about the process of writing obituaries, and contributions by writers such as Veronica Chambers, Jon Pareles, Amanda Hess, and more, this visually arresting book compels us to revisit who and what we value as a
