Questions Of Heaven The Chinese Journeys Of An American Buddhist:

Questions of Heaven Gretel Ehrlich, 1998-03-31 A Haunting pilgrimage to one of China's holy mountains Ehrlich writes with tremendous grace and passion Miles Harvey Outside In spare lyrical prose Ehrlich inventively recounts her 1995 spiritual trip to China and Tibet Like one of the landscape paintings of which she writes Ehrlich's book is at once delicate deeply considered and moving Publishers Weekly starred review Ehrlich's highly personal travelogue centers on her attempt to find what remains of the once flourishing spiritual culture in the sacred mountains of western China Ehrlich intersperses her personal narrative with bits of the intellectual political historical and spiritual Alexandra Hall The New York Times Book Review If Questions of Heaven has a message it may reside in the author's belief in a bond across geography and generations one transcending space and time David L Ulin The Village Voice This is travel writing at its best Glenn Masuchika Library Journal

The Lost Daughters of China Karin Evans, 2008-10-02 In 1997 journalist Karin Evans walked into an orphanage in southern China and met her new daughter a beautiful one year old baby girl In this fateful moment Evans became part of a profound increasingly common human drama that links abandoned Chinese girls with foreigners who have traveled many miles to complete their families At once a compelling personal narrative and an evocative portrait of contemporary China The Lost Daughters of China has also served as an invaluable guide for thousands of readers as they navigated the process of adopting from China However much has changed in terms of the Chinese government's policies on adoption since this book was originally published and in this revised and updated edition Evans addresses these developments Also new to this edition is a riveting chapter in which she describes her return to China in 2000 to adopt her second daughter who was nearly three at the time Many of the first girls to be adopted from China are now in the teens China only opened its doors to adoption in the 1990s and this edition includes accounts of their experiences growing up in the US and in some cases of returning to China in search of their roots Illuminating the real life stories behind the statistics The Lost Daughters of China is an unforgettable account of the red thread that winds from China's orphanages to loving families around the globe

A New Zen for Women Perle Besserman, 2007-04-03 Perle Besserman's adventures in a Japanese Zen monastery provide the groundwork for this lively heartwarming narrative of a woman's life in Zen Engaging in cross cultural dialogues with nuns and laywomen in India China Japan and more Besserman dispels the notion that women had nothing to do with the founding and sustaining of Zen She shows how women continue to transform traditional Zen in new and creative ways integrating the practice of meditation into their lives Both informative and entertaining A New Zen for Women offers a new look at Western women encountering Zen

Journeys of Transformation John D. Barbour, 2022-03-31 Western Buddhist travel narratives are autobiographical accounts of a journey to a Buddhist culture Dozens of such narratives have since the 1970s describe treks in Tibet periods of residence in a Zen monastery pilgrimages to Buddhist sites and teachers and other Asian odysseys The best known of these works is Peter Matthiessen's The Snow Leopard further reflections emerge from thirty writers including John Blofeld Jan Van de Wetering Thomas Merton Oliver Statler Robert Thurman Gretel Ehrlich and Bill Porter The Buddhist concept of no self helps these authors interpret certain pivotal experiences of unselfing and is also a catalyst that provokes and enables such events The writers spiritual memoirs describe how their journeys brought about a new understanding of Buddhist enlightenment and so transformed their lives Showing how travel can elicit self transformation this book is a compelling exploration of the journeys and religious changes of both individuals and Buddhism itself Of Women and the Essay Elizabeth Bowen, Frances Brooke, Margaret Cavendish, Lydia Maria Child, Frances Power Cobbe, Judith Ortiz Cofer, Elizabeth David, Joan Didion, Annie Dillard, Jenny Diski, Gretel Ehrlich, Anne Fadiman, Fanny Fern, M.
