From History to Mystery the Life and Teachings of the Historical Jesus Lisa Morris, 2010-04-16 This textbook explores the quest for the Historical Jesus and seeks to discover the original meanings of his teachings in particular his kingdom of God teachings You will learn about the last 200 years of Jesus research including the Jesus Seminar The author discusses Gnosticism The Gospel of Thomas The Secret Gospel of Mark and the three synoptic gospels Matthew Mark and Luke The author spends much of her time investigating the Parables of Jesus The author makes a conclusion based on her historical studies who the historical Jesus was and what he taught This is based purely on historical evidence and is not a statement of the author's belief system Whether you are a seminary student pastor or a layperson this is a must read on the subject of the historical teachings of Jesus

The Resurrection of Jesus Robert B. Stewart, 2006 Two of today's most important and popular New Testament scholars John Dominic Crossan and N T Wright here air their very different understandings of the historical reality and theological meaning of Jesus Resurrection The book highlights points of agreement and disagreement between them and explores the many attendant issues This book brings two leading lights in Jesus studies together for a long overdue conversation with one another and with significant scholars from other disciplines

The Spiritual Quest Robert M. Torrance, 2023-09-01 Robert Torrance's wide ranging innovative study argues that the spiritual quest is rooted in our biological psychological linguistic and social nature The quest is not as most have believed a rare mystical experience but a frequent expression of our most basic human impulses Shaman and scientist medium and poet prophet and philosopher all venture forth in quest of visionary truths to transform and renew the world Yet Torrance is not trying to reduce the quest to an archetype or monomyth Instead he presents the full diversity of the quest in the myths and religious practices of tribal peoples throughout the world from Oceania to India Africa Siberia and especially the Americas In theorizing about the quest Torrance draws on thinkers as diverse as Bergson and Piaget van Gennep and Turner Pierce and Popper Freud Darwin and Chomsky This is a book that will expand our knowledge and awareness of a fundamental human activity in all its fascinating complexity Robert Torrance's wide ranging innovative study argues that the spiritual quest is rooted in our biological psychological linguistic and social nature The quest is not as most have believed a rare mystical experience but a frequent expression of o

Judging Q and saving Jesus - Q's contribution to the wisdom-apocalypticism debate in historical Jesus studies. Llewellyn Howes, 2015-12-31 Judging Q and saving Jesus is characterised by careful textual analysis showing a piercing critical eye in its impressive engagement with the secondary literature and sharp insightful critique This book takes the stance that the hypothetical document Q can be reconstructed with sufficient precision and that this enables biblical scholars to study with confidence its genre and its thematic and ideological profile The genre issue is central to the book's overall structure and the alternative proposals are discussed at length and with sophistication The author's inference is that Q's macrogenre is sapiential with occasional insertions of apocalyptic microstructures and motifs This finding embodies progress in Historical Jesus studies An opposing trend has been to label Jesus an apocalypticist so that the great either or of contemporary Jesus scholarship has been either eschatological or not an alternative that dates back to Albert Schweitzer The author finds that generally and even when used apocalyptically the term Son of Man tends to support arguments best understood as sapiential in outlook This is consistent with the sapiential genre of the document as a whole This finding is supported by the close and careful exegesis of Q 6 37 38 on not judging He reconstructs the original wording of this saying on not judging and explores the idea of weighing in judgment psychostasia determining in the end that the saying is entirely sapiential

Traditions and adherence requirements have led to inflexible models of school leadership that are focused on administration and rife with educational politics In contrast today s theological landscape needs institutions with a grassroots driven educational system looking to a future that is biblically and theologically grounded This publication an English translation from the original German focuses on the leadership and curriculum development required for such a paradigm shift Ott comprehensively assesses trends in current theological education across the world with detailed reference to wider trends in global tertiary education Written primarily for those in leadership roles at theological schools and training institutions this handbook is an essential resource for equipping the next generation of leaders in theological education     Handbook of Biblical Criticism Richard N. Soulen,R. Kendall Soulen,2001-01-01 Integrating the newest methods and theories of biblical studies this third edition contains over 800 terms phrases names explanations of common abbreviations notes on major methodologies and exegetical basics biographical sketches of key figures in the history of research analytical outlines of fundamental critical problems a list of bibliographic tools plus an invaluable Diagram of Biblical Interpretation     Crisis In Lutheran Theology, Vol. 2 John Warwick Montgomery,2018-01-27 All Three volumes deal with the issue of biblical inerrancy that the Bible is completely true and accurate not only when it speaks to ideas of religious belief but also when it speaks about factual elements of history and science properly understood This issue rocked the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod back in the late 1960s and early 1970s prompting the release of the first two volumes Volume one consists of essays by John Warwick Montgomery himself and is addressed primarily to theologians Volume two consists of an anthology by eight separate Lutheran contributors and is addressed to laymen as well as professional theologians Volume 3 is new never before published material and consists of essays by Dr Montgomery outlining a new challenge along the same lines Dr Jeffery Kloha suggested a few years ago with the latest critical edition of the New Testament Nestle Aland 28th Edition because of the interchangeability of some variant readings that we now had a plastic text Dr Montgomery goes up against this assertion with everything he has Though obviously addressing themselves primarily to Lutheranism the materials are to a large degree equally applicable to many of the other Christian communions and will be found to be extremely valuable in assessing the needs of a variety of denominations     Rule Book Chicago Public Library,1915     Indulgences in Late Medieval England R. Habermas,2010 A gathering of scholarly essays in response and tribute to James D G Dunn s influential book Jesus Remembered followed by a response from Dunn himself     The Transnational Codification of International Arbitration Bruno Sousa Rodrigues,2025-06-19 The Transnational Codification of International Arbitration studies the process of transnational codification of international arbitration Through a broad array of instruments and their legislative history this research connects agents and ideas involved in a long term project of procedural formalization Bruno Sousa Rodrigues argues that since the late 19th century there has been a progressive convergence of procedural technique of public and private forms of international arbitration motivated by an ambition to govern war peace and commerce Readers get an in depth look at how this convergence has affected the authority of international arbitration in a globalized administration of justice When Will These Things Happen? Alistair I. Wilson, 2007-01-01 Was the historical Jesus a preacher of imminent apocalyptic judgment or altogether a non eschatological teacher Despite the popularity of both of these extreme portraits in contemporary scholarship Wilson demonstrates a via media in which Jesus viewed especially through the window of Matthew 21 25 is both prophet and sage but preeminently a judge during his ministry in his invisible coming against Jerusalem in AD70 and at God s final assize An important contribution Craig Blomberg Distinguished Professor of New Testament Denver Seminary In the crowded field of Matthean studies this book offers something new a discussion of the theme of judgment in Matthew 21 25 the account of Jesus confrontation with the Jerusalem authorities Dr Wilson is well abreast of current scholarship but not afraid to take an independent line not least in his robust defense of the view that reference to the coming of the Son of Man refers not to the parousia but to the imminent vindication of the rejected Messiah This exegesis enables him to link ch 24 closely with the preceding dialogue and diatribe and to offer a satisfyingly coherent interpretation of the whole Jerusalem section of the gospel which precedes the passion narrative Over against Marcus Borg s non eschatological Jesus Wilson shows convincingly that Matthew s Jesus had a clear eye to the future looking both to coming events in Palestinian history for his own vindication on the world stage and also to a more ultimate judgment in which he would play the leading role Whether or not other scholars agree with Wilson s conclusions this is the sort of careful exegetical scholarship which is needed to carry constructive discussion forward R T France formerly Principal Wycliffe Hall Oxford Alistair Wilson has written a study that reveals first class scholarship He demonstrates that he is fully abreast of issues that are currently being discussed In his interactions he is tactful serene and persuasive While applauding the views of others he nevertheless shows his difference from them by carefully demonstrating on the basis of Matthew s Gospel that Jesus indeed is judge both in the first century and at the consummation This book is an excellent addition to evangelical research that champions a high view of Scripture Simon J Kistemaker Professor of New Testament Emeritus Reformed Theological Seminary Alistair Wilson s monograph goes right to the heart of contemporary debate concerning the role of Jesus by drawing attention to the motif of judgment in his role as prophet and sage that so impressed the Evangelist Matthew His fresh study of judgment in this Gospel shows that the early church was far removed from seeing in him the non eschatological teacher of the late twentieth century Jesus seminar This is an important scholarly contribution to the ongoing study of how Jesus was seen and understood by his contemporaries with considerable significance for how we ought to understand him today I Howard Marshall Emeritus Professor of New Testament Exegesis and Honorary Research Professor University of Aberdeen Alistair Wilson is a minister of the Free Church of Scotland He has taught New Testament at Highland Theological College in Dingwall Scotland and currently serves as
