A Literature of Questions Joe Sutliff Sanders, 2018-01-01 Nonfiction books for children from biographies and historical accounts of communities and events to works on science and social justice have traditionally been most highly valued by educators and parents for their factual accuracy This approach however misses an opportunity for young readers to participate in the generation and testing of information In A Literature of Questions Joe Sutliff Sanders offers an innovative theoretical approach to children s nonfiction that goes beyond an assessment of a work s veracity to develop a book s equivocation as a basis for interpretation Addressing how such works are either vulnerable or resistant to critical engagement Sanders pays special attention to the attributes that nonfiction shares with other forms of literature including voice and character and those that play a special role in the genre such as peritexts and photography The first book length work to theorize children s nonfiction as nonfiction from a literary perspective A Literature of Questions carefully explains how the genre speaks in unique ways to its young readers and how it invites them to the project of understanding At the same time it clearly lays out a series of techniques for analysis which it then applies and nuances through extensive close readings and case studies of books published over the past half century including recent award winning books such as Tanya Lee Stone s Almost Astronauts Thirteen Women Who Dared to Dream and We Are the Ship The Story of Negro League Baseball by Kadir Nelson By looking at a text s willingness or reluctance to let children interrogate its information and ideological context Sanders reveals how nonfiction can make young readers part of the project of learning rather than passive recipients of information

Eye of Newt and Toe of Frog, Adder's Fork and Lizard's Leg Marty Crump, 2015-11-16 From celebrated herpetologist and science writer Marty Crump a beautifully illustrated exploration of the interlinked stories of herp folklore natural history and conservation Frogs are worshipped for bringing nourishing rains but blamed for devastating floods Turtles are admired for their wisdom and longevity but ridiculed for their sluggish and cowardly behavior Snakes are respected for their ability to heal and restore life but despised as symbols of evil Lizards are revered as beneficent guardian spirits but feared as the Devil himself In this ode to toads and snakes newts and tuatara crocodiles and tortoises herpetologist and science writer Marty Crump explores folklore across the world and throughout time From creation myths to trickster tales from associations with fertility and rebirth to fire and rain and from the use of herps in folk medicines and magic as food pets and gods to their roles in literature visual art music and dance Crump reveals both our love and hatred of amphibians and reptiles and their perceived power In a world where we keep home terrariums at the same time that we battle invasive cane toads and where public attitudes often dictate that the cute and cuddly receive conservation priority over the slimy and venomous she shows how our complex and conflicting perceptions threaten the conservation of these ecologically vital animals Sumptuously illustrated Eye of Newt and Toe of Frog Adder's Fork and Lizard's Leg is a beautiful and enthralling brew of natural history and folklore sobering science and humor that leaves us with one irrefutable lesson love herps Warts scales and all
