Immerse yourself in The Quest for Freedom Revised Edition, a captivating journey recounted by Corina Pataki, a native of Romania from Romania's era of suffocating communism and stifling government. Amidst seemingly insurmountable odds, Corina unveils her family's unyielding pursuit of freedom while shedding light on the remarkable power of hope. Venture alongside them into a realm where supernatural forces intertwine with the mortal realm, transcending boundaries between space and time, between the supernatural, ethereal and cosmic planes. Within this captivating narrative, we witness this family's unwavering determination and the beacon of a brighter future that steered them through perilous trials, guided by interventions from unexpected sources, both spiritual, celestial and human. Corina's vivid storytelling reminds readers that even in the bleakest moments, a spark of hope, faith and the unwavering spirit to endure breaks through the shadows of despair. Through this incredible journey, we're reminded that the Divine Creator orchestrates circumstances for our ultimate good, even in the seeming face of death. Each of us, at times, must embark on a personal quest for freedom, striving to break the chains that confine us and walk out our liberation. The Quest For Freedom Michael John Claydon, 2009-11-25 Throughout our lives, we are influenced by others in many ways. Sometimes these influences are helpful, and sometimes they are a restriction to our personal freedom. There is also a person who is closer to us than any other but can also sabotage our personal freedom very successfully. We can sometimes be our own personal enemy without realising this fact. This book describes various ways in which our freedom is restricted by ourselves and others. There are also suggestions that could help us to understand and overcome the real and imagined threats to our personal freedom.
