Questions This Modern Age Puts To Islam:

Questions this Modern Age Puts to Islam Fethullah Gülen, 1998 The Gülen Movement Gürkan Çelik, 2010 The existence of social conflicts and the lack of social cohesion are at the center of public debates in many societies In recent years these issues have often been linked to Muslims and their religious beliefs The Islamic response to these allegations and the social problems evoking them has been diverse this book concerns the reply of a transnational movement of volunteers inspired by the teachings of Fethullah Gülen a Turkish Muslim scholar This study represents an attempt to incorporate the Gülen Movement also called the Volunteers Movement into a social movement theory approach In pluralist societies there are different communication structures and different ways of conflict resolution The Gülen Movement proposes and practices dialogue and education as two means to establish peace by maintaining social cohesion and mending the social cleavages dividing Muslims and non Muslims It is not only Gülen's spiritual message that has inspired people to pursue these ideals but also his leadership By focusing on its spiritual intellectual and practical dimension and its social background this book contributes to a comprehensive understanding of one of the most promising contemporary social movements Publisher's description back cover Conversations on Fethullah Gülen and the Hizmet Movement Peter Barnes, Gregory

Baum, 2015-12-16 This book entitled Conversations on Fethullah Gülen and the Hizmet Movement Dreaming for a Better World is intended to represent an open perspective on the influence of the Hizmet Movement including Fethullah Gülen in particular on the theme of dreaming for a better world based on a variety of Christian and Muslim world views This theme is approached from three specific perspectives education and an emphasis on interfaith and intercultural dialogue a comparison of various spiritualities and a consideration of the shared dreams of the two religions The essays in this volume are adapted from talks presented by eleven authors from Canada and the United States at the Gülen Symposium at Carleton University in October 2009 The panel discussion that followed the individual presentations enhanced the overall theme of dreaming for a better world The symposium as a whole represented the positive potential that there is for the organization of forums of sharing that focus on this theme and on the three sub themes Contemporary Islamic Conversations Nevval

Sevindi, 2008-01-01 Discusses the ideas of the most important living Muslim thinker and leader in contemporary Turkey

Peace and Dialogue in a Plural Society Thomas Michel, 2014-12-07 In a world that is too often seen as a clash of civilizations some believe there is another way a path that involves engagement dialogue and respect In Thomas Michel's new book Peace and Dialogue in a Plural Society he explores how Fethullah Gülen is one of those speaking most vocally in favor of a world community where different faiths and nations can come together at one table to solve the multitude of problems facing today's world Exploring the spiritual roots of Gülen and the Hizmet Movement as well as drawing parallels between his own work as a Catholic priest Michel shows how Hizmet has helped build a blueprint for intercultural communication in a time when too many voices are trying to stoke the fires of discord Through education dialogue and a respect for basic human dignity Michel finds a foundation in Gulen's faith and Hizmet's service upon which a healthy diverse society can be built Slavery, Abolition, and Islam Haroon Bashir, 2024-12-02 Does the Qur'an promote the abolition of slavery? If so, why had the slave trade been allowed to operate across the Muslim world for over a millennium? And why had Muslim scholars not attempted to eradicate slavery previously? These were the questions that Islamic abolitionist scholars explored as they sought to challenge the slave trade throughout the nineteenth century. The abolition of slavery remains a relatively new concept in human history and scholars from all religious traditions have attempted to navigate the religious and ethical questions raised by the historical acceptance of slavery. In this book, Haroon Bashir tells the story of how scholars promoting abolition in the name of Islam transformed the debate around Islam and slavery. The book explores how abolitionism became the hegemonic position within contemporary Islamic thought and highlights the journey behind the current consensus. Abolitionist arguments were not simply accepted with defenders of the slave trade using the weight of historical tradition to emphasise the legitimacy of slavery. The strongly contested debates that ensued had huge ramifications for understandings of authority, tradition and modernity within Islamic thought that are as present as they are past. Through an exploration of these various discourses and contestations, Slavery, Abolition and Islam highlights how both slavery and abolition were historically challenged within the Islamic context and demonstrates how those debates continue to impact contemporary discussions. In doing so, the book also explores broader themes of religious traditions, continuity and transformation.

Turkey and the World Sedat Laçiner, 2001

Turkish Islam and the Secular State M. Hakan Yavuz, John L. Esposito, 2003-11-01 In the first book of its kind, M. Hakan Yavuz and John L. Esposito explore recent reformations of Islam and culture in Turkey and the successful Islamist/modernist Fethullah Gülen movement. As one of the most significant religious movements to emerge in Turkey in the past fifty years, the Gülen movement combines a devotion to Islam with love for modern learning, especially modern science. This groundbreaking work focuses on and explains the nexus of complex historical and political developments that have contributed to the transformation of Islam in Turkey and to the movement's sphere of influence stretching into the Balkans and central Asia through the establishment of schools outside Turkey. The book cogently traces the origin of Gülen's ideology and his early efforts to propagate his views through educational activities. It details the various strategies employed by Gülen's followers to put his ideas into practice both in Turkey and around the world. Contributors describe its intellectual and religious formation, its spread across Turkey and Central Asia, and its influence on citizens outside the movement, including leading Turkish politicians.

Transnational Crime and Global Security Philip L. Reichel, Ryan Randa, 2018-01-12 This two-volume work offers a comprehensive examination of the distressing topics of transnational crime and the implications for global security. National security is a key concern for individual nations, regions and the global community, yet globalism has led to the perfusion of transnational crime such that it now poses a serious threat to the national security of governments around the world. Whether attention is concentrated on a particular type of transnational crime or on broader concerns of transnational crime generally the security issues related to preventing and combatting transnational crime remain of top priority concern for many governments Transnational Crime and Global Security has been carefully curated to provide students scholars professionals and consultants of criminal justice and security studies with comprehensive information about and in depth analysis of contemporary issues in transnational crime and global security The first volume covers such core topics as cybercrime human trafficking and money laundering and also contains infrequently covered but nevertheless important topics including environmental crime the weaponization of infectious diseases and outlaw motorcycle gangs The second volume is unique in its coverage of security issues related to such topics as the return of foreign terrorist fighters using big data to reinforce security and how to focus efforts that encourage security cooperation

Essentials of The Islamic Faith M. Fethullah Gülen, 2006-04-01 Essentials of the Islamic Faith is a selection from some of the speeches M Fethullah Glen has given to large audiences over a life time of dedicated service In these speeches he explains the principal elements of Islamic belief belief in the existence and Unity of God in Resurrection and the Day of Judgment in Divine Scriptures and other familiar themes of Islamic discourse What is special and unique about the presentation of them in this book is that the author is constantly aware of the encroachment and the seductive appeal of cultural attitudes which are hostile not to Islam only but to any religious and contemplative way of life

Did Muhammad Exist? Robert Spencer, 2021-07-13 Is there any sound historical evidence that the prophet of Islam actually existed or is the entire story of Muhammad fable or fiction It is a question that few have thought or dared to ask Virtually everyone Muslim and non Muslim alike takes for granted that the prophet of Islam lived as a prophet as well as a political and military leader in seventh century Arabia But this widely accepted story begins to crumble on close examination In his blockbuster New York Times bestseller The Truth about Muhammad historian and Islam expert Robert Spencer revealed the often shocking contents of Islamic teachings about Muhammad Now in this newly revised and expanded version of Did Muhammad Exist he lays bare those teachings surprisingly shaky historical foundations This updated and enlarged version of this acclaimed book examines even more striking and compelling evidence that the story of Muhammad who for so long was assumed to have lived in the full light of history could be more myth and legend than historical fact Spencer meticulously examines historical records and archaeological findings pioneering new scholarship to reconstruct what we can know about Muhammad the Qur an and the early days of Islam The evidence he presents challenges the most fundamental assumptions about Islam s origins

Islamic Religious Authority in a Modern Age Shaheen Amid Whyte, 2024-01-22 This book situates Australian Muslim experiences of religious authority within the global context of Islam in the modern world While drawing on examples of Muslim majority states new empirical findings indicate the growing diversity of Muslim religious actors in Australia as well as the contextual realities shaping the way religious authority is legitimised and contested in democratic and authoritarian environments In particular the study challenges homogenous

articulations of Islamic religious authority in unearthing new voices epistemologies and socio political factors shaping Muslim attitudes and experiences of religious authority The book fills important gaps in the field such as intra Muslim relations female religious authority digital Islam and the relationship between traditional ulama reformists and Muslim intellectuals in the West Rethinking Islam and Human Rights Ozcan Keles,2023 In Rethinking Islam and Human Rights leading Islam and human rights scholar Ozcan Keles examines how social movement practice unknowingly and unintentionally produces Islamic knowledge on human rights i e change in both scriptural reinterpretation and societal disposition through a focus on the interaction between the two

The Islamic State in the Post-Modern World Louis D. Hayes,2016-03-03 The Islamic State in the Post Modern World is a study of the political development of Pakistan This study consists of three parts The first addresses the concept of the state as it has evolved historically The approach is comparative and involves a brief review of Islamic political theory The second part of this section is the modern state i e the Westphalian model The territorial state is still the standard although it has been evolving in new directions for some time The second section focuses on the creation of Pakistan as an experiment in bridging the gulf between the demands of the modern state and the philosophical spiritual attraction of the Islamic model In addition to constitutional issues the discussion also includes political forms i e the machinery of daily government and the appropriateness of democratic methods elections legislative process and political parties to achieve Islamic ends The third part considers international issues from the beginning of the twenty first century especially the conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan Despite its partnership role with the US in the war on terror Pakistan has been consistently marginalized Pakistan s problems are exacerbated by the conflict over Kashmir a vestigial remnant of Pakistan s continuous and largely unsuccessful efforts at self identification

Dynamics of Islam in the Modern World Saeed Zarrabi-Zadeh,Armina Omerika,Thomas K. Gugler,Michael E. Asbury,2022-07-11 Dynamics of Islam in the Modern World scrutinizes and analyzes Islam in context It posits Muslims not as independent and autonomous but as relational and interactive agents of change and continuity who interplay with Islamic ate sources of self and society as well as with resources from other traditions Representing multiple disciplinary approaches the contributors to this volume discuss a broad range of issues such as secularization colonialism globalization radicalism human rights migration hermeneutics mysticism religious normativity and pluralism while paying special attention to three geographical settings of South Asia the Middle East and Euro America

Against the Modern World Mark J. Sedgwick,2009 Against the Modern World is the first history of Traditionalism an important yet surprisingly little known twentieth century anti modern movement Comprising a number of often secret but sometimes very influential religious groups in the West and in the Islamic world it affected mainstream and radical politics in Europe and the development of the field of religious studies in the United States touching the lives of many individuals French writer Rene Guenon rejected modernity as a dark age and sought to reconstruct the Perennial Philosophy the central truths behind all the major world religions Guenon stressed the urgent need for the West s remaining spiritual and intellectual elite to find personal and collective salvation in the surviving vestiges of ancient religious traditions A number of disenchanted intellectuals responded to his call In Europe America and the Islamic world Traditionalists founded institutes Sufi brotherhoods Masonic lodges and secret societies Some attempted unsuccessfully to guide Fascism and Nazism along Traditionalist lines others later participated in political terror in Italy Traditionalist ideas were the ideological cement for the alliance of anti democratic forces in post Soviet Russia and in the Islamic world entered the debate about the relationship between Islam and modernity Although its appeal in the West was ultimately limited Traditionalism has wielded enormous influence in religious studies through the work of such Traditionalists as Ananda Coomaraswamy Huston Smith Mircea Eliade and Seyyed Hossein Nasr
