Library Design for the 21st Century Diane Koen,Traci Engel Lesneski,2018-12-03 Library design in the 21st century has one common theme collaboration is at the heart of innovation Designing modern libraries is a complex process involving many stakeholders and participants Libraries of all types work with an almost limitless range of constituent groups for input buy in and successful implementation Securing support for new library buildings and renovations of libraries engages many people library clients community members faculty funding agencies donors governing authorities librarians architects interior designers and planners Telling the right story and getting to the end game demand carefully crafted approaches wide ranging skills a unified vision and productive teamwork The IFLA Library Buildings and Equipment Section has selected the best papers presented by award winning architects and international thought leaders from the academic and public library sector at our recent satellite conferences and seminars Collaborative Strategies for Successful Library Design Chicago Illinois What comes after the Third Place Columbus Ohio Key Issues for Library Space International Perspectives Maynooth Ireland Storage the final frontier Munich Germany and Telling and selling the space story Wroc aw Poland The stories by the library and design professionals within this publication illustrate how powerful a role partnerships outreach and cooperation play in a library project s success Karl Langer ,2021-12-30 Despite a European training and an early career working with Peter Behrens a migration from Vienna to the Australian state of Queensland positioned the architect Karl Langer 1903 1969 at the very edge of both European and Australian modernism Confronted by tropical heat and glare the economics of affordable housing fiercely proud and regional architectural practices and a suspicion of the foreign Langer moulded the European language of international modernism to the unique climatic and social conditions of tropical Australia This book will tell Langer s story through a series of edited essays focused on key themes and projects Published as part of the Bloomsbury Studies in Modern Architecture series which brings to light the work of significant yet overlooked modernist architects it is both an examination of an architect s work and international legacy and also a case study in the trans global dissemination of design ideas Studying the architect's built and proposed work both regional and metropolitan the scale and reach of Langer's practice will be considered for the first time showing how given his continued influence on the contemporary culture of tropical design Langer has been unjustly ignored by the historiography of both Australian and Modernist architecture to date

A Companion to Australian Art Christopher Allen, 2021-04-27 A Companion to Australian Art is a thorough introduction to the art produced in Australia from the arrival of the First Fleet in 1788 to the early 21st century Beginning with the colonial art made by Australia's first European settlers this volume presents a collection of clear and accessible essays by established art historians and emerging scholars alike Engaging clearly written chapters provide fresh insights into the principal Australian art movements considered from a variety of chronological regional and thematic perspectives The text seeks to provide a balanced account of historical events to help readers discover the art of Australia on their own terms and draw their own conclusions The book begins by surveying the historiography of Australian art and exploring the history of art museums in Australia The following chapters discuss art forms such as photography sculpture portraiture and landscape painting examining the practice of art in the separate colonies before Federation and in the Commonwealth from the early 20th century to the present day This authoritative volume covers the last 250 years of art in Australia including the Early Colonial High Colonial and Federation periods as well as the successive Modernist styles of the 20th century and considers how traditional Aboriginal art has adapted and changed over the last fifty years The Companion to Australian Art is a valuable resource for both undergraduate and graduate students of the history of Australian artforms from colonization to postmodernism and for general readers with an interest in the nation's colonial art history

The Quintessential Bird Viola Temple Watts, 2011 Betty Temple Watts 1901-1992 developed an interest in birds in her early married life while living in Iran and Papua New Guinea Although she had studied art formally as a nineteen year old it was not until she was 48 and settled in Melbourne that she decided to immerse herself in her bird art Betty spent much of her time practising drawing but was constantly critical of the results In spite of her harsh selfjudgement others had a high opinion of her skill and in 1952 she received her first commission going on to provide bird illustrations for numerous publications until she was in her late eighties The Quintessential Bird allows readers a glimpse into Betty's joyous world of birds This is followed by the plates reproduced in full along with 60 close ups of individual birds

Destroying to Replace Mohamed Adhikari, 2022-03-01 This book explores settler colonial genocides in a global perspective and over the long duration It does so systematically and compellingly as it investigates how settler colonial expansion at times created conditions for genocidal violence and the ways in which genocide was at times perpetrated on settler colonial frontiers This volume will prove invaluable to teachers and students of imperialism colonialism and human rights Lorenzo Veracini Swinburne University of Technology and author of The World Turned Inside Out Settler Colonialism as a Political Idea
