The Stone Reader a landmark collection of 133 essays from the New York Times award winning philosophy column first published in 2015 the world urgently needed insight and wisdom and for many the book served as a bulwark of reason against the rising tide of post fact rhetoric Now as disinformation continues to run rampant and our rights are increasingly called into question editors Peter Catapano and Simon Critchley contend that philosophy in the public sphere is more crucial than ever Like The Stone Reader and its sequel Modern Ethics in 77 Arguments Question Everything delivers the contrarian views sound arguments and creative approaches to traditional opinion writing that loyal readers of the series have come to expect Its essays however are not organized by traditional categories like ethics or epistemology but thematically by question thirteen of them in all the first twelve like the hours of a clock ticking us through the tumultuous time in which these pieces were written from late 2015 to 2021 with the last speculating into an uncertain future The volume begins with the most fundamental of questions What does it mean to be human There contemporary thinkers from Martha Nussbaum to Bernard Henri L vy explore the essence of who we are as a species The next question Is democracy possible interrogates our social and political ideals While Malka Older calls into question the viability of our institutions philosophers Gary Gutting and Alex Rosenberg reassess the meaning of patriotism And onward with more timeless struggles What is happiness Does life have meaning Finally it asks Is this the end of the world as we know it Now what While its foundation and core consists of the work of professional scholars and philosophers Question Everything also features a number of prominent artists and thinkers who may never appear on a philosophy syllabus including among others novelist Elena Ferrante actor Cate Blanchett filmmaker Errol Morris musician Sonny Rollins and artist Ai Weiwei all of whom offer insights shaped by decades of devotion to and practice of their crafts Designed both for immediate gratification and long term use Question Everything with an introduction by Catapano is not only an essential addition to a much loved series but an act of resistance a product as Catapano writes of the spirit of agitation and inquiry that has been integral to the human enterprise from the beginning of Asking Questions George Ghanotakis, 1988 Truth Search Carolyn J Sweers, 2019-05-24 Carolyn recorded history Sweers is a free lance philosopher and teacher She is committed to the Socratic insight that if people are asked the right questions they can come up with the wisdom they need for the living of a good life This book is a compilation of some thought provoking questions and some clues to their answers The questions and clues were developed and used with great success in a number of older adult courses she taught at Osher Milwaukee It is her hope that readers will with the help of this book continue their own truth searches both alone and in the company of others What? Mark Kurlansky, 2011-06-06 What is What Could it be that noted author Mark Kurlansky has written a very short terrifically witty deeply thought provoking book entirely in the form of questions A book that draws on philosophy religion literature policy indeed all of civilization to ask what may well be the twenty most important questions in human history Or has he given us a really smart impossibly amusing game of twenty questions Kurlansky considers the work of Confucius Plato Shakespeare Descartes Nietzsche Freud

Hemingway Emily Dickinson the Talmud Charles de Gaulle Virginia Woolf and others distilling the deep guestions of life to their sparkling essence What supplies endless fodder for thoughtful conversation but also endless opportunity to ponder and be challenged by and entertained by these questions in refreshingly original ways As Kurlansky says In a world that seems devoid of absolute certainties how can we make declarative statements Without asking the questions how will we ever get to the answers With his striking black and white woodcut illustrations throughout this handsome volume is a tour de force that packs a tremendous wallop in a deliciously compact package The Great Questions of Life Don Cupitt, 2005 In everyday speech we often hear people jokingly mention what they call the ultimate questions the big questions or the great questions of life In Don Cupitt's judgment however these questions are no joking matter He believes that there is no higher truth than the truth that is built into our everyday speech and that therefore these questions should be taken seriously In The Great Questions of Life he collects and classifies all the great questions in the wordings that are most familiar to us and interprets and answers them He shows how the decline of the old religion has led to the return of the great guestions and explains why they have become important to us in modern times I Am, Therefore I Think Rachel and Michael Deutch Professor of Philosophy at Amherst College Alexander George, 2007 What is like to be another person Why is stupidity not painful Is it possible for a human ever to do a selfless act Do chimpanzees really enjoy eating bananas How can an exception ever prove a rule Everyone confronts philosophical issues so why shouldn't everyone have access to a philosopher In this wise and witty book forty philosophers from universities around the world answer real readers most difficult questions They address dilemmas and gueries on every subject from adultery and the afterlife to ethics and existentialism God sex suicide and war They even address the question Why can t philosophers agree This is an entertaining and jargon free exploration of the philosophy of everyday life Publisher description Five Big Questions in Life Miriam Pia, 2012-10 gives the reader a basic description of philosophy and explains how to use it to answer the five most important questions in life Included are basic mental exercises that everyone can do that will help the reader to practice philosophy Page 4 of cover Pandora's Book David Birch, 2021-07 Dare to think 101 Deeper, Darker Questions for Humanity J. Edward Neill, 2015-11-27 The latest volume in the Coffee Table Philosophy series flips the switch and turns down the lights It's the ultimate conversation igniter It s got questions and scenarios to light up big parties and small intimate gatherings If you re smart and you ARE this is the book you need to bring the fun 101 pages 101 deeper darker questions The conversation starts now 444 Ouestions for the Universe J. Edward Neill, 2015-05-28 Having a few friends over Throwing a party In need of a little something to ignite a conversation 444 Questions for the Universe is the ultimate ice breaker Put it on your coffee table invite a few friends over and watch the night's discussions catch fire Meant as a party book quiz book and philosophy book rolled all into one 444 Questions will guide you through hours of energetic intelligent and FUN conversations Once you ask one Question you ll want to answer them ALL Includes the first four books in the Coffee Table Philosophy series 101 Questions for Humanity 101
