Quench Not the Spirit Angela Hanley, David Smith (Medical ethicist), 2005 These essays look at the Catholic Church in the modern world and the success of the Second Vatican Council

Receptive Ecumenism and the Call to Catholic Learning Paul Murray, 2010-05-06 This volume proposes a fresh strategy for ecumenical engagement Receptive Ecumenism that is fitted to the challenges of the contemporary context and has already been internationally recognised as making a distinctive and important new contribution to ecumenical thought and practice Beyond this the volume tests and illustrates this proposal by examining what Roman Catholicism in particular might fruitfully learn from its ecumenical others Challenging the tendency for ecumenical studies to ask whether explicitly or implicitly What do our others need to learn from us this volume presents a radical challenge to see ecumenism move forward into action by highlighting the opposite question What can we learn with integrity from our others This approach is not simply ecumenism as shared mission or ecumenism as problem solving and incremental agreement but ecumenism as a vital long term programme of individual communal and structural conversion driven like the Gospel that inspires it by the promise of conversion into greater life and flourishing The aim is for the Christian traditions to become more not less than they currently are by learning from or receiving of each other s gifts The 32 original essays that have been written for this unique volume explore these issues from a wide variety of denominational and disciplinary perspectives drawing together ecclesiologists professional ecumenists sociologists psychologists and organizational experts

When the Magisterium Intervenes Richard R. Gaillardetz, 2012-05-01 Catholicism has always recognized the need for a normative doctrinal teaching authority Yet the character scope and exercise of that authority what has come to be called the magisterium has changed significantly over two millennia This book gathers contributions from leading Catholic scholars in considering new factors that must be taken into account as we consider the church s official teaching authority in today s postmodern context Noted experts in their fields cover many intriguing topics here including the investigation of theologians that has occurred in recent years canonical perspectives on such investigations the role that women religious have played in these issues the place of the media when problems arise and possible future ways forward The book concludes with The Elizabeth Johnson Dossier a selection of documents essential to understanding the case of Elizabeth Johnson CSJ whose work was recently the subject of severe criticism by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops Contributors include Bradford Hinze James Coriden Colleen Mallon Ormond Rush Gerard Mannion Anthony Godzieba Vincent Miller Richard Gaillardetz and Elizabeth Johnson

Faith at Work Donal Dorr, 2007-03 In a world that questions more and more the quality of leadership in churches and politics Donald Dorr proposes a spirituality that supports authentic leadership Addressing primarily those who lead volunteer or non governmental agencies and religious organizations the author holds that they should provide a model of effective humane leadership for the business world public service and politics Dorr focuses on scriptural sources for a spirituality of leadership

Writer.), 1871 Boundless Love Andrew Ray Williams, 2021-07-22 Clark H Pinnock 1937-2010 was arguably one of the most noted productive and provocative Christian theologians in North American evangelical Christianity in the late twentieth century Considering how challenging he is to classify and yet how significant his work has been Pinnock should be widely studied today However for many their first introduction to Pinnock's writing is facilitated through various critical sources For too long Pinnock's theology has been stuck within the confines of tired stereotypes and overly simplistic summaries Andrew Ray Williams then gives Pinnock a fresh and fair hearing outlining some of his major themes while also providing an accessible point of entry into his theology In doing so this book is usable and profitable for both longtime fans as well as critics of Pinnock while also offering first time readers of Pinnock an open minded position from which to read him
