Ethics and Aesthetics of Translation Harriet Hulme,2018-11-19

Ethics and Aesthetics of Translation engages with translation in both theory and practice as part of an interrogation of ethical as well as political thought in the work of three bilingual European authors Bernardo Atxaga Milan Kundera and Jorge Semprun In approaching the work of these authors the book draws upon the approaches to translation offered by Benjamin Derrida Ric ur and Deleuze to highlight a broad set of ethical questions focused upon the limitations of the monolingual and the democratic possibilities of linguistic plurality upon our innate desire to translate difference into similarity and upon the ways in which translation responds to the challenges of individual and collective remembrance Each chapter explores these interlingual but also intercultural interrelational and interdisciplinary issues mapping a journey of translation that begins in the impact of translation upon the work of each author continues into moments of linguistic translation untranslatability and mistranslation within their texts and ultimately becomes an exploration of social political and affective untranslatability In these journeys the creative and critical potential of translation emerges as a potent often violent but always illuminating vision of the possibilities of differentiation and connection generation and memory in temporal linguistic cultural and political terms

Jorge Semprun Ursula Tidd,2017-12-02 The Spanish Communist exile and Francophone Holocaust writer Jorge Semprun 1923 is a major contributor to contemporary debates on the politics and ethics of remembering the Franco era Communism and the Holocaust in French Spanish and broader European contexts His sophisticated literary testimonies have become landmark texts not least for their commitment to represent the lived experience of history In this first detailed study in English of Jorge Semprun s writing Ursula Tidd shows how Semprun explores the parameters of self writing as an address to the other in a richly intertextual corpus which weaves together history fiction and auto bio thanatography and gives voice to the traumatic experiences of geographical and political exile and concentration camp internment Ursula Tidd is Senior Lecturer in French Studies at the University of Manchester UK

Written in Red Gina Herrmann,2010 The first major study of the profound impact of international communist politics and culture on Spanish letters

The Future of Testimony Antony Rowland,Jane Kilby,2014-06-20 Celebrating the twentieth anniversary of the groundbreaking Testimony this collection brings together the leading academics from a range of scholarly fields to explore the meaning use and value of testimony in law and politics its relationship to other forms of writing like literature and poetry and its place in society It visits testimony in relation to a range of critical developments including the rise of Truth Commissions and the explosion and radical extension of human rights discourse renewed cultural interest in perpetrators of violence alongside the phenomenal commercial success of victim testimony in the form of misery memoirs and the emergence of disciplinary interest in genocide terror and other violent atrocities These issues are necessarily inflected by the question of witnessing violence pain and suffering at both the local and global level across cultures and in postcolonial contexts At the volume s core is an interdisciplinary concern over the current and future nature of witnessing as it plays out through a new Europe post 9 11 US war torn Africa and in countless refugee and detention centers and as it is worked out by lawyers journalists medics and novelists The collection draws together an international range of case studies including discussion of the former Yugoslavia Gaza and Rwanda and encompasses a cross disciplinary set of texts novels plays testimonial writing and hybrid testimonies The volume situates itself at the cutting edge of debate and as such brings together the leading thinkers in the field requiring that each address the future anticipating and setting the future terms of debate on the importance of testimony Working Through Memory Ofelia Ferrán,2007 Studies various constructions of memory in contemporary Spanish literature evoking different aspects of a past of repression from both the civil war and the Franco regime This book analyzes narrative texts published between the 1960s and 1990s that present memory and the recuperation of a traumatic past as their main theme

On the Defensive Sharon Marquart,2015-01-01 On the Defensive considers how our ethical responses to the Nazi camps have unintentionally repressed and denied the experiences of their victims Through detailed readings of survivor narratives particularly the works of political deportees Jorge Semprun and Charlotte Delbo Sharon Marquart examines how well intentioned people including victims their family members and readers of witness literature respond to such testimony in ways that are understood as ethical by their communities but serve instead to ignore victims experiences As Marquart shows collective disasters such as the Holocaust expose the limitations of our ethical theories To cope with this instability we withdraw and defend ourselves through inattentive and formulaic responses that turn a blind eye to the plight of victims Challenging contemporary theorizations of community ethics testimony and trauma On the Defensive is a far reaching reflection on the ways in which communal understandings of our duties and responsibilities to others can facilitate the denial of an atrocity s horrors Writing and Life, Literature and History Liran Razinsky,2016-01-01 In 1963 French Spanish writer Jorge Semprun published Le Grand Voyage The Long Voyage a fictional account of his deportation to Buchenwald Later Semprun became an Academy Award nominated screenwriter and served as Spain s minister of culture This volume of the Yale French Studies series constitutes an overall assessment of his work spanning his broad range of genres and traditions Including both new perspectives and pieces by authors who have written widely on Semprun this volume is a refreshing and dynamic look at one of the twentieth century s most interesting literary voices Holocaust Literature:

Lerner to Zychlinsky, index S. Lillian Kremer,2003 Review This encyclopedia offers an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the important writers and works that form the literature about the Holocaust and its consequences The collection is alphabetically arranged and consists of high quality biocritical essays on 309 writers who are first second and third generation survivors or important thinkers and spokespersons on the Holocaust An essential literary reference work this publication is an important addition to the genre and a solid value for public and academic libraries The Top 20 Reference Titles of the Year American Libraries May 2004 Perspectives on the Holocaust R.L. Braham,2013-04-17 The number of books and articles dealing with various aspects of World War II has increased at a phenomenal rate since the end of the hostilities. Perhaps no other chapter in this bloodiest of all wars has received as much attention as the Holocaust. The Nazi program for the Final Solution of the Jewish Question, this ideologically conceived diabolical plan for the physical liquidation of European Jewry, has emerged as a subject of agonizing and intense interest to laypersons and scholars alike. The centrality of the Holocaust in the study of the Third Reich and the Nazi phenomenon is almost universally recognized. The source materials for many of the books published during the immediate postwar period were the notes and diaries kept by many camp and ghetto dwellers who were sustained during their unbelievable ordeal by the unusual drive to bear witness. These were supplemented after the liberation by a large number of personal narratives collected from survivors all over Europe. Understandably, the books published shortly after the war ended were mainly martyrological and lachrymological, reflecting the trauma of the Holocaust at the personal individual level. These were soon followed by a considerable number of books dealing with the moral and religious questions revolving around the role of the lay and spiritual leaders of the doomed Jewish communities, especially those involved in the Jewish Councils, as well as God's responsibility toward the chosen people.

The Ghost in the Constitution Joan Ramon Resina, 2017. A book that offers new directions in the study of memory in Spain, written by one of the world's leading scholars of contemporary Spanish culture. A Critical Companion to Jorge Semprún O. Ferrán, G. Herrmann, 2014-09-17. Presenting the first English language collection of essays on Jorge Semprún, this volume explores the life and work of the Spanish Holocaust survivor, author, and political activist. Essays explore his cultural production in all its manifestations, including the role of testimony and fiction in representations of the Holocaust. Traces of War Colin Davis, 2018. Traces of War examines how the trauma of the Second World War influenced the work of the brilliant generation of writers and intellectuals who lived through it. European Literary Immigration Into the French Language Tijana Miletić, 2008. The critical emotional and intellectual change which every immigrant is obliged to endure and confront is experienced with singular intensity by immigrant writers who have also adopted another language for their literary expression. Concentrating on European authors of the second half of the twentieth century who have chosen French as a language for their literary expression and in particular the novels by Romain Gary, Agota Kristof, Milan Kundera, and Jorge Semprún, with reference to many others, European Literary Immigration into the French Language explores some of the common elements in these works of fiction which, despite the varied personal circumstances and literary aesthetics of the authors, follow a similar path in the building of a literary identity and legitimacy in the new language. The choice of the French language is inextricably linked with the subsequent literary choices of these writers. This study charts a new territory within Francophone and European literary studies in treating the European immigrants as a separate group and in applying linguistic, sociological, and psychoanalytical ideas in the analysis of the works of fiction, and thus represents a relevant contribution to the understanding of European cultural identity. This volume is relevant to French and European literature.
