of Milford Haven holds the heavy vellum envelop for a moment in her hands Within is the end of a long journey seeking vindication for a husband who gave his life to the service of the Royal Navy and received in return ingratitude Within is the reminder of a life lived with her family that is mostly gone However for one exquisite moment it returns as she opens the envelope The Lord Chamberlain is commanded by Their Majesties to invite The Dowager Marchioness of Milford Haven to the Ceremony of the Marriage of Her Royal Highness The Princess Elizabeth with Lieutenant Philip Mountbatten Royal Navy in Westminster Abbey on Thursday 20th November 1947 at 11 30 o'clock a.m. Thus begins the story of Princess Victoria of Hesse and by Rhine Victoria the eldest daughter of Princess Alice and Prince Ludwig of Hesse was born in April 1863 One of the envied grandchildren of Queen Victoria she was related to most of the Royal Families of Europe a member of the fabled Royal Mob The obstacles that characterized Victoria's life began with her mother's untimely death Queen Victoria helped her granddaughter shoulder the responsibilities of caring for the motherless family writing letters of advice and guidance a correspondence lasting some thirty years In April 1884 Victoria married the dashing Prince Louis of Battenberg an officer in the Royal Navy who eventually became Britain's First Sea Lord Their daughter Alice was the future mother of Prince Philip and their youngest child another Louis was Viceroy of India On the eve of World War I Prince Louis of Battenberg was forced to resign because of his German surname which he later changed to Mountbatten Victoria's sister Alix who had taken the name Alexandra when she married Tsar Nicholas II of Russia and her entire family was murdered in 1918 Progressive and intelligent Victoria was the lynchpin of her family Through cataclysms both familial and historical travelling from pre-revolutionary Russia to the British Mandate of Palestine Victoria's life was as exciting as it was triumphant

Royal Representations Margaret Homans, 2015-03-10 Queen Victoria was one of the most complex cultural productions of her age In Royal Representations Margaret Homans investigates the meanings Victoria held for her times Victoria's own contributions to Victorian writing and art and the cultural mechanisms through which her influence was felt Arguing that being seeming and appearing were crucial to Victoria's rule Homans explores the variability of Victoria's agency and of its representations using a wide array of literary historical and visual sources Along the way she shows how Victoria provided a deeply equivocal model for women's powers in and out of marriage how Victoria's dramatic public withdrawal after Albert's death helped to ease the monarchy's transition to an entirely symbolic role and how Victoria's literary self-representations influenced debates over political self-representation Homans considers versions of Victoria in the work of Elizabeth Barrett Browning George Eliot John Ruskin Margaret Oliphant Lewis Carroll Alfred Lord Tennyson and Julia Margaret Cameron

Queen Victoria's Other World Peter Underwood, 1986 There have been many books about Queen Victoria but there has never been one that has explored her other world the world of the strange and unusual the world of death and her fascination for it and the world of the unseen and the paranormal that she could never resist During his research Peter Underwood gained the distinct impression that there was something of a conspiracy of silence around her interest in the paranormal however there is overwhelming evidence that as a fatherless and bewildered princess as a quickly matured queen and then as a widowed and often lonely woman Victoria showed a considerable interest in death and its draperies This book covers Victoria s youthful encounters with the occult her visits to haunted properties her friends and acquaintances with similar interests and experiences her alleged involvement with Robert Lees the medium her undoubted interest in the Jack the Ripper murders her obsession with omens and superstitions and her fascination with death Not long before his death the Prince Consort told the Queen We don t know in what state we shall meet again but that we shall recognise each other and be together in eternity I am perfectly certain Through forty years of widowhood Queen Victoria believed utterly that this would be so
